Notes, extracts, and genealogical sketches compiled from various sources, cited in the Bibliography and from family papers in the compiler's possession.

All material in brackets is the compiler's corrections and insertions, except where otherwise indicated.

Some letters are repeated for the purpose of comparison, as the copies vary and the original letters could not be consulted.

The notes and the genealogical facts are arranged in order of the generations. Scattered references are made to other families who have some connection with the Caldwells, i.e., Logan, Grundy, Knox, Smith, and Allen.

The name, Caldwell:--Scotch, cold-wold, the Hazlewood, or Divining Rod. The divining rod was for a long time hung in Bavarian Court rooms, a symbol of authority; and from it was the baton of officers suggested and evolved. Schoolmasters rods in the olden days were of hazlewood.

Caldwell, as given in Lower (Patronymica Britanica) signifies the Cold-well: Armorial bearings of the name are wells, waves, fountains, fishes, each suggesting water.

In Domesday Book the name is spelled Caldeuuelle.

The name has been common for centuries in England, Scotland, Ireland, France.

In Scotland, the Caldwells of Caldwell, Ayrshire, were prominent as early as 1349. They furnished at that date, a Chancellor to Scotland.

Caldwells from Mount Arid, near Toulon, went into Scotland [probably around 1525] in the reign [1515-1547] of Francis I. Caldwell's migrated from England, Scotland, Ireland to America, and established early homes in New England, New Jersey and the South.

In the records of the Presbytery of Newcastle, under date May 18, 1720, the following record appears: "A certain number of people, lately come from Ireland, having settled about the branches of Elk River, have by Thomas Reed and Thomas Caldwell, their commissioners, supplicated this Presbytery [for a minister].

EXTRACT FROM THE MEMORANDA OF HUGH CALDWELL OF BOTETOURT COUNTY, VIRGINIA:

The first mention or account of any person bearing the name of Caldwell I found in an ancient record in possession of Oliver Caldwell, whom I accidentally met in Carlisle, Pa. He had just emigrated from Ireland and was then [1754] in search of a place, in the neighborhood where I met him, to settle. He was accompanied by a young man named Daniel Cawldwell of Scotland. On my alluding to the difference in the spelling their names, Oliver handed me a record of the Caldwell family wherein the family spelled and pronounced their names differently, some

EXTRACT FROM THE RECORD OLIVER CALDWELL HANDED ME: Three brothers named John, Alexander, and Oliver, who were connected with and commanded vessels under two brothers, notorious pirates, by the name of Barbarossa, who had complete mastery of all the Mediterranean the latter end of the 14th and the beginning of the 15th century. [Khairreddin Barbarossa, the famous corsair, became Bey of Algiers in 1518] All nations of that sea paid them tribute, and at the same time courted their friendship, yet dreaded their power and influence, for they were in alliance with some of the most daring spirits of Spain, France, and Scotland. These pirates flourished for twenty years, when they were surprised and completely defeated and broken up by the Governor of Aran, a capital of a nation of Africa. After this defeat those of the parties who escaped, dispersed and settled in different parts of the world. John, Alexander, and Oliver above mentioned settled in Toulon in France (in which city they were born) at a place called Mt. Arid. Here they were much dreaded, for they commanded a powerful banditti, who were notorious as the "Robbers of Arid."

Francis 1st, then King of France, was in battle made prisoner by the Victorious Charles V of Germany, who was also king of Spain. After his release he was by these brothers robbed on his journey home. This circumstance turned the attention of that monarch to their conduct as robbers, and by his order they were so closely pressed that they thought proper to provide for their safety by leaving the country. They then settled in Scotland near Solway Firth, where they purchased an estate of a Bishop named Douglas, with the consent of James I [1566-1625] on condition that the said brothers, John, Alexander, and Oliver, late of "Mount Arid," and which estate should thereafter be known as "Cauldwell." And when the king should require they should each "send a son with twenty men of sound limbs to aid in the wars of the King."

[It appears that they remained in England some time before going into Scotland. In 1885 it was a tradition in Nottingham, England, that the Caldwells were in England early, then drifted to Scotland, and some came into England again, settling near Nottingham. Caldwells were in Derbyshire prior to 1769, in Rolleston, Staffordshire as early as 1588, in Leicestershire (near Merton Mowbry) as early as 1643.--From Caldwell--John Caldwell and Sarah Dillingham Caldwell, Ipswich, Mass., 1654 (1904), pp. 5-10.

In his Autobiography, Dr. Charles Caldwell of the Louisville Medical Institute says that one of the Caldwells in Ireland [probably of the Baronet line] searched the archives of the Continent and compiled family history. A very rare book, Selections from the family papers preserved at Caldwell, may be consulted at the Library of Congress for early Caldwell history]

This gentleman (named Oliver Caldwell) had in his possession a cup which I saw the estate took its name from a watering place. The cup represented a chieftain and twenty men on Joseph, John, Alexander, Daniel, David, and Andrew of Cauldwell, went with Oliver Cromwell (whose grandmother was Ann of Cauldwell) to Ireland, of which he was then Lord Governor. After his promotion to the Protectorate of England, they remained in his interest until the restoration of Charles II, when John, David, and Andrew fled to America. Joseph died in Ireland and Daniel continued there, but several of their children emigrated to Virginia and settled near James River. Others to Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Maryland, North [Carolina] and South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, New York, New Jersey and Ohio.

"Caldwell Family of France, Scotland, Ireland and America," Compiled by Mrs. Ida Caldwell Laxonby, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Caldwell Irwin, and published by Collins C. Caldwell. --Historical Collection of the

CALDWELL--The following sketch is taken from an old scrapbook and is contributed in answer to a question of J.M. Caldwell in "Constitution," Oct. 28th. [The copy in my family papers is headed, "The following interesting bit of family history is taken from the columns of the Marysville Eagle, and is published because of its interest to a large part of our population. It deals more especially with genealogy of the late Isaac Caldwell of Louisville." Inserts where my copy varies will be made throughout this selection in brackets.]

The name Caldwell is an honorable one in American Annals. No family made a brighter record for patriotism and personal bravery during the War of the Revolution and in [trying] pioneer times when the States were coming into shape on new soil. From Rhode Island to Florida, as far west as Texas, this family [extends] is scattered today, growing out of parent stock described in this article. Staunch defenders of Presbyterianism, they have been and are friends of education, influential in politics, and useful members of society.

The earliest records of the Caldwell family relate to three brothers--John, Alexander and Oliver--who were seamen on the Mediterranean in the latter part of the fourteenth century, under two men named Barbarossa. The influence of the latter was ended by the governor of Aran, after about twenty years, and those connected with them scattered over the world. The three brothers returned to Toulon in France, where they had been born, and settled nearby at Mount Arid. Earning the enmity of Francis I of France, after his escape from imprisonment under Charles V of Germany, the brothers were again forced to change their location. Going to Scotland, they purchased, near Solway Firth, the estate of a bishop named Doughlas [Douglas]. with the consent of James I, on a condition that the said brothers, John, Alexander and Oliver, late of Mount Arid, should have their estate known as Caldwell [Cauldwell] and when the king should require, they should each send a son with twenty men of sound limb to aid in the wars of the king.

SHERIFF COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES CALIFORNIA

An heirloom in the family is a silver cup from which it is seen that the estate took its name from a watering port [place]. The cup represents a chieftain and twenty mounted men, all armed, and a fire burning on a hill, over the words "Mount Arid," and a vessel surrounded by high waves. Joseph, John, Alexander, Daniel, David, and Andrew of Caldwell went with Cromwell (whose grandmother was Ann of Caldwell) to Ireland, of which he was Lord Governor. After his promotion to the Protectorate of England they remained in his interest in Ireland until [the] restoration of Charles II, when John, David and Andrew fled to America. Joseph died in Ireland and Daniel continued there, but several of their children emigrated to America, settling on James River, Virginia, and elsewhere. Another account renders it improbable that the last John mentioned above came to America. His [Correction: grandson] son John Caldwell (as the name had come to be spelled) married Margaret Phillips in County Derry, Ireland, where several children were born to them. On December 10, 1727, John Caldwell and family landed at Newcastle, Delaware, going thence to Lancaster County, Pa., and about 1742 to Lunenburg (now Charlotte County), Va. Here they were joined by relatives forming what was known as the Caldwell Settlement for [many] years. John Caldwell was the first justice of peace, and his son, William was the first militia officer commissioned by George II for that section. He died and was buried by the side of his wife, 1750. Their children were William (1), Thomas (2), David (3), Margaret (4), John (5), Robert (6), and James (7).

Each of these men contributed something to the early American History [some things early in American History]. James (7) Caldwell, D.D., one of the founders of Princeton College [Princeton was founded in 1747; this James, born 1734, went to Princeton at age 15, two years after founding of the college.], was murdered by British soldiers at Elizabeth, N.J., and his descendants received by way of pensions, clerkships at Washington for many years. Two of his sons led in founding the Liberia colonization scheme, and gave the name to Caldwell, Liberia. Martha, daughter of William (1) became the mother of John Caldwell Calhoun, statesman.

Elizabeth, daughter of William, married Robert Gilliam, of South Carolina, who was present at the battle of Cowpens and at Ninety-Six. The whole family was distinguished for their patriotism during the war of the Revolution [Elizabeth entry, above, not in Eagle copy]. Robert (6) was an early settler in Mercer County where he died in 1806, the father of a large family, who were an honor to the state. One son, John, died while lieutenant governor, and was buried at Frankfort and honored with monument at the public's expense. He gave name to Caldwell County, of which he was an early settler. Samuel, brother of John, was a Major General in the War of 1812, and the first clerk of Logan County Court. Both were members of the Legislature frequently, as was their brother, Robert, who presided in the house when the famous Resolutions of 1798 were adopted. The latter's daughter, Eliza, became the wife of O.H. Browning Lincoln's [Correction: Johnson's; Browning was advisor to Lincoln and helped edit his inaugural address; see Illinois Historical Association's publication of Browning papers. Eliza died in poverty. The Brownings had one adopted child.] Secretary of Interior. Mary, daughter of Robert (6) married Gen. B.C. Palmer [Dr. R.C. Palmer, of whom more later]. Five children were born to them. The only son, Dr. B.C. Palmer, married Eliza, daughter of Ben Hardin, as the first wife, and the second was Harriet Kees. He has five children.

[Insert from Marysville Eagle clipping copy: David (3) Caldwell was buried in the old churchyard in Lunenburg County, and his widow with her children settled at the place marked "Caldwell's Station" (near Danville) on Filson's map of Kentucky of 1784. One of the sons was John, who married Dicey Mann, having descendants, David, William, Beverly, Polly, and Phoebe.

William was twice married--first to Miss Pyle, who had three children, one of whom became the wife of Judge Ben Monroe; secondly, to Miss Nancy Trabue, by whom the children were Betsy, Nancy, Jane, George Alfred (the distinguished lawyer), Phoebe, William Beverly (a Louisville physician), Junius, Isaac (the lawyer recently deceased) and Mary Letitia. William Caldwell, like the other members of the family in Kentucky at the time and since, was a man of marked qualities. He was one of the founders of the town of Columbia, County of Adair, and for a great many years clerk of the County and Circuit Courts. He was a great leader and a strong Jeffersonian Democrat.

A summary of the descent of Isaac Caldwell is shown as follows: 1. John Caldwell (d. Ireland)
(one generation skipped here; see long chart to follow)

2. John Caldwell m. Margaret Phillips (d. Virginia)
3. David Caldwell (d. Virginia)
4. William Caldwell m. Nancy Trabue
5. Isaac Caldwell m. Kate Smith

The descent of the wife of Isaac Caldwell is also a part of the Caldwell genealogy:

4. Robert Caldwell m. Mary Logan
5. Mary Caldwell m. Robert C. Palmer
6. Henrietta Palmer m. Daniel Smith
7. Kate Smith m. Isaac Caldwell

I [Mrs. Ida Caldwell Laxonby (?)] append the sketch of Samuel Caldwell, noted above, the son of Robert Caldwell, who died in Mercer County, now Boyle, and his wife Mary Logan. Samuel was born in Charlotte County, Virginia, and emigrated to Kentucky in 1787 with his father's family. Was married to Ann Balch, daughter of Rev. Hezekiah James Balch, a Presbyterian minister and one of the framers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, March 6, 1794 [Error--date was May 20, 1774]. He was in his 22 year; she about 18. He lived and died in Russellville, Ky. Was the first clerk of the County, served the county in the Legislature and his country in a campaign against the Wabash Indians under General James Wilkerson in or about 1788. He was colonel of a mounted regiment in the War of 1812, and 1813, a brigadier general of mounted troops under command of Isaac Shelby, Gov. of Kentucky, and General W. H. Harrison, at the Marasian town in Thames in upper Canada, and is mentioned in the general orders of the times with approbation on the 5th day of October, 1813, as may be seen by reference to McAfee's History of the War of 1812. He died June 4, 1835, and was buried with military honors at Russellville, June 5, 1835. His widow, Ann Caldwell, died October 16, 1842, at the same place. She had inscribed upon his tombstone "An honest man is the noblest work of God." Their daughter, Judith Ann Keedy, had engraved on the mother's tomb: "Why for the virtuous dead should mourners weep? / The virtuous never truly die, but sleep."

The children of General Samuel and Ann Balch Caldwell were:

1. Mary Logan, born Jane [June?], 1795
2. Robert Phillips Balch Caldwell, born Nov. 17, 1796
3. Hezekiah James Caldwell, born Feb. 5, 1799, died Aug. 25, 1823
4. George Burr Jefferson and
5. Martha McCandless, twins, were born Feb. 22, 1801
George died Dec. 19, 1842, and Martha, August, 1802.
6. Samuel Benjamin Franklin Caldwell was born June 25, 1804
7. John Madison Caldwell was born Feb. 8, 1807; died April 1, 1813.
8. William Philpot Curran Caldwell was born July 25, 1810
9. Julian Ann Caldwell, born Jan. 9, 1812.

Nine Children

Robert Phillips Balch Caldwell married, first, Lucinda Penn, daughter of Alexander Penn and his wife, Miss Gordon, of New York. She died after the birth of their first child, August Byen Caldwell, who died young; second, Elizabeth Jameson Simpson, daughter of Andrew Simpson, who married Jane Simpson (no children), daughter of William Simpson and Mary Jameson. The Simpsons lived on James River, but I don't know what county. She bore him four daughters, 1. Lucinda Penn Caldwell, March 5, 1826; 2 Harriet Lucket [Caldwell] who died in her sixteenth year; 3 Elizabeth, married Judge Andrew Simpson of Taylorsville, Sagamon County, Illinois; 4 Mary, married Logan Ashby, no issue.

Joshua Worley married a daughter of John Caldwell, the third son of John the immigrant, and their grandson, Joshua Worley, married his own cousin, the daughter of his Mother's brother, making their descendants double kin, being two descended from John Caldwell, the immigrant. Joshua Worley, the grandson had 1. George, 2, Thompson, 3. Marie, 4. Harvey, 5. Joshua, 6. Jennie. Harvey (4) married Elizabeth Mason and had Mary who married Dr. Samuel Steadman, and Anna. He married second, Jane Waller and had Marian.

Appleton's Cyclopaedia of American Biography, Vol. 1, p. 498:

Samuel Caldwell--Soldier--He was a major in the Kentucky "Levies of 1791," and was distinguished in Wilkinson's expedition against the Indians that year. He was lieutenant-colonel commanding a regiment of Kentucky volunteers from September till November, 1812, and again in Green Clay's Brigade of six months volunteers under Gen. Harrison in 1813. He was made Brigadier-General of Volunteers on 31st of August 1813, and commanded a brigade in the Battle of the Thames, October 5, 1813.

General Samuel Caldwell, commander of the Fifth Brigade, was born in Charlotte County, Virginia in 1770, and came with his father's family to Kentucky in 1787 [1781 is given as the date in most notes]. He early moved to Russellville, in Logan County, and was first clerk of that county.

He commanded a regiment in the early part of the war. This regiment having been enlisted on the 20th of September, 1812. It was known as the First Kentucky Regiment of Mounted Militia.

He came of a distinguished family. His brother, General John Caldwell, was elected Lieutenant-Governor of Kentucky in 1804, and died at Frankfort that year, while the Legislature was in session.

Caldwell County was named for him, and to his memory the State erected a monument. His brother, Robert Caldwell, presided in the House of Representatives of the Kentucky Legislature in 1798, when the famous resolutions of that date were presented by John Breckenridge and adopted.

When eighteen years of age, in 1788 [Samuel] was a member of General Wilkerson's command, which was engaged in the Indian Territory.

He died June 14, 1835, and was buried with highest military honors. He and his wife are buried in a garden in the southern part of the City of Russellville in what is known as [the] Polly Latham's Addition. A simple headstone marks his resting place, on which is inscribed: "In memory of General Samuel Caldwell, who departed this life June 14, 1835. 'An honest man is the noblest work of God.'"

He was buried in the place in which he had lived for a number of years, at his home, which is now the property of John C. Orndorf of Russellville, who has kindly given the writer much of the information concerning him.

He was a man of great courage, the highest convictions, and noblest patriotism. He was a member of the House of Representatives from Caldwell County in 1805 and 1809. He possessed the widest influence, and was in the fullest sense honest and patriotic.

History of Johnson County (Missouri), "Post Oak Township," pp. 868-9 (Published 1881)

Thomas J. Caldwell

Among the worthy citizens of this township, none stands higher than the subject of this sketch. He was born in Caldwell County, Kentucky, April 7, 1833, is the son of Elder William P.C. Caldwell, who came with his family to Missouri, when Thomas was about twelve years old. He received his education in the common schools of those early days. Among his teachers were: the Harringtons, Drapers, Hereford [s], Barnes, and Johnsons. On January 24, 1856, he married Martha Holmes, daughter of Benjamin A. Holmes, a prominent farmer and stock raiser of this township. She was born July 27, 1838. Eight children have been born to this worthy pair, seven of whom are now living: Lula M., William A., John J., Ida B., Earnest L., Eddie B., and Myrtle. Miss Lula M. was educated in the Normal School, and [is] a successful and efficient teacher. Mr. Caldwell is the oldest of ten children, six boys and four girls. In 1862 he entered the Confederate Army, in Company F., Sixteenth Missouri Infantry, and stood bravely to his post until the surrender of Shreveport, La. The following are some of the engagements in which he took part: Prairie Grove, Helena, Little Rock, Camden, and Pleasant Hill, La. He owns five hundred acres of good land, beautifully situated near the head of Clear Fork. In 1873 Mr. Caldwell was chosen a member of the County Court and subsequently served as township trustee. In politics he is a straightforward Democrat, and in religion a Baptist and holds membership in the Harmony Church, where he stands among the most earnest workers and liberal supporters. He takes deep interest in public schools and all other enterprises that are calculated to promote the public good, for which the coming generation will be grateful. As a worthy citizen he exhibits a hospitable and generous feeling toward all.

"Caldwell Genealogy," Times dispatch, Dec. 3, 1905:

By request of a descendant, N.B.C., a sketch of the Caldwell family of Virginia with coat-of-arms as taken from the English peerage is here given, which we have reason to believe rightfully belongs to the American descendants, as many of the English family were in the British Army during the Revolution, and doubtless remained here.

John Caldwell was a merchant of Enniskillen, in Ireland, in 1639. His son James, settled at Rossbery, afterwards called Castle Caldwell in the county of Formanagh. He was made Baronet of Ireland, 1683 [Granduncle to John Caldwell who married Margaret Phillips]. He married Catherine, the daughter of Sir John Hume, a son of Sir James.

Henry Caldwell was Lieutenant-Colonel in command of the British at the defense of Quebec. He died in 1810, leaving a son, the Fifth Baronet. Sir John Caldwell of Castle Caldwell, Ireland, was Treasurer-General of Canada. He died in 1805 and left a son and heir, who was Count of Milan in the Holy Roman Empire, hence their arms bear the cross of Calvary.

The arms of the family were described as, Asure, three tops of wells in masonry, or, crest, out of a ducal coronet or cubit arm ppr., grasping a Cross of Calvary gu. Motto-Sapere Ande (Dare to be Wise)

[Insert: The Caldwells of Cub Creek have a common ancestral grandfather with the Baronet line, but their arms would not be the same as the 1863 arms with Milan addition 1810.

The first Baronet has descendants in this country through James, son of James Caldwell and his wife Catherine Hume's son; this James married Elizabeth Alexander and came to America, dying at the present Wheeling, West Va., about 1800.

From notes in the research book of my grandmother's niece, Mrs. R.T. Estes of Corinth, Miss (d. 1955) compiled about 1912: "Recent investigations prove that the Caldwells in America comprise at least three distinct branches of the family, each starting from a separate emigration from Ireland. First emigration: John Caldwell of Ireland with his family who landed at Newcastle, Delaware, Dec. 10, 1727 [some of this family group came much earlier]--settled first at Lancaster, Pa., and finally in 1742 at Caldwell's Settlement, Va. Second emigration: James Caldwell of Co. Tyrone, Ireland, with his family in 1796. With him came two younger brothers, John who settled in Virginia and David who settled in South Carolina

[Andrew Caldwell, brother of John Caldwell who married Margaret Phillips actually came prior to 1718; his son David Caldwell, the famous minister and patriot, went to North Carolina in 1765]. Third emigration: John Caldwell of Harmony Hill, near Ballymony, County Antrim, Ireland, with his family in 1798 settling in New York. He also had two brothers who came to America; James who settled in Philadelphia and Richard who settled in Baltimore.]

Bishop Meade speaks of the family quite early, and Henning gives George and William Caldwell, privates of the Augusta County Militia in Company H, 1742. In 1758 William Caldwell was Major in this service, and was then living in Lunenburg. George Caldwell of Bedford was Sergeant and James, Robert, and John were privates.

John Caldwell of Prince Edward County, where the family in Virginia first settled, was a soldier in the Revolution, after which, in 1781 moved to Kentucky and fought in the Indian wars, arising to the rank of Major General. He was in the State Conventions of 1787 and 1788 and then in the State Senate in 1792 and 1793. He died in Frankfort in 1804.

From him descended many prominent men in the West. Of whom we might mention John William Caldwell of Russellville, Ky., who was a Colonel in the Confederate Army and afterwards judge of Logan County, and represented the State in Congress from the forty-fifth to the forty-seventh session. Also Samuel Caldwell who was a Major in Kentucky in 1791, rising to Lieutenant-Colonel of a regiment of Kentuckians during the War of 1812. [Samuel, son of Robert Caldwell and Mary Logan]

The most interesting character of the family during the Revolution was, beyond a doubt, the Rev. James Caldwell, who was born in Charlotte County in 1724. He graduated as a minister at Princeton, N.J., and became active against the Tories and enlisted as Chaplain in the Patriot Army, was known as the "Soldier Parson" and suffered heavily for his patriotism, having his house and the church he preached[in] burned by the British. Mrs. Caldwell was killed in her home while praying with her children. In the defense of Springfield, N.J., during the battle he supplied the men with hymn books to use for wadding and exclaimed, "Now, put Watts into them, boys!" He himself was shot by a sentry, for some altercation, who was hanged for murder in 1782. He was supposed to have been bribed by the British to kill the Chaplain, whom they dreaded. His son John E. Caldwell was taken to France by Lafayette and educated.

A handsome monument marks the graves of the Chaplain and his wife at Elizabeth, N.J.; one of his daughters Martha [Error--Martha was the daughter of Rev. Caldwell's brother William] married Patrick Calhoun and they were the parents of the noted John Caldwell Calhoun.

[Insert: William Caldwell, son of John and Margaret Phillips Caldwell, married Rebecca Parks. In VMHB, Vol. 34, page 150, it is noted that Rebecca Park married Major William Caldwell of Charlotte Co., Va. After his death Rebecca Parks Caldwell and her family moved to South Carolina, where she died at Newberry at the age of 99, leaving a will. Their daughter became the mother of John Caldwell Calhoun (Andrea MSS).

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the President of the Senate, dated January 1, 1901. The letter is signed by William McKinley and is addressed to John D. Long. The letter is a copy of a letter that was sent to the President of the Senate by the President of the United States.

Among other errors in the identification of Martha Caldwell Calhoun found in this research are William and Mary's Quarterly, Ser. 2, V. 6 (1926) p. 53; Samuel Cole Williams, Dawn of the Tennessee Valley and Tennessee History (Watauga Press, 1937), footnote 5, page 209, which states that John C. Calhoun's mother was a Craighead. (Patrick Calhoun married, first, Miss Craighead who died Sept. 10, 1776, without issue; he married, second, Martha Caldwell, daughter of William Caldwell and Rebecca Parks, as shown in papers compiled by Leonardo Andrea, 4204 Devine St., Columbia, South Carolina, and in copies of family letter to follow in this manuscript. Patrick Calhoun and Martha Caldwell were parents of John C. Calhoun-- as shown in Kemper's article, page 57, William and Mary's Quarterly, Ser. 2, Vol. 7) On page 34 Joseph Addison Waddell, Annals of Augusta County (Staunton, Virginia), a footnote errs in stating that John Caldwell [Cub Creek] was John C. Calhoun's grandfather; he was the Statesman's great grandfather. Joseph Howard Parks, Felix Grundy (LSU Press, 1954) makes the error of implying that a daughter of John Caldwell and Margaret Phillips was John C. Calhoun's mother. Hanna, The Scotch-Irish, Vol. 1, p. 54, is right in saying that John C. Calhoun was grandson of James Calhoun who came from Donegal, Ireland, in 1733, and cites John C. Calhoun by Dr. VonHolst, p 81, and cites John H. Jenkins, Life of John C. Calhoun, that Patrick married Martha Caldwell in 1775, but repeats error of her parentage. Maude Glasgow, the Scotch Irish in Northern Ireland and the American Colonies, p. 320, makes the error of stating that John Caldwell Calhouns parents came over from Ireland.]

Sanganash was the Indian name given to Captain "Billy" Caldwell, a noted half-breed leader in Canada. His father was an officer in the British Army and direct descendant of the Caldwells of Ireland. Many stories could be told of this wonderful Indian. His home in 1828 was the first framehouse built in Chicago, where he had come to live in 1820.

A full pedigree of the Caldwells would embrace Caldwells over the entire country.

Appended to my copy of the Marysville Eagle article, which is substantially the same as the clipping copy in the above, "The Caldwells of France, Scotland, Ireland, and America--the differences indicated by inserts--is the following:

John Caldwell married Margaret Phillips in County Derry, Ireland, came to America in 1727 landing at Newcastle, Delaware, from there going to Lancaster, Penn. In 1742 moved to Lunenburg County, Virginia. He died in 1750 and is buried beside his wife. Where this family lived was called "Caldwell Settlement" and was led by the same John Caldwell who was [great] grandfather to John C. Calhoun. The county of Charlotte was set off from the County of Lunenburg in 1764. The people of Charlotte were the first to rebel against British tyranny. John Caldwell was a member of the Cub Creek Church in this settlement. This church was established in 1735.

The children of John and Margaret [Phillips] Caldwell were: William, Thomas, David, Margaret, John, Robert, and James.

Robert Caldwell was an early settler in Mercer County, Kentucky, going there in 1781 from Prince Edward County, Va.

This Robert was born 1732, Lancaster County, Penn., died in or near Danville, Ky., July 30, 1806. This grave is marked. He married Mary Logan in Virginia. She died shortly before he did [July, 1815, aged 76 years] and is buried in family burying grounds. Their children were: Margaret b. 1755, John, David, William, Robert, born 1762, Phillips, Jane, Samuel, Mary, Eliza and James. Robert, Jr., married Hannah Willis in Kentucky; they settled in Adair County, Kentucky. He became a wealthy land and slave owner. Their children were--David, died in Kentucky--married; William m. Rebecca Edmonds in Tenn.--they died in Obion County and have many descendants; Edward, also called Ned) m. Mary Lewis--he died in Memphis, Tenn, 1870--had no children; Henry Logan--probably went to Missouri; Mary m. _____ Turner; Nancy m. _____ a northern man; Varner m. _____ and died in Tenn.; James, died in Obion Co.; Joseph m. Caroline Hamilton in Kentucky, they settled in St. Joseph, Missouri; Hannah, died in Kentucky; Warren, born 1811, was the 13th child of this couple. He married Jane Anderson McNutt, a daughter of William B. McNutt and Margaret Gillespie, near Gipson Wells, Tenn., July 1835. They went to Holly Springs, Mississippi, same year. Twelve children were born, four dying in infancy.

Warren Caldwell died October 19, 1874 in Holly Springs. His wife died October, 1879, in Corinth, Miss.

Their daughter Margaret married John Daniel Bills, in Holly Springs, Mississippi. He died in Corinth, Miss., July 3, 1911 --was a Confederate soldier, 32nd Miss., Co. B--age 72 years.

In handwriting (bottom of the sheet): Robert Caldwell, Sr., b. Lancaster Co., Pa., at a place called "Chestnut Loral [Level]"

Robert Caldwell, Jr., b. Lunenburg Co., Va., 1762--died Adair Co., Ky.

The following information was apparently furnished my family by Mrs. J.M. (Catherine) Gleissner, 817 West 3rd St., Abilene, Kansas--from materials she had collected in 1912/1914 (?). Her letter to Mrs. C.J. Pounds, Corinth, Miss., Jan. 26, 1914 says: "The letter from Isaac C. telling about the duels in the papers I sent you was in the possession of the Louisville Caldwells. This Isaac was Mrs. Metcalfs ancestor and my grandfather's youngest brother." The "Extract from the Memoranda of Hugh Caldwell. . . ." and "Extract from the Record Oliver Caldwell Handed Me," copied at the beginning of this manuscript, headed this material. The remainder is here copied in order:

THE FOLLOWING IS A RECOLLECTION OF JOSEPH CALDWELL OF FREDERICK COUNTY, VIRGINIA

Oliver, my father, married Ann daughter of John Caldwell, his cousin, in the County of Dary [Derry], Ireland. Oliver with his brothers David and Alexander, emigrated and settled in Pennsylvania.

James Caldwell, a Delegate near Harrisburg, was father's cousin.

Mother had two brothers, John and Alexander Caldwell [who] emigrated from Ireland and settled near Wilmington, Del.

John Caldwell of Prince Edward was a cousin of my father and had six sons, two of them Anthony and William went with me to the siege of Yorktown. Joseph Caldwell, near Fort Pitt, Penn., was my cousin, as was also Joseph, near Wheeling, Va., who married a daughter of Mordicai James at Zanesville. Alexander Caldwell, now Judge of the Federal Court for the Western District of Virginia, is a brother of the latter Joseph. George Caldwell, a relative, went to Kentucky, there had three sons; one of them, Alexander, was killed by the Indians.

John Caldwell left Pennsylvania and married in South Carolina. He was first cousin to my father and brother to my mother. Elias Caldwell, a cousin of my father, settled near Newburyport, Mass. My father used to correspond with several relations of our name in Philadelphia. One was named Jacob and the other William.

DAVID CALDWELL'S LETTER, DATED MERCER CO., KY., DEC. 15, 1807.

"I am the eldest son living of Robert Caldwell, who died July 30, 1806. I have made inquiries of the eldest known and distant relation of ours, and it appears from his account our family originated from the French. He informed me of Three brothers John, William, and Andrew, who fled from France in the persecution, and settled in Scotland, (Protestants) After the persecution they returned and bought their Coat of Arms in the house of Claud in Scotland. The Coat of Arms, as near as I can recollect, was a Roebuck, a Star and Three waves of the Sea.

"When James VI of Scotland and I of England, came to the crown of England, these families came and settled in the North of Ireland. From this house our grandfather, John Caldwell, descended, and from thence embarked for America, and landed at Newcastle, Delaware, from thence settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

"After this he removed to Virginia, Lunenburg, County, (Now Charlotte) at which place the Rev. James Caldwell was born, the youngest of six sons and one daughter, was sent to Princeton about the age of 15.

"When he received his education, he did not return again to Virginia to live, but married a Miss Ogden of Newark and settled in Elizabethtown over a Presbyterian congregation.

"Our grandfather, John Caldwell, was married in Ireland to Margaret Phillips; he brought to America four single sisters. My father had living in Kentucky seven sons and four daughters. The eldest Margaret Cook, is now living; the second John C. died at Frankfort, Speaker of the Senate, three years since. I am the third, William 4th, Robert 5th, Phillip 6th, merchant in South Carolina; Jane Logan died two years ago. Samuel, an attorney, 8th, Mary Palmer 9th, Eliza and James, the youngest, live on a plantation with my mother. They and their families are in good health. I live 250 miles west of my mother near the Ohio. I have three sons and three daughters. The youngest child is three[?] years old. Thus far I have given you all the information respecting our family."

WILL--Robert Caldwell, 1806, Mercer County Records, b-3, p.190, Harrodsburg, Ky.

In the name of God Amen--

I, Robert Caldwell of Mercer County, State of Kentucky, being in good health, sound in mind and memory, not knowing how soon my change may come, do ordain this to be my last Will and Testament, and in the first place I do hereby resign my immortal Soul to God that gave it, my body to the ground to be decently buried by my Exec'r., and insure certain hopes of the resurrection at the last day. Now as for my Estate I dispose of in the way and manner following---

In the first place my Will is, that all my just debts be sparely and punctually paid, and the remainder to be divided as followeth--

My Will is that my wife keep possession of the house I now live in and all the house-hold and kitchen furniture during her life, and if she should desire to give any of the furniture to any of the children or grand-children or great grand-children, she may do so without being accountable to any person for so doing, and that she have her choice of any three of the negroes not willed away.

I will to my son James the plantation and Treck [tract?] of land I now live on and a negro boy named Ben. The said land and negro to him and his Heirs forever.

I will to my daughter Elizabeth two negro girls to wit--Rose and Sillah, and a horse as good as the sorrel that I sold of hers and her mair [mare] Primrose. Sixty pounds in money or 200 Acres of land to her and her Heirs forever. (Out of William Conds)

I give to my daughter Jean, sixty pounds or 200 Acres of land from the William Cond to her and her Heirs forever.

My Will is that my son Robert have 200 Acres improved land or the value thereof to him and his Heirs forever, and that all my Estate not mentioned in the Will be evenly divided amongst all my children.

Mercer Sct. August Co. Court, 1806: The foregoing instrument of writing was produced in Court as the last Will and Testament of Robert Caldwell dec'd and proven to be wholly written by the said Decedent, by the Oaths of David Knox, James Mitchell, and Geo. Caldwell. Same was also proven to have been declared by the decedent to be his last Will and Testament.

On the 30th day of July 1806 at his own house, it being in his last sleep, the day of his death, by the oaths of Gabriel Slaughter, and Charles Bunton, and ordered to be Recorded.

A letter found among the papers of Mrs. Col. S. Hamilton, daughter of Elias Boudinot Caldwell, Clerk of the U.S. Supreme Court:

December 16, 1807

To Elias B. Caldwell, Washington City

Dear Sir: You wrote to Robert Caldwell who died the 30th of July 1806; of whom I am the eldest son living I find in your last letter to my father that you wish to know something of the history of our family. I have made inquiries of the oldest man I know, a distant relative of ours, and it appears from his account, that our family originated from the French.

He informs me of the brothers--John, William and Andrew--who fled from Frances in the persecution, and settled in Scotland. They returned and brought their coat of Arms, and set it in the house of Claird, in Scotland. The coat of arms as nearly as can be recollected, was a roe-buck, a star, and three waves of the sea.

When King James, sixth of Scotland, and first of England, came to the crown of England, these families settled in the North of Ireland.

From that house our grandfather, John Caldwell, descended: and from thence he embarked for America, and landed at New Castle, Delaware, and settled in Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania.

From thence he removed to the county then called Lunenburg, now Charlotte, at which place your father--James Caldwell, was born; the youngest of a family of six sons and one daughter. Your father was sent to Princeton, about the age of fifteen, where he received his education. He did not return to Virginia to live.

Our grandfather-John Caldwell-married Margaret Phillips in Ireland, County of Antrim. He brought to America four single sisters.

My father had living in Kentucky, seven sons and four daughters. 1. Margaret; 2. John C. Died at Frankfort; Speaker of the Senate three years ago; 3. I am the third; 4. William; 5. Robert; 6. Phillips, Merchant in South Carolina; 7. Jan [e] Logan, died two years ago; 8. Samuel, Attorney at law; 9. Mary Palmer; 10. Elizabeth Grundy; 11. James, the youngest lives on plantation with mother.

They and their families are in good health at present. My mother enjoys tolerable health.

I live 250 miles west of my mother, (Mercer Co., Kentucky) near the Ohio. I have three sons and three daughters; the youngest child ten years old.

Thus far I have given you a correct statement of the origin of our family as can at this late period be procured.

Your aff. Cousin,

David Caldwell

Congregation, pp. 90-91, inserts of the variation of that letter from the one copied in my manuscript will be indicated in brackets]:

Our grandfather, John Caldwell, was born in Ireland, and was there married to a Margaret Phillips, (our grandmother) He remained there until he had five children, at which time he got three of his brothers-in-law, Moore, Richey and Dudgeon to agree to come to this country; and another brother-in-law who married his wife's sister, named Dougherty (his son Thomas, formerly Clerk in the lower house of Congress) These set sail together and landed in New Castle, Del. the day that King George II was proclaimed there. From thence he moved to a place in Pennsylvania, called "Chestnut Lorel."

Our grandfather, John Caldwell, of an enterprising disposition, explored the country southwesterly, and settled at a place in Virginia, (Now Charlotte County) was soon followed by [all] his kindred. There he lived some years, and there our grandmother died and his oldest son. My mother, Margaret their only daughter, was married there to my father John Rodgers. Our grandfather then hearing of Roanoke [Staunton] River, explored the country until he and his followers fixed on a level, well watered spot 30 miles outside of any habitation, to which place he and his sons and brother-in-law moved about the year 1742 or 3.

They were soon joined by other families, mostly from Ireland or Pennsylvania, until they formed a little concert settlement, which was always known by the name of the "Caldwell Settlement" for thirty years afterwards. Our grandfather was the first Justice of the Peace, and the eldest son, Militia officer, appointed under George II, within 25 miles of that place. . . .

In that neighborhood, I was born and married, and had six children before I moved to Kentucky in 1781. Our grandfather's children were William, Thomas, David, Margaret, John, Robert and James. My father and grandfather died in October 1750 just fourteen days apart...[William, Thomas and David are all buried in the churchyard of Cub Creek with their father. David's widow and her children moved to Kentucky. Uncle John and William's widow and her family moved to South Carolina. Uncle John was killed by the Indians. Our friend John C. Calhoun is a grandson of Uncle William]

My mother married a second time, a man by the name of James Mitchell. She had five children by each husband. Two of her daughters died in Virginia, the rest came to Kentucky, and have become numerous families. William Thomas and David are all buried in the Church Yard with their father. David's widow and her family moved to South Carolina. Uncle John was killed by the Indians. Our friend, J.C. Calhoun, is a grandson of Uncle William.

I am in my 79th year and enjoying good health.

Your affectionate relation,

and thank you for the information therein contained. You cannot conceive what feelings crossed my brain when I heard of so many of my kindred according to the flesh well in this world and to human appearance not forgetful of the next, the accounts you give me of many of my dear people are truly pleasing to me as I am now eldest of all our family & have from my youth up, been very curious in collecting all the information I could obtain from my oldest relations with regard to our ancestors. I will give you a short sketch of what I know on that subject. It may afford you some amusement in your leisure hours.

Our grandfather emigrated from Scotland to Ireland soon after King William's conquest of that place. Our grandfather John Caldwell was born in Ireland & was there married to a Margaret Phillips (our grandmother) He remained there till they had five children at which time he got three of his brothers-in law to come to America with him (to wit) Moor, Richey & Dudgeon. All of whom I well remember, & one brother-in-law who married his wife's sister whose name was Dougherty, grandfather of my wife and Thomas Dougherty formerly Clerk to the lower house of Congress and of course known to you. These set sail together and landed in Delaware the very day that King George the Second was proclaimed there. From thence they got up the country to a place in Pennsylvania then called Chestnut Level. Our grandfather, naturally of an enterprising spirit, explored the country Southwesterly from a place in Virginia now Albermarle County to which he moved and was soon followed by all [of] his kindred. There he lived for some years; There our grandfather died and his oldest son and my mother, his only daughter, were married. They and their companions moved with him to Roanoke River and the fine lands there explored the country Westwardly till he and his followers fixed on a fine level watered spot not 30 miles outside any inhabitants to which place him and his sons and brothers-in-law moved about the year 1742 or 3.

They were soon after joined by other friends mostly from Ireland or Pennsylvania until they formed a little connected Settlement which was known and always called Caldwell Settlement for thirty years after. Our father was the first Justice of Peace and his oldest son the oldest militia officer that was ever appointed under King Geo 2nd.

within 25 miles of that place in that neighborhood I was born and in it was married and had six children before I moved to Kentucky in the year 1781. Our grandfather's children were Wm., Thomas, David & Margaret, John, Robert & James. My father and grandfather both died in October 1750, just 14 days apart. My mother married a man by the name of James Mitchell. She had five children by each husband. Two of her daughters died in Virginia. The rest all came to Kentucky & have numerous families. Her son Robert died in Kentucky. William, Thomas and David are all buried in the same grave yard with their father. David's widow and all the family moved to Kentucky. Uncle John went to South Carolina and died there. Uncle William's widow and all that family went also to So. Carolina. Our friend J.C. Calhoun is a son of the 2nd daughter of that family. I enjoy as good health as a man in his 79th year has any good reason to expect or look for, for which I ought to be very thankful to the Great Giver of all blessings. My kindred in this section of the Country are all well as far as I know. I am sorry to hear of your declining state of health but hope you will be enabled by grace Divine to bear it without murmuring though. Remember me to your wife & dear children and to your brother Josiah and family. I greet you all as dear relations and although I shall never see any of you in this world I hope to meet you at a future day in a far happier place. How vain are All things here below, yet I feel a desire to hear from you all often whilst I do live. On looking over what I have written I see a good many blots & blunders which you will readily excuse. Farewell! Farewell!

EXTRACT FROM A LETTER FROM MRS. MARY L. ROCHESTER, WRITTEN NEAR DANVILLE, KY., DECEMBER 15, 1862:

My dear Cousin Isaac:

Your very interesting letter of June was received soon after our mail communication was all cut off, and for several months, we could send no letters, so of course, I wrote none. Since the battle of Perryville, we have done little else but nurse the wounded and wait on the armies, so I could not even get time to go to see Aunt Phebe and Uncle Sam to gather the information desired. I went last week, however, and got memoranda of all that they could tell me.

Our great grandfather was David Caldwell of Lunenburg Co., Va., I neglected to get the names of all his children, though you did not ask for them. Our grandfather, whom you know, was John Caldwell married Dicey Mann. Their children David, William, Beverly, Polly and Phebe (the order of their ages, but I could not get the record.)

After our grandmother's death, he married Jane Walker, born Jan. 7th, 1755 (who was Jane Neely before marriage) and their children in the order of their ages were Samuel Walker, John, Dicey Mann, Peggy and Isaac, born Nov. 30, 1795, ten in all. You must be sure to send me a copy as promised, as I am, as you know, very clannish and grow more so, as I get older.

Poor old uncle Sam cannot last much longer. He is failing fast and much more rapidly than heretofore. Aunt Phebe is in remarkably good health for one of her age.

Very sincerely your cousin,
Tish

especially one visit he made to my father's. I think in 1824 when he read to us the trial of Beaucham for the murder of Sharp, and I think at same time had the celebrated "Coffin hand bill," a campaign document put out by the opposition to Jackson for the Presidency. He had two brothers who survived him for several years, and resided some five or six miles from my father's. One of them, David, never married; the other, Robert, had a large family. Several of his sons settled in the "Western District," Obion County Tennessee, from whom most of the Caldwell families in Tennessee and the Kentucky branches descended. [Robert was the brother of the great grandfather of this writer, David, son of John and Margaret Phillips Caldwell]

Of my grandfather's children, the oldest David, married Miss Lucy Cabiness, --they had six children--he was at the battle of New Orleans and although he survived the war, he never returned to his family. His abandoned wife and children had various fortunes. For many years they were very poor, but I saw the old lady, one son and two daughters in 1838, in Huntsville, Ala, where they were living in affluence. The son, John M. had a large family. He afterwards had reverses, lost everything and was himself lost overboard a Steamer on Red River in Texas during the war of the Rebellion.

My uncle William was twice married. His first wife was a Miss Pyle--they had three children, Maria, who died unmarried Matilda married Jonathan Patterson, who at one time owned and operated a paper mill on "Greasy Creek" in Russel County, Ky., but many years ago removed to this estate. Eliza married George Wagley, who made and squandered several fortunes in merchandise, met a valiant death, shot down in the streets of Columbia, Ky., in 1846. They had two children, Will and Mollie. The widow married Judge Ben Monroe and died a few years thereafter at Frankfort, Ky., of cancer.

My uncle Williams second wife was Nancy Trabue. They had several children, Betsy, Nancy Jane, George Alfred, Phebe, William Beverly, Junius, Isaac and Mary Letitia. Betsy married Billy Trabue, her mother's cousin and with her family resides in Columbia, Ky.

Nancy J. married Dr. John D. Winston and is in Nashville, Tenn.; Phebe married Dr. Helm of Bowling Green, Ky.; George Alfred died about fifteen years ago unmarried. Dr. Wm. B. married Augusta Guthrie; Junius married Miss Rochester; Isaac married a daughter of Dan'l Smith of Louisville, and Mary Tish married Charley Rochester, father-in-law of Junius.

My father's sister Polley married a man named McCoun in Mercer County, Ky. Their daughter used to visit our family in Greene County, when I was quite small. The McCouns many years ago removed to Missouri, and we ceased to communicate with them.

Aunt Phebe, after she was fifty years old, married James Caldwell, who was a son of Robert, the brother of David my great grandfather. Of the children of my grandfather's second wife I am not so familiar. Uncle Sam is married, I think his cousin, but I do not know who her father was. He spent his life on a farm near Danville. I have been a few times at his house. My impression is that my father's half-brother John married a Miss Spears and resided and died on a farm some three miles from my father's before my recollection.

The half sister Dicey [Mann] married Willis Caldwell, her cousin, son of Robert; Peggy married a Mr. Watson and both more than a half a century ago settled in Obion Co., Tennessee.

Isaac the youngest went to Mississippi, studied law with George Poindexter, who was one of the leading politicians of the State. Society was rough at that day in Mississippi--all difficulties were settled according to the code. Poindexter got into numerous difficulties which my uncle always espoused, right or wrong. He fought some three or four duels on Poindexter's account in one of which he was killed at Canton, Mississippi by Dr. Gunn, about the year 1836.

JAMES CALDWELL--1760-1781

From the Rev. Nicholas Murray, D.D., Elizabethtown, N.J., November 16, 1847:

My dear Sir: I am happy to comply with your request in furnishing, as much in detail as I can, the facts connected with the eventful life of the Rev. James Caldwell. Though almost seventy years have passed since his death, his name is still fragrant, not only within the bounds of his congregation, but throughout this whole region; and there are not a few among us, who are alive to every effort to honor and perpetuate his memory.

The Caldwell family, if a uniform tradition can be relied on, are of French origin, and, at the time of the Reformation became Huguenots. Driven from their country by the fierce persecutions which succeeded the revocation of the Edict of Nantz, they fled to Scotland, where they lived upon an estate, called Cold-Well, from a remarkably cold spring of water upon it. Driven from Scotland by other persecutions, they fled to Ireland, where as Presbyterians, they were permitted to worship God in peace. Early in the Eighteenth Century, John Caldwell came to this country from Ireland, bringing with him besides his wife and children, four sisters,--all unmarried. Landing at Newcastle, Del., he settled first in Lancaster County, Pa., but soon removed to a settlement called Cub Creek, in what is now Charlotte County, Virginia. There James Caldwell, the subject of this sketch, was born in 1734, the youngest of seven children. And so numerous became the descendants of John Caldwell, that they gave their name to a place which I understand is called, "The Caldwell Settlement" to the present day.

This is said to be the origin of the name.

LETTER FROM ISAAC CALDWELL

which I was engaged to be fought on the day that letter bears date. I have the good luck to send it in proper person, that you see what would have been my feelings, disclosed in what was prepared as a last communication at a time that nothing but sincerity controlled my conduct and words.

The affair was with a young lawyer, Jos. B. Smith, Esq., of Natchez, growing out of illiberal expressions used by [him] of me by him in an electioneering canvass relative to our next U.S. Senatorial election. Smith was in favor of one candidate and I in favor of another.

It would be useless to give you a detail of the cause of the quarrel, for in matters of this kind as much and often more depends on the actions and manner of making offensive expressions, as upon the literal expressions themselves, therefore were I to give you a detail you might say it amounts to nothing. I can only assure you that my conduct was approbated and applauded by all honorable men acquainted with the circumstances.

I sent a challenge to Smith on the 3rd inst., he accepted it on the 4th and the time agreed on for the fight was the 5th at 4 o'clock p.m., across the Mississippi River, upon these terms, viz American muskets at 40 yards. To fire six successive rounds with ball cartridge unless one or both sooner fell. The parties to stand in firing position.

The guns to be loaded the first time by the second and the pieces cocked and at an order, at the word fire, to raise and fire at pleasure and then the parties themselves to load and fire at pleasure till the six rounds are exhausted.

We met upon the ground in the view of some hundred of people on this shore and in the presence of nearly one hundred gentlemen who came over to see the sport. About ten minutes before the time appointed, Gen'l. Hinds crossed the river and made a great exertion to settle the difference amicably. His efforts at first proved abortive. I and my friends stood firm, would make no concessions or advances towards such a settlement. Neither would we withdraw the challenge in order to give the other party an opportunity to apologise in that mode. When Hinds saw the ground we assumed he asked for a delay of the combat fifteen minutes, which my friends granted but before the expiration of the latter time the adverse party came to the following terms, viz: he withdrew his letter of acceptance to my challenge, withdrew the offensive expressions which occasioned the challenge and then I withdrew the challenge.

I came out of this affair greatly to my credit with all my friends; highly gratified especially to my fighting friends and much to my own satisfaction. The ground was measured and marked, every preparation made and I am sure there was never a man better and more cool and composed on such an occasion than I was at that time. I was surrounded by several of the most brave and noble hearted fellows of the country, who were resolved to see me acquit myself honorably and who showed to me by the cheering evidence of their countenance of the field that they had full faith in me. We conceded nothing and when everything was removed by the adversary there was nothing to fight for when the challenge was withdrawn.

I know you will not altogether approbate this kind of business but be assured my honor was deeply involved and there was no way of avoiding a fight without irreparable injury to myself.

My opposition to that D--d rascal Reed has instigated him and many of the satellites to an effort to disgrace me or in some way run me off the track or so paralise my powers that I may be unable to expose the D--d villainies of that man.

Thus it became absolutely necessary in self preservation to check their headway and bring some one of the chief offenders to taw culty. It has had a happy effect in my favor on public opinion and will make my enemies a little more circumspect in their deportment towards me.

I have learned at all events that I can confront, without emotion, any danger to which the calls of honor summon me and I am sure you would rather hear of my honorable death than living disgrace.

I shall not seek difficulties of this kind but endeavour to avoid them, yet I will never dishonorably fly from them. In this southern climate such things are more common and the shunning of them more disgraceful than in Kentucky. Men here are probably of a more mecurial temperament.

Mr. Chew to whom I sold Wyatte went to Maryland last Spring and has not yet ret'd. He left Wyatte near Woodville with a Mr. Thomas Chew and directed me when he left here that if there was a pressing call for money to take charge of Wyatte and sell him again to raise the means. This latter course I expect will have to be adopted as Chew cannot possibly raise the funds. I will go down there in a few weeks and pursue some certain and effectual course. It would better enable me to act if you would just send me a bill of sale made to me at Natchez where I shall spend the chief of the winter.

You lost $700.00 cash by my living which you would have received in the enclosed letter.

Show this to Dr. Gaither. Commend me to Father, Mother and all relations.

Your brother,
Isaac Caldwell

I [Isaac Caldwell of Carbondale, Ill. (?)] now here add a copy of my grandfather's record of his first marriage and the birth of their children and [?] which I have in a small pronouncing dictionary by Wm. Johnston. Doubtless the family record is in my grandfather's handwriting. I prize it very highly as a relic of rare merit and will try and copy the little ancient peculiarities such as "Ye" for "the" & Some errors in Grammar and spelling.

"John Caldwell and Dicey Mann was married June ye 1st, 1775.

5 Phebe Caldwell (d) was born on Tuesday about 4 o'clock Feby 10th, 84. Phebe Caldwell was 1 y. 0 mo. 17 days at her mother's death.

We lived together 9 y. 8 mo. 26 days when my beloved wife left me lonely. She departed this life Feby. 27th, 1785, aged 31 years, 5 mo. 24 days."

All of the foregoing I suppose to be in the handwriting of my grandfather John Caldwell.

I find recorded in the same book, the following in my father William Caldwell's handwriting:

"John Caldwell, son died Thursday 11 June 1829, 20 minutes after 11 o'clock and buried next 4 o'clock P.M."

I also find in the same book in my handwriting: "Wm. Caldwell died January 10th. 1854 aged 76 years and 5 months."

"Phebe Caldwell died 7th Nov. 1869, aged 85 years, 8 months and 27 days."

I also find in my copy of my father's family record that Grandfather John Caldwell died June 11th, 1829, aged 80 years.

Samuel Walker Caldwell's wife Betsy Caldwell was the daughter of David Caldwell who was the brother William Caldwell and a bachelor brother William Caldwell [?]. David Caldwell married Phebe Mann who was a sister to Dicey Mann, who married John Caldwell, David's brother.

David Caldwell had a son named Jackson for whom James Barnes Caldwell thinks his brother Jackson [is] named. David Caldwell's oldest son was Cyrus Caldwell who married Mary Henderson, his cousin, who left a family. They lived in Lincoln Co., Ky. Their daughter Phebe married Mr. Duncan. Nancy married Green Jones, a brother of Daniel Jones. The other daughter married a Jones also and moved to Mo.

John Caldwell married Mary _____. Phebe married Archie Adams. Dicey married Curry, then McAfee both of Mercer Co., Ky.

David and Frank married and settled in Southwestern Ky.

Betsy Caldwell married her cousin Samuel Walker Caldwell. These items were given by their third son, James Barnes Caldwell. Their other children--Jan married Mr. James Graham, Teacher. Catherine married John Williamson, Presbyterian preacher. Samuel, their oldest son, died single at Columbus, Mississippi, buried there. Jackson is still living Oct. 18, 1890.

James Barnes married Jane Crawford of Marion Co., Ky. Oct. 16, 1846. They have seven living children, Bettie, John, Susie, Katie, Sam, Hodgie, and Maggie. The oldest daughter Sallie died at the age of twelve; Malissa Susan married Northcraft. Margaret married Lawrence. Isaac died and was buried at Bedford, Indiana.

Dicey Mann who married John Caldwell and Phebe Mann who married David Caldwell had a sister given name not remembered who married John Henderson. She raised eleven daughters to be grown and two sons. They lived on Salt River about seven miles from Danville and two miles from Caldwell's meeting house. One of the eleven daughters Phebe Henderson Caldwell [?] married William Logan Caldwell. Said Dicey, Phebe, and Mrs. Henderson had a brother and may be more. . . .

JOHN CALDWELL. . . .ALEXANDER CALDWELL. . . .OLIVER CALDWELL and all brothers took part in the wars by the Brothers Barbarossa, and after his defeat, they settled at Mt. Airia, Toulon, France, where they had been born, by about 1518. Due to a misunderstanding with the King of France, Francis I, they fled to England, Scotland and Ireland.

OLIVER CROMWELL of England was part Caldwell, his grandmother having been Ann of Cauldwell. When Cromwell was Lord Deputy of Ireland, he brought to Ireland these Caldwells:

JOSEPH CALDWELL	ALEXANDER CALDWELL	DAVID CALDWELL
JOHN CALDWELL	DANIEL CALDWELL	ANDREW CALDWELL

All of these Caldwells were cousins of Oliver Cromwell. These six Caldwells are the ancestors of a large body of Caldwells in America; they held a common ancestry back in Scotland, England, and France.

Ireland, Londonderry Cathedral Records

JOHN CALDWELL, son of WILLIAM CALDWELL, was born in Scotland and died in Londonderry in 1639 and left a will, which was probated in 1640. He was married in 1627 to MARY SWEETINHEM.

Children (from the Cathedral and Parish Records):

1. William Caldwell, bapt. 10 May 1628 m. 27 May 1652 to Elizabeth Huston.
2. John Caldwell, bapt. 16 Sept. 1630 m. 1st, 11 June 1651 to Margaret Porter (no issue) and m. 2nd, 5 June 1654 to Mary Holmes.
3. Mary Caldwell, bapt. 20 Sept. 1632 m. 9 Jan. 1654 to William Eifefield.
4. James Caldwell, bapt. 30 Nov. 1634 m. Catherine Hume, daughter of Sir John Hume, son of Sir James Hume. James Caldwell was made a Baronet and built Castle Caldwell. His grandson James Caldwell (b. 1724) m. Elizabeth Alexander and came to America. He died in 1800 at Wheeling, Va. (now West Virginia).
5. Margaret Caldwell, bapt. 24 May 1636 m. 8 April 1660 to Hugh Delop.
6. Joseph Caldwell, bapt. 6 April 1637.
7. Alexander Caldwell, bapt. 4 Sept. 1639 m. in 1660 his cousin Ann Caldwell, daughter of Andrew Caldwell.

County Tyrone

ALEXANDER CALDWELL, son of John Caldwell and Mary Sweetinheim, b. 1639 and died in Dublin. He married his cousin Ann Caldwell. These children are known from the Parish Registers:

Jane Caldwell, bapt. 26 June 1661	Note: Parish Records may give list of marriages. The France MSS gives some of their weddings.
William Caldwell, bapt. 3 Feb. 1663
Agnes Caldwell, bapt. 18 June 1665
David Caldwell, bapt. 10 July 1667
John Caldwell, bapt. 11 Jan. 1669
Hugh Caldwell, bapt. 2 Sept. 1671
Ann Caldwell, bapt. 14 June 1673

✓ The record of the Caldwell line in Ireland is taken from material compiled by Leonardo Andrea, 4202 Devine Street, Columbia 55, South Carolina, in 1951. Mr. Andrea is descended from Jean or Jane Caldwell, sister of John Caldwell, leader of the Cub Creek Colony⁷ labor in the missionary fields in North Carolina. He married Rachel Craighead, third daughter of Rev. Alexander Craighead of Mecklinburg, 1766. They had eight sons and one daughter who lived to maturity (three or four died in infancy). He was pastor of the churches at Buffalo and Alamance before the Revolution and labored there 60 years. He established a Classical school which served the Carolinas many years before and after the Revolution. He took an active and leading part in the Revolution and was imprisoned while the British Army was encamped on his plantation under Cornwallis. His brother Alexander served under Greene in the Revolution. David Caldwell was a member of the Convention that adopted the Federal Constitution and also of the Convention that framed the Constitution of North Carolina. He preached until 1820 and died August 25, 1824.

Gaines, Elizabeth Venable, Cub Creek Church and Congregation
1733-1833 (Richmond, 1931)

Notes from Preface: Lunenburg County separated from Brunswick Co. in 1746; Charlotte County from Lunenburg, 1746. Cub Creek Church existed from 1738 to 1835.

John Caldwell met Richard Kennon, a land speculator, while prospecting for a place to settle and purchased land from him. Kennon had patented 30,700 acres of land in Cub Creek area. Members of the colony also took out patents of land for themselves. Deeds from Kennon filed in Brunswick Co.; no deeds were granted before 1740. p.10

Among deeds from Richard and William Kennon, dated Jan. 1, 1745 and recorded in 1746, are found (in Deed Book 4, Clerk's Office of Brunswick County: To William Caldwell, son of John Caldwell, 621 acres; John Caldwell, 1400 acres; William Caldwell, 650; David Logan, 1632; Thomas Daughtery, 360; David Caldwell, 584; Richard Dudgeon, 1226.

Among deeds recorded in Lunenburg County from Richard and William Kennon are: 1747, James Caldwell, 464 acres; 1747, William Caldwell, 310; 1749, William Dudgeon, 627; 1757, Margaret Caldwell, 304.

1749--by deed recorded in the General Court in Williamsburg, Richard and William Kennon conveyed to James Stark of Petersburg, and he later to David Caldwell, in 1755, of the Cub Creek tract, 9000 acres. Lunenburg Deed Book 4, p. 180.

Three above extracts from pp. 93-94.

The Cub Creek settlement (Caldwell Settlement) probably numbered 200 people. The area it occupied, intersected by Wallace, Cub and Turnip Creeks, and bounded on the south by Staunton River, included five or six square miles. p. 10

Land upon which the church was built is referred to in the will of David Caldwell (son of John Caldwell) written in 1765 (Charlotte County Will Book I, p. 15): "and further I reserve of the land willed to Robert Caldwell, for the use of the Presbyterian Meeting House, ten acres agreeable to the lines formerly run." p.12

John Caldwell was a prominent servant and leader of the county as well as the colony. The Minute Book, County Court, Brunswick Co., Sept. Term, 1741, Order Book 2, ordered that a road be cleared.... p. 13

In 1746--when Lunenburg Co. was formed--John Caldwell and his son William were among the justices of the peace who constituted the first court. His son David Caldwell held the same position for the County of Charlotte in 1764. p. 14

The little group forming the Caldwell settlement was the first Presbyterian congregation in Virginia south of the James. p. 14

Visits of ministers were few and far between. "Between these great occasions Elder Caldwell determined that the strong desire for freedom of conscience which had driven these sturdy descendants of the Covenantors from Scotland to Ireland, and from Ireland, should suffer no weakening in the land of their adoption. He gathered the little flock together from day to day, and week to week, to worship God. In prayer and praise, in instruction and doctrine and righteousness, the Sabbath was spent end to end."p.15

Caleb Wallace was ordained pastor of Cub Creek Church Oct. 13, 1774, in the home of Robert Caldwell, one of his Ruling Elders. p. 26

Robert Caldwell and Edmund Brewer conveyed land to Caleb Wallace (Deed, Dec. 4, 1774, Charlotte Court House). p. 27

John Caldwell (Sr.), leader of Cub Creek, died at Cub Creek, 1750. William, Thomas and David are buried beside their father. William's widow moved to South Carolina. p. 32

In Feb., 1759, when the Charter for "Daltonsborg" (later Charlotte Court House) was granted William and David Caldwell were named Trustees of the Town. p. 33--citing Hutcheson, "Sketches of Charlotte Court House," p. 7.

Footnote 12 to "Petition of Sundry Inhabitants of Prince Edward Co. October 11, 1776":

About 1735 and for some years following there was a large emigration by way of Pennsylvania, of Scotch-Irish Presbyterians, to the neighborhoods [of Prince Edward Co. 7, where were soon established churches at Cub Creek in Charlotte Co.; Buffalo Creek and Walker's, in the present Prince Edward, and Hat Creek and Concord in the present Campbell. At the time of organization Cub Creek was in Lunenburg and Buffalo Creek in Amelia. These settlements were made chiefly through the influence of John Caldwell, who settled at Cub Creek, in what was known as "The Caldwell Settlement," but it is evident that this particular group of Scotch-Irish lived on both sides of a line between the present Prince Edward and Charlotte. As most of these families moved subsequently to the West and to the South, it is not often remembered that there was once such a considerable Scotch-Irish population so far east of the Blue Ridge. . . .

Rev. James Caldwell who was born at Cub Creek in April, 1734, graduated at Princeton and became prominent Presbyterian minister and Revolutionary Patriot in New Jersey. The murder of his wife by a party of British marauders and Tories in 1780 excited almost as much indignation as the murder of Miss McRea. Indeed all of these Scotch-Irish Presbyterians from Prince Edward and Charlotte, wherever they lived, were ardent supporters of American Independence.

In 1738 John Caldwell, in behalf of himself and a number of Presbyterian families, applied to the Synod of Philadelphia for a minister. The Synod communicated with Governor Gooch, who stated that no minister who complied with the Toleration Act would be interfered with.

As the Scotch Irishmen whose signatures are attached to the petition in the text were a part of the same community with those of Charlotte (formerly Lunenburg) a paper, which probably gives the names of the heads of families or men of the Cub Creek congregation will be of interest in this connection. It is a deed recorded in Lunenburg and dated April 2, 1751, from William Caldwell to John Caldwell, William Caldwell, Israel Pickens, Richard Dudgeon, David Logan, James Wachup, William Rogers, John McNeese, Thomas Dougherty, John Middleton, Alexander McDaniel, James Rutherford, James Caldwell, George Moore, George Harwood, David Caldwell, William Dudgeon, Francis Grymes, George McDavid, William Weakley, Thomas Rogers, James Logan, Robert Adams, James Bartie, William Nichlos, Isaac Vernon, Henry Pattilo, Henry Caldwell, John McDavid, John Caldwell, and Thomas Caldwell, conveying to them one acre of ground, including a graveyard, "that now stands on the lands of the said Caldwell," for a burial place with timber for paling the said ground, reserving to himself and heirs a burial place there. The pioneers of the valley lived well and comfortably after the year 1745. They used liquors freely, and Madeira wine was consumed in large quantities, and still the records do not indicate that drunkenness prevailed to any extent. They were quite litigious and the original suit records in the Clerk's office of Augusta Co., Virginia, show in many instances the place of residence before coming to Virginia (from Survey Books and Will Books, Augusta Co.)

The Allen and Anderson families of Augusta Co., Va., came either from Lancaster or Chester Co., Pa., and so did the Bell and the Curry families. The Craig family came from Kennet Square, Chester Co., Pa., and the Caldwell family came from Ballibagan, Londonderry Co., Ireland to Lancaster Co., Pa., and then to Augusta Co., Va. (This information gathered from old suit records Augusta Co., Va.).

"The Buffalo Settlement and Its Makers," Joseph D. Eggleston

Miss Elizabeth V. Gaines has given a valuable account of the Scotch-Irish settlement on Cub Creek in the western part of Lunenburg (now Charlotte Co.)² The leader of this settlement was John Caldwell, a native of Ulster Co., Ireland, who settled first in Pennsylvania and then, after spying out the land, brought a colony, brought a colony to Virginia in 1738. In Pennsylvania he was an elder in the Presbyterian church of which Rev. John Thomson was the pastor. On May 25, 1738, he requested the Synod of Philadelphia to appoint members of that body to wait on the Governor of Virginia, "to procure the favour of the Government of that Province to the laying a foundation. . . and to ask for the colony liberty of conscience and the privilege of worshipping God in a way agreeable to the privileges of our education"³. . . .

Foote says that "about this time a settlement was made on Cub Creek in Charlotte Co., and one on Buffalo Creek in Prince Edward, by the influence of Mr. Caldwell; the former was then in Lunenburg and the latter in Amelia."⁵ Harry Alexander White says that the Caldwells established the Caldwell Settlement in two divisions, in Charlotte and Prince Edward Counties, Va.⁶ (However, Eggleston says that evidence points to Rev. John Thomson as the actual founder of the Buffalo Settlement.)

. . . The names of pioneers who settled in the Shenandoah Valley chiefly south of the line between Augusta and Frederick Counties, whose deeds were recorded in Orange Co. between the years 1738 and 1744. This class of pioneers purchased large tracts from what has been called the Beverly Grant, which was issued 12th of August 1736 to William Beverly of Essex Co., Sir John Randolph of the City of Williamsburg, Knight Richard Randolph of Henrico Co., and John Robinson of King and Queens "for 18,491 acres being in Orange and beyond the mountains". . . .

The pioneers who had deeds, represent a large class of the English, Scotch, and Irish immigrants who were not willing to contend with the Fairfax and Hite prospective litigations, on their arrival in the Lower Valley, pressed further South beyond the Fairfax line and began to settle all over the Valley South of a line from Swift Run Gap beyond the mountains North of Harrisonburg. Among this class a few names will be recognized as Germans, Hollanders, etc. . . James Caldwell. . . George Caldwell

Orange Court Records: On 26 July 1740 "these proved their import-ation:" John Smith, his wife Margaret, his children Abraham, Henry, Daniel, John, and Joseph, and Robert McDowell. This was Capt. John Smith of Augusta, who became prominent during the Indian Wars, as did his sons Abraham, Daniel, and John. Waddell, Capt. John Smith was captured June 25, 1756 at Fort Vause on the headwaters of Roanoke River 10 miles from Christianburg. Capt. Smith was the ancestor of the late Judge Daniel Smith of Rockingham, Col. Benjamin Smith of Kanawha and Joseph Smith of Augusta. Capt. Smith came to Augusta Co. from Ireland (by way of Philadelphia) in 1739 or 1740, and "proved his importation" at Orange Co. Court House June 26, 1740. . . . On June 24, 1742, he qualified at Orange Co. Court House as Capt. of Augusta Militia. His children (born in Ireland): Abraham, Daniel, John--killed at Fort Vause 1756 (French and Indians), and Joseph--taken prisoner and died on way to New Orleans.

Capt. John Smith commanded a company in the disastrous Sandy Creek expedition in early 1756 and was taken prisoner at Fort Vause in 1756 and was taken to France by the French and kept prisoner for two years. He was refused service in the Revolution because of his age. His sons Abraham and Daniel were prominent in the Indian War. Abraham Smith's son John was and ensign at Point Pleasant in 1774; three of Daniel Smith's sons participated in the siege of Yorktown. Capt. Smith was Colonel of Rockingham Militia after the organization of that company and lost his life as a result of a horseback accident at a military celebration of the Victory of Yorktown.

War Department, The Adjutant General's Office, Washington, September 25, 1911 (1830205) Respectfully returned to Miss M. H. Estes, 909 Franklin Street, Corinth, Mississippi

It is shown by the records of this office that one John Caldwell served in the Revolutionary War as a private of Captain Charles Fleming's Company, 7th Virginia Regiment of Foot, commanded by Colonel Alexander McClenachan. He enlisted February 17, 1778, to serve one year.

It appears that about May, 1778, the 3d and 7th Virginia Regiments were consolidated and designated the 3d and 7th Virginia Regt. by which designation the organization was known until about September, 1778, and was commanded by Colonel William Heth. The records show that, subsequent to September, 1778, this soldier served as a sergeant in Colonel Russell's Company, 5th Virginia Regiment, and in Captain Henry Young's Company, 5th and 11th Regiment of Foot, both commanded by Colonel William Russell. His name is last borne on the muster roll for November 1779, dated at camp near Morristown, December 9, 1779, without remark.

The records show that one William Caldwell served as a private of Captain Joseph Michaux's company, 14th Virginia Regiment, Revolutionary War. He enlisted December 30, 1776, to serve three years. The records further show that in December, 1777, he was assigned to Captain Nathan Reid's Company of the same regiment. It appears that about May, 1779, the 1st and 10th Virginia Regiments were consolidated and designated the 1st and 10th Virginia Regiment. This soldier's name is last borne on the roll of the Company for November, 1779, but neither the date nor the manner of his separation from the service is shown.

On Oct. 26th, Samuel, son of William Logan, was baptized by Rev. John Craig (shown in the minister's record book which was brought to light by Maj. J. M. McCue). Waddell, Annals, p. 48.

David Logan's child Benjamin was baptized by Mr. Craig May 3, 1743. The child became the distinguished General Logan of Kentucky. Waddell, Annals, p. 49.

The military force of Augusta Co., in fall of 1742, consisted of 12 companies of 50 men each. David Logan belonged to Capt. Cathrey's Company. Waddell, Annals, pp.45-46; VHB, V.8, No. 3, p.280

David and Jane Logan came to Augusta Co., Va., and proved their importation. Children Mary, William, and Benjamin (born 1743)... Benjamin married Anne Montgomery, Washington Co., Holston Settlement; he went to Kentucky in 1775 and his family joined him there in 1776. His son William was born Dec. 8, 1776 and is said to have been the first white child born in Kentucky. Benjamin's daughter Jane married John Allen, who was born in Rockbridge Co., Va., and died in the battle at River Raisen, Jan. 22, 1813. James Allen, father of this John, emigrated to Kentucky in 1780 and settled near Danville (See Collins, History of Kentucky). Benjamin Logan was Sgt. in Col. Henry Bouquet's expedition in 1774; was with Dunsmore's expedition against the Indian Town of Chillicothe; was member of the Kentucky Conventions of 1792 and 1799; and gave his name to Logan County, Kentucky.

From Ireland--James Knox and wife Jean. James Knox died in 1772, and his son James, named in his will, married Benjamin Logan's widow. James, Jr., was a soldier in the Revolution. Waddell, Annals, pp. 318-320 (from long Logan account).

March 1775--Henderson set out over the Wilderness Trail with 40 riflemen and a number of Negro slaves. In Powell's valley he found Joseph Martin's trading post and there he was joined by a small group of immigrants under Benjamin Logan who were bound for Kentucky. Just beyond Rockcastle River Logan broke off and led his followers off toward Harrodsburg to form their own settlement, St. Asaph's Station (Logan's Fort). Benjamin Logan (1743, Augusta Co., Va., --Dec. 11, 1802) son of David and Jane Logan who came from Cumberland Co., Pa., 1740, to Virginia. The Logans had migrated from Ireland to Pa. early in the 18th Century and moved to the Holston Region with brother John in 1740. Benjamin Logan married in 1773 or 1774 Anna Montgomery. In 1775 Benjamin joined Richard Henderson's Transylvania Company and established St. (Fort) Asaph's in the vicinity of the present Stanford, Ky. In 1778, 1780, 1782, he led expeditions against the Indians; in 1781, appointed Lt. of Lincoln Co. (ranking militia officer of the district). He was member of the Virginia General Assembly from Lincoln Co., 1781-1782 and 1785-1787. Eight children--William Logan, one son, was U.S. Senator from Kentucky. Dictionary of American Biography.

Robert Logan of Danville community was on Lincoln Board for Betterment of Roads under twin acts of Ky. Legislature, Feb. 22, 1834 (Acts of Legislature, 1833-34, p. 481, et seq.) Fackler, Early Days in Danville, p. 252.

The Scottish surname Logie, like Logan and the Irish Laggan, is derived from a word signifying a low-lying flat or hollow country and is used as a prefix to such places in Scotland, as Logie-Buchan. Charles A. Hanna, The Scotch-Irish, 2 V. (G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1902), V. II, p. 412.

A James Logan was Secretary of the Province of Pennsylvania. He did not have a high opinion of the Ulsterites, as is shown in a long report he filed. Hanna, The Scotch-Irish, V. II, p. 62.

William Logan came and settled at Fermanagh (now Mexico) in Juniata Co., Penn. Hanna, The Scotch-Irish, V. II, p. 101.

James and David Logan, brothers, landed in Penn. After a short time they moved to Augusta Co., Va. They were young men, and both were soldiers in French and Indian Wars; their names appear on official lists. Green, Historic Families of Kentucky (1889), p. 118.

David married while very young, while in Pa. Probably went to Va., in 1740. Green, Historic Families of Kentucky, p. 119.

The Record of Rev. John Craig, the first Presbyterian minister in the Valley, shows that on May 3, 1743, he baptized Benjamin, child of David Logan, and that on March 25, 1745, he baptized David Logan's son, Hugh. In 1763 the mother of Benjamin Logan, and the widow of David Logan, lived on Kerr Creek. She was the mother of six children of whom the writer has knowledge, possibly others. The sons were Benjamin, John, Hugh and Nathaniel, the daughters were Mary and Sarah. Green, Historic Families of Kentucky, p. 120.

At St. Asaphs, Benjamin Logan made his permanent settlement, the third made in Kentucky--those of Boone at Boonesboro, and of Harrod at Harrodsburg, having a brief precedence. General Benjamin Logan married Anna Montgomery. Green, Historic Families of Kentucky, p. 125

The will of David Logan, probated April 14, 1763, mentioned his daughter, Mary Caldwell. Robert Caldwell, who later lived near Danville, Ky., was executor of the Logan Will. They were parents of Phillips Caldwell of Ky., named for Margaret Phillips, wife of John Caldwell. Register of Kentucky Historical Society (1956), V. 54, p. 357. Footnote reference to Logan Co., Will Book 2, page 157.

The David Logan entry listing children seems to be in error in Kentucky Pioneer and Court Records, compiled and published by Mrs. Harry Kennett McAdams, 1929.

Benjamin Logan was born in Augusta Co. about 1742 [1743] and died in Kentucky Dec. 11, 1802. He was with the expedition commanded by Col. Henry Bouquet and in 1775 joined Daniel Boone then on his way to Kentucky. Soon he began construction of the stockade known as Logan's Fort, one mile east of the present Stanford. . . . in the early autumn of 1786 Col. Benjamin Logan was ordered by Gen. Clark to raise a force to penetrate the Indian country. Accordingly Logan gathered between four hundred and five hundred men, crossed the Ohio at Limestone, and went as far as the head of Mad River in the present Logan Co., Ohio. Towns and fields were laid waste, and about seventy prisoners taken. VMHB, Vol. 25, p. 2

Godey's Lady's Book and Magazine, Sept. 1858, "Fireside and Facts of the Revolution," by E.F. Ellet, p. 253 (Congressional Library):

James Caldwell came with his mother to South Carolina about 1770, and bore an active part in the Revolutionary War. He commanded a company in the battle of Cowpens, received many wounds and was left for dead. After the action, he was sought for among the slain by his brother William, and found alive.

Major Robert Gillam. In Cunningham's bloody foray, October, 1781, his house and provisions were destroyed. He and most of his family sought safety by removal to Broad River.

His son, Robert, born in 1760 was one of the expedition against the Cherokees in 1776, under his father's command, and took part in the battles of Stone, Musgrove's Mill and Black Licks in 1780, and the Cowpens, January 17th, 1781. After Greene raised the siege of Ninety-Six, the family of the elder Gillam, resided on Broad River to escape attacks by the Loyalists. Miss Susan Finley, a widowed daughter of Major Gillam, occupied the old place. Her brother Robert had just finished hauling in a crop of corn, and had left the homestead to follow his relatives to Broad River, when Cunningham's party, on their bloody march, reached the place. They immediately set fire to the dwelling-house, corn-crib, and out houses. Mrs. Finley was acquainted with many of the party, and entreated one of them to save a bed for her. He did so and put it in the smoke-house, the only building left standing on the premises. Robert Gillam, meanwhile ignorant of what had taken place, was moving leisurely on his journey. On reaching Mudlick, he was hailed by Ben. Collier, who though a Tory, loved his neighbor, and informed him of the movements of the Bloody Scouts under Cunningham, also of the murder of John Caldwell. Pointing to the smoke from the ruins of his house, visible in the distance, he bade him fly for his life. Gillam obeyed the friendly warning, and before the morning sun rose upon him was in safety.

After the war he married Elizabeth Caldwell, the aunt of John C. Calhoun.

[The list of names of the children of Robert Caldwell and Hannah Willis which was supplied by Miss Laura Wilford Brown, 664 W. Wilson Ave., Glendale 3, California, who is a great grand-daughter of Willis Caldwell and Dicey Mann Caldwell, supplied the birthdates for all on the above list, except Warren's. Her list did not include Eliza m. O.H. Browning, which is on all lists found in my family notes, but her list included these two, which appear nowhere in my lists and indicate that there may have been fifteen children:

Dicey Mann Caldwell b. Dec. 31, 1796 (whom I think might possibly be the daughter-in-law, daughter of John Caldwell, who married Willis Caldwell)

John Caldwell b. Feb. 24, 1798

The Warren dates are proved.]

Miss Ninnie J. Barksdale, a great grand-daughter of Willis and Dicey Mann Caldwell, lives at present [1959] in Obion Co., Tenn. She has in her possession a book that is the record of the church that Willis Caldwell attended and shows that he was Church Clerk, 1832-1845. All family names are entered in the book, but relationships are not shown. The Tennessee Historical Society has micro-film copy of this book.

Obituary from page 1, The Daily Corinthian, Corinth, Miss., Wednesday, October 11, 1939:

BELOVED JOAMAN

DIES TUESDAY,

FUNERAL TODAY

Mrs. Henri Caldwell McEachin, 77, died at the home of a son here Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock after a lingering illness.

Funeral service was held at the chapel of the McPeters Funeral home today at 11 o'clock, rites being conducted by Dr. T.W. Young, pastor of the First Baptist Church of which she was a consistent member.

Following the service here the body was carried overland to Columbus, Miss., where she was buried beside her husband, Edmund K. McEachin, who preceded her in death in 1898.

Life Insurance, Health and Accidents and all kinds of insurance

Mrs. McEachin, beloved by many Corinthians for her kind disposition and cheerful outlook on life, had been in declining health for some time but her condition was not regarded as serious until a few days ago. Members of the family were summoned and were at her bedside when the end came peacefully.

A native of Holly Springs, where she was born February 28, 1862, Mrs. McEachin lived in Columbus a number of years before moving to Corinth to make her home. Her son, Ed. K. McEachin, was circuit clerk of Alcorn County a number of years, the family being prominently identified with civic and other movements in the city and county.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Ernest A. Epps of Ruston, La.; a son, Ed. K. McEachin of Corinth; two grandchildren, Ernest A. Epps, Jr., and Loraine Epps; three nieces, Mrs. R.T. Estes of Corinth, Mrs. W.D. Browning of Memphis, and Miss Annie Bills of Bolivar, Tenn.; a great niece, Mrs. Garner Byars; a great nephew, John B. Pounds of Birmingham; a great, great niece Margaret Ann Byars, and a great, great nephew, Bryan Byars.

Obituary from page 1, The Daily Corinthian, Corinth, Miss., Thursday, October 10, 1918:

Death Shadow Enters Home of Two Very Prominent Families

Mrs. J.D. Bills

Mrs. Maggie Caldwell Bills, widow of the late Col. J.D. Bills, passed away at the family residence on Franklin Street this morning at 8 o'clock, after an illness of the past several days with la grippe.

Col. and Mrs. Bills are remembered by the older residents of the county as a couple who contributed their full part to its development, and its every interest, living a life which left its impression upon the community.

Col. Bills passed away several years ago.

Mrs. Bills had been feeble for the past few years, and had been enjoying only very good health until the time she was taken ill, a better spirited, more jovial, or kindlier disposed character could not have been found, and even after she became confined to her bed she displayed that same sweet, attractive disposition that won for her legions of life-time friends.

Mrs. Bills was born at Holly Springs, Marshal County. At the time of her death she was 79 years old. She was a member of the First Baptist Church, faithful to Christ in all things, striving at all times to exemplify His teachings and His instructions to "Worship God" and love your neighbor as yourself. Her tears were those of heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved, stricken or distressed, and her bounty knew no bounds.

She and Col. Bills were married before the war, in which her husband served the dear old Southland with credit, and from the organization of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. Bills has been one of the staunchest, most active and prominent members of which the Chapter could boast.

She has been actively interested in the Corinth Chapter, in which she has served in a most efficient capacity as acting secretary, and by virtue of her office, she was named to this honor for life, attending the duties imposed on her as secretary in the most satisfactory manner.

Mrs. Bills has been a resident of Corinth for about 40 years, and this city bows in grief today in the death of this beloved character, who was well known and universally loved throughout this entire community.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. R.T. Estes and Miss Annie Bills of this city, and Mrs. W.D. Browning of Memphis, one grandson, John Bills Pounds, who is now in France, one grand daughter, Margaret Estes, and two sisters, Mrs. R. J. Wade and Mrs. H.C. McEachin, to whom the tender sympathy of their many friends is extended in their sorrow.

Funeral services and interment will be held by her pastor, Rev. C.W. Knight, of the First Baptist Church, Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Henry Cemetery.

The following is the list of the pallbearers: Honorary--Members of the Albert Sydney Johnston Camp, Maj. G. W. Bynum, W.T. Armistead, M. Byrnes, J.A. Price, J.A. McAnulty, Reed Kincaid, Dr. W. L. Worsham, C.W. McCord, W.G. Kimmons, W.H. Mitchell, T.K. Young, Jack Busby, M.A. Powell, G.W. Tatum, C.C. Dalton, T.J. Sharp.

Active--A.K. Weaver, W.D. Striplin, G.C. Taylor, J.R. Skillman, H.E. Ray, T.W. Clausell, M.R. Striplin, E.T. McCullar.

Copy of fragment of letter written by Col. Bills to his wife in 1863:

Camp 32nd Regt. Miss. Vols.
Tullahoma, Tenn., Feb. 12th, 63

My Dear Darling Wife,

I received your long and interesting letter of the 13th--20th ult last night. I was so happy to hear from you I had not heard since the 24th of Nov. '62 I have felt perfectly confident all the time that God would take care of you I rejoice that the Yanks have gone away I have written I can't tell how letters since I left home I wrote one from Stonewall containing eighteen pages As I came on here I met Lt. Nat Lee in Montgomery who was making his way to H.S. I wrote you by him which I felt sure you would get I hope by this time you have received some of my letters I left Stonewall on the 30th of Dec. and arrived here on the 9th of Jan. I commenced fatening as soon as I came to camps. I was weighed a few days ago and weighed more than I ever did in my life. Our Regiment is encamped at this place about a mile south west of the Depot---We have good chimneys to our tents which makes them warm and comfortable We get plenty of Pork Beef Meal & Flour sometimes sugar and Molasses-rice-soap &. We have no right to complain though a great many do.

We can get just what clothing we want from the Government cheap--not a week but what this matter has been seen to in our Regiment. I have three good blankets--one worth $40.00 the way blankets are selling I have plenty of good warm cloths with the exception of socks I will buy some in a few days They are from $2.00 to $3.00 a pr. Your description of Yankees and their deeds in H.S. is the best I have seen I would travel around the globe a hundred times to kill the man that ordered your arrest There is one thing sure some of them will regret going there I was glad to hear Tommie was discharged and at home I hope he will be well soon I have been uneasy about him and Luther Our Company numbers between 80 & 90 about 58 are present Lt. Kennedy is Capt. He makes a better Capt. than I expected Mr. Davie is still living at Macon and I suppose taking good care of our things Darling I do not shave at all I have huge whiskers and moustach We have had many snows While the weather is bad we lay up in our warm tents take in most all the guards--cook & eat--write letters home--read sometimes the boys snowball and pass off the time as lightly as possible Don't be uneasy about me Darling I will write in a few days again I have read your long letter

Copy of the letter telling of the death of Luther Caldwell, son of Warren Caldwell and Jane Anderson McNutt of Holly Springs, Miss. The original letter was sent to Dr. W.B. McDaniel, II, Curator, Library of The College of Physicians, Philadelphia, Pa., for the library on February 13, 1954.

Mrs. Bills

Your Bro Luther was brought to one of my Hospts on the night of the 24 Dec'r (by Dr. Alex Hamilton of Trenton) with his right Thigh badly shattered He was wheeling when Struck.-
The ball struck near the middle of the Thigh on it's outer Side-- ranged downwards & inwards Through the knee joint. comminuting about 4 or 5 inches of the lower part of the bone / [in pencil] & opening the joint--During all of that night & the next day he was suffering Such depression from "Shock" that it was not prudent to operate. Until the morning of the 26th, when I, assisted by Surgeon Abernathy, amputated / at the middle third-- He lost but little blood in the operation. (a good deal on the field) but, notwithstanding the free use of stimulants, essence of Beef, and every means that could be brought to bear, he sunk gradually, but steadily until the night of the 28th when he Sunk to rest calmly and peacefully. After the first night he Suffered very little, for so Severe a wound-- I was fortunate enough to procure a nice cotton mattress & a pillow for him & made him as comfortable as it was possible to do.

I assure you that every attention was bestowed, both by the Surg'ns and nurses: that nothing was left undone that would benefit, or comfort him during the few days he lived.

No duty of my life has been more unpleasant than this. to communicate to you this Sad intelligence. He was truly a noble jewel to the army and Society, as well as to you, and the balance of his bereft relatives. And deeply and truly do I with you, mourn his untimely fall.

Very truly
Your Friend
J.P. McGee

[Dr. McDaniel says that Dr. J.P. McGee graduated from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, 1861, and probably was not much older than Luther Caldwell at the time the letter was written]

The south part of Lot 385 on the plan of the City of Holly Springs sold to Josephine Roberts by Jane A. Caldwell; Jno. D. Bills and Maggie P. Bills, his wife; Mary Caldwell, Henrietta Caldwell, Sam C. Caldwell and Warren Caldwell. The document was signed 12th day of July 1875 by Jane A. Caldwell, Mary Caldwell, Henri Caldwell, W. J. Caldwell, Sam C. Caldwell, Annie B. Caldwell, Maggie E. Bills, Jno. D. Bills.

[The spelling of my grandmother's name as Henrietta in the body of the document (Henri is correct) recalls a family anecdote. A Negro servant of Col. John D. Bills's household was asked by one of his daughters to place a telephone order with the local drugstore. The servant called and instructed that the order be delivered to Col. Williams's home. "Col. Williams?" said the clerk, "Why, _____, I thought you worked for Col. Bills..." "Nosir, I don't call that nice man Col. Bills; I calls him Col. Williams, I does," she replied.]

Obituary from The Daily Corinthian, page 1, Saturday, August 21, 1920:

After a period of illness extending over a period of ten days or more, Mrs. R.J. Wade, 79, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. H.C. McEachin on Taylor Street, Friday night.

She was a loyal member of the Methodist church, and up until her failing health denied her that pleasure and satisfaction, she was active in church work, being known for her good deeds and devotion to her religion and her church.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. McEachin, and a number of other relatives among them being Mrs. R.T. Estes, Miss Annie Bills, Ed McEachin, and Mrs. Mattie Wade of this city; Mrs. Ernest Epps of Louisiana; Mrs. W.D. Browning of Memphis.

Funeral will take place in the home of Mrs. McEachin this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by her pastor, Rev. O.W. Bradley, of the First Methodist Church. Burial will follow at the City Cemetery.

Obituary from The Daily Corinthian (undated clipping):

PROMINENT WOMAN
SUCCUMBS TO BURNS
SUSTAINED ON 9TH INST.

All Corinth mourns today the death of Mrs. Mary Bills Pounds, wife of C.J. Pounds, which occurred at her late residence on Franklin street shortly after 12 o'clock after an illness of the past ten days.

On Sunday, January 9th, Mrs. Pounds sustained severe burns, while standing in front of an open grate when her clothing was ignited. While it was known at the time that her burns were very serious, her relatives and friends encouraged a hope of her recovery, and though every possible attention was administered, her condition has been regarded as very critical since the accident took place, and every sign gave evidence that her beautiful life could not be spared.

Mrs. Pounds was a daughter of the late Col. J.D. Bills. She was born in Baldwyn about 40 years ago, and moved with her father and family to this city some 36 years ago, and had been making this her home since that time.

Mrs. Pounds was a devout Christian woman, having united with the First Baptist Church many years ago, and has lived consistent to the faith since that time. She was an earnest and indulgent worker in the church, and possessed those admirable characteristics that endeared her to many, and among Corinthians and people throughout this section, Mrs. Pounds was well-known and enjoyed legions of friends, and her demise has caused genuine regret throughout this vicinity.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Maggie Bills, her husband and one son John B. Pounds, of this city, and three sisters, Mrs. R.T. Estes and Miss Annie Bills of Corinth, and Mrs. W.D. Browning, of Memphis, all of whom were at her bedside when the end came.

No arrangements for interment have as yet been perfected, but it is probable that funeral services will be held on Friday, and the body laid to rest in Henry cemetery.

Obituary of Samuel C. Caldwell, son of Warren and Jane Anderson McNutt Caldwell, from unidentified and undated clipping [1899]:

[?--could be Sam, mentioned page 22.]

DEAD!

We stop the press to announce the sad news that Mr. Sam C. Caldwell, our printer, after a ten days' severe illness, died at 3 o'clock on Thursday evening, August 31st, 1899. Sam Caldwell is no more. He has crossed over the dark and turbulent river of life to rest under the shade of the trees. Sam Caldwell had his faults. Who has not? He carried in his bosom as kind and sympathetic heart as ever pulsed in the body of mortal man. Like Christ, he loved little children, and all the little ones loved him. He was one of the most humane, tender-hearted men we ever knew. Even the little sparrow, when sick or wounded, would receive his help.

Good bye Sam, may the sod lie lightly on your coffin, sweet flowers bloom on your grave, and your soul rest in peace.

To his sorrowing sisters we tender our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy.

From newspaper article "Heart of Henry County" Celebrates Birthday, Sunday, October 22, 1933 (Book Section, newspaper not identified)

Women play an important part in the life of every community and having the distinction of being the oldest citizen of this city [Paris, Tenn.] and the oldest church member in the state of Tennessee is a gracious southern woman of this city, Mrs. S. H. Caldwell.

Mrs. Caldwell is approaching her 95th birthday and having witnessed the different eras of our city she still remains interested in local affairs. She is a staunch Presbyterian, having been a member of this faith for 69 years. She enjoys the talkies and recently saw the "Follies of 1933."

The daughter of W.H. Thompson and Mary E. Harris, Mrs. Caldwell was married to the late Dr. Sam H. Caldwell of this county in 1860. Mrs. Caldwell is living with her daughter, Mrs. Dule Davis, and granddaughter, Miss Rowena Davis, in the same house she has lived since 1865.

Letter dated Jan. 1, 1912, from W.C. Caldwell, attorney-at-law Trenton, Tenn., to Mrs. Margaret Caldwell Bills states: "This Robert had a son named Willis and he was my grandfather. The latter married his cousin, Dicie Mann Caldwell, the daughter of his [grand] father's brother. . . . Dr. Sim [?] Caldwell whom you mention, was my family physician at the time of his death. He was a fine man. He left but one child, Louise, and she died some years ago while still a young lady."

The control group received a standard dose of 10 mg/kg of morphine, while the experimental group received a higher dose of 20 mg/kg. The subjects were then subjected to a series of tests, including a pre-test, a post-test, and a follow-up test. The results of the tests were analyzed using a two-way ANOVA.

The figure illustrates the synthesis of poly(2-vinylpyridine) (P2VP) and its copolymer with 2-vinylbenzothiazole (P2VP-co-P2VBT). The reaction involves the free-radical polymerization of 2-vinylpyridine (V2P) and 2-vinylbenzothiazole (VBT) initiated by azobisisobutyronitrile (AIBN) in water at 60°C. The resulting copolymer, P2VP-co-P2VBT, is shown with its repeating units: $-\text{CH}_2-\text{CH}(\text{V2P})-$ and $-\text{CH}_2-\text{CH}(\text{VBT})-$.

Caldwell--

A review of A Tour Through Part of Virginia in the Summer of 1808...also...
Some Account of the Islands of the Azores. By John Edward Caldwell. Edited by William M.E. Rachel (Richmond, Va., the Dietz Press, Inc., 1951, Pp. xxi, 61 $2.00). The review appears in the North Carolina Historical Review Vol. 30 (1953)
 p. 587.

John Edward Caldwell was son of James Caldwell who was son of John Caldwell of Cub Creek, Va. These notes are taken from the review cited above:

John Edward Caldwell born Elizabethtown, New Jersey in February 1769 and following the death of his parents was placed with Dr. Alexander McWorter, a Presbyterian minister and friend of his father. He became a merchant in Philadelphia and in 1801 was appointed consular agent of the U.S. in Santo Domingo and parts of the West Indies. He settled in New York in 1803. His health failed and he decided to travel and wrote these accounts which were circulated among his friends. Upon his return from Europe, he became an active member of the Presbyterian church and established and edited the Christian Herald. He died March 8, 1819. pp. 587-588.

Confederate Military History, ed. by Clement A. Evans (Confederate Pub. C.
 Atlanta, Ga., 1899), Vol. Texas by Col. O.M. Roberts

Major John Francis Caldwell b. Washington, D.C., 1827 and was reared and educated there. In early manhood removed to New Orleans and engaged in cotton commission work. Capt. in Gen. E.L. Tracy's State Troops, in 1861 made Major. Mustered into CSA in 1862 under Gen. Lovell and took part in the organization of the Crescent regiment as private--took part in battle of Shiloh and Farmington in the siege of Corinth. After retreat to Tupelo assigned as adj. of 21st La. Inf. Wounded and sent to Montgomery, Ala., and appointed teller in the Confederate depository at Montgomery when his regt. and the 21st was disbanded. Surrendered to Gen.
 Eggleston May 25, 1865. After war resided in New Orleans until 1873 when he moved to Dallas. Auditor of the city of Dallas 1890-1894. pp. 333-334.

Walter H. Caldwell of Austin, veteran of Terry's Texas Rangers was the son of John Caldwell, a native of Lexington, Ky., and Lucinda W. Haynie of Knoxville, Tenn. John Caldwell came to Texas from Tusculum, Ala., in 1831, abandoning the profession of law to engage in farming--30,000 acres in Travis and Bastrop Counties. He served several times in the State Senate and was one of the wealthiest men in Texas when he died. Three other of his sons were in the Confederate service--John A. pvt. in trans-Mississippi department d. 1870;
 Charles G., veteran of Terry's Texas Rangers; and Oliver B., who served as a boy in the regt. of Col. John S. Ford on the Rio Grand.

Walter H. Caldwell was born in Bastrop County Jan. 1, 1842. Attended Bastrop Military Academy four years. Vol. as a pvt. in Col. Terry's Rangers, 8th Regt.
 Texas Cavalry. Afterwards served under Gen. Forrest and Wheeler--Murfreesboro, Shiloh, Perryville, Chickamauga--Wheeler's Georgia campaign and last raid through Tenn. Wounded Sept. 7, 1864 in North Ala. Paroled at Meridian, Miss., in May, 1865. Made home in Austin in 1873. Married in 1881 to M. Lou Jones of Travis County and had two sons and a daughter. pp. 334-335.

Letter from Miss Catherine Lukhard, 4920 Bethlehem Road, Richmond, Va., Jan. 1963.

As for Caldwell, here, briefly, is our line:

Alexander Richey married Jean Caldwell, sister fo John Caldwell; then James Richey, sr., married Margaret Caldwell (she was born 1729 in Pa.)--we believe this Margaret Caldwell to be the daughter of Rebecca Parks and William Caldwell (son to John, the Cub Creek leader)--she was a cousin to James ((I honestly think the John in the chart is an error and will send you a typed report why)); next, Robert Richey, son of James, sr., and Margaret Caldwell, married Mary Stewart Weir (she was the daughter of William Stewart and Jennet Caldwell--and I cannot identify this Caldwell; then James Richey--and there is a mystery here, possibly a James Richey married a McClinton or a Brownlee or possibly there was a generation skipped--anyway, Mr. Leonardo Andrea is supposed to help me here) ; then, James Walter Richey married Caroline Atkins; my grandfather Edward Harvey they married Maggie Lou Maggie and, finally, my mother, Kathleen Richey, married Charles Nonman Lukhard, Sr.

Letter from George Debery (Dee) Caldwell, Gibson, Missouri, Jan. 27, 1963:

George Edward Caldwell m. Margaret Ann Caldwell

Their son--Robert P. Caldwell b. July 14, 1853 d. Feb. 6, 1899 m. on 9 Feb. 1881, Barbara Lightfoot b. April 3, 1861, and had Syble Rebecca, George Debery, Jemmie Sotter, Rose May.

Their son--George Debery b. Sept. 24, 1885 m. on Mar. 7, 1906, Cora E. Stearns b. Jan. 25, 1890. Their children:

Ora Lee b. Aug. 9, 1907 m. on June 30, 1928, Dessie Meeks

Lemmie Marie b. Nov. 15, 1911 m. on Nov. 6, 1929, King Jackson

Harold Wilson b. Oct. 21, 1918 m. on Oct. 20, 1962, Faye Brandon

Clinton D. b. Nov. 6, 1921 m. on June 7, 1947, Goldie Kluchar

Ruby Odella b. Feb. 5, 1927 m. Rex Christian

Kenneth Ray b. Aug. 5, 1929 m. on Jan. 17, 1948, Willa Jean Sadd

George Edward Caldwell who married Margaret Ann White, was son of Willis Caldwell, who was son of Robert Caldwell and Hannah Willis. Robert Caldwell was the son of Robert Caldwell and Mary Logan, and Robert was the son of John Caldwell of Cub Creek and his wife Margaret Philips.

Willis Caldwell, above, married his cousin Dicey Mann Caldwell. She was daughter of John Caldwell and Jane (Neely) Walker. John Caldwell was son of David Caldwell and Mary Dudgeon. David Caldwell was son of John Caldwell and Margaret Phillips. Both David and his brother Robert served in the Am. Rev.

Letter from Miss Agnes Nothstine, 2819 Columbus, Muskogee, Oklahoma, Jan. 1963.

Grandmother Lucinda Caldwell was born Bissel Point, Mo. (Mississippi River Landing) in November 1800.

Note: Daniel, Samuel, Matthew, and Kincaid Caldwell settled in Franklin Co., Mo. before 1803.

Branches of the family in Missouri were: John Caldwell b. June 1833, son of M.C. and Lucretia; Samuel K. Caldwell, Matthew Caldwell, Kincaid Caldwell, who was the first American settler in Franklin Co., Missouri, in 1800.

This is the genative form of an old personal name Eppe. We find mention of one Roger Eppe in the Hundred Rolls.

The coat of arms here shown corresponds with that of the Eppes family of Canterbury. The first of the family in America was Lieutenant-Colonel Francis Eppes, who came to Virginia in 1635 bringing with him three sons John, Francis, and Thomas.

The Eppes family of Prince George and Nottoway counties in Virginia trace their lineage to Thomas Eppes through Colonel Peter.

Francis Eppes, another son of the immigrant Francis settled in Chesterfield county, Virginia, and is the ancestor of many Eppes now living in Virginia and other states.--newspaper clipping by Ruby Haskins Ellis.

(Francis Eppes or Epes was living in Virginia in 1625, was later a member of Council and was ancestor of a large and prominent family. His descendants in the Colonial period bore the arms ascribed to Eps or Epes of Canterbury. Capt. Wm Epes, who settled on the eastern shore of Virginia was a prominent man 1619-1626. His brother Peter Eppes was also in Virginia. So far as is known there is no published pedigree of the Kentish line, but was certainly one of those large Kentish families, part landed gentry and part yeoman so frequently represented in the Colonies. --VMHB, Vol. 27, 1919, Nos. 3 & 4, pp. 300-301.

A Capt. Wm. Epes and his wife and son Peter lived on the eastern shore in 1624.--VMHB, Vol. 3, 1896, No. 4, p. 397.

The Epps family is a fine old Colonial family of Virginia. Lt. Col. Francis Epps was granted land 1663, for transporting himself, three sons, and some thirty servants into the Virginia Colony, and settled on the James River, and represented the counties of Henrico and Charles City in the House of Burgesses several times. Four of his lineal descendants, each bearing the name of Francis Epps became members of the House of Burgesses, three of them distinguished Colonialists. Lt. Col. Francis Eppes, 2nd, of Henrico County, Va., was born 1828, died 1878, married Elizabeth, the widow of William Worsham. Issue, among others, were Francis, 3rd, Mary (who married Lt. Col. John Hardiman) and Littlebury. Lt. Col. Littlebury Eppes married a Miss Llewellyn, and their son, Llewellyn Epps was justice high sheriff of Charles City County, 1721, and married Angelica _____ Their son Peter Epps married Elizabeth, the daughter of Col. Andrew Joyner, of Weldon, N.C.

MARIE IRLNE McEACHIN
(Mrs. Ernest Allen Epps, Sr.)

Marie Irene McEachin, daughter of Henri Caldwell and Edmund K. McEachin, was born in Colorado City, Texas, on August 24, 1893. Her father and his brother were editors of the Colorado Clipper, newspaper of the town. At an early age she moved with her family to Columbus, Miss., where the family resided until after the death of Mr. McEachin, as a result of an accident, on July 25, 1898. The widow and her two children, Marie and Ed K., moved to Corinth, Miss.

Marie graduated from the Corinth, Miss., high school, in May, 1911, and attended Virginia Intermont College, Bristol, Va., from 1911 to 1913, when she received her bachelor's degree with a major in English and art and a minor in Latin. She had private lessons in art from 1908 until 1915 in Corinth and Memphis, studying under Frances Edson, Pratt Institute; Florence McClelland; Ethelynda Lewis Hopkins, Chicago Art Institute; Harriett D. Wilma, Cocoran Art Institute, Washington, D.C.; and Hester Elizabeth Swift. As a child she won many prizes with her art work and she was a popular reader for programs and entertainments in the community. Following her graduation from college, she was supervisor of public school art in the Corinth public schools (1914-1917).

The following write-up of her marriage to Ernest A. Epps appeared in the Daily Corinthian, Corinth, Miss., page 1, January 8, 1916:

M' EACHIN-EPPS NUPTI-ALS SOLEMNIZED TODAY

Mrs. Henri Caldwell McEachin announces the marriage of her daughter, Marie, to Mr. Ernest Allen Epps, Saturday, January 8, Memphis, Tenn. At home, Corinth, Miss.

The above announcement is read with much interest by hosts of admiring friends of the bridal couple, who are well known in this city.

The marriage took place this morning at 11 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Browning, cousins of the bride, and Dr. Ben Cox, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, Memphis, performed the beautifully impressive ceremony.

The bride was wearing a handsome tailored costume in Midnight Blue, with accessories in harmony.

She is the only daughter of Mrs. McEachin, and has spent many years in Corinth where she is universally loved and admired for her refinement, talent and attractive characteristics.

Her husband is a son of the Late J. P. Epps, and his mother, Mrs. Florence Epps, who is now residing in Columbus. He also has spent several years in Corinth and is very popular among a large number of friends. He is now traveling for Green Bros. & Northcross, making Corinth his headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. Epps will return to Corinth Sunday night and will be at home to their many friends in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Voyles on Webster street.

[Note: Dr. Voyles brought both of the children of this couple into the world.]

Following their marriage they moved to Shreveport, La., and returned to Corinth, Miss., where their son, Ernest Allen Epps, Jr., was born on March 18, 1917. They lived again in Louisiana at Shreveport, while Ernest Jr. was an infant, and were again in Corinth, Miss., when their daughter Marie Loraine Epps was born, Oct. 2, 1918. Shortly afterward the family moved to Ruston, Louisiana.

Marie Irene McEachin Epps was active in social and civic affairs of Ruston, La.; she taught a class in the First Presbyterian church Sunday School from 1920 until 1935; she was first president of the Eastland Grammar School P.T.A.; she was active in Cosmos Club work in Federated Literary club from 1922 to 1934; she was president of the Eastland P.T.A. 1924, 1925, and 1927; she was a member of the D.A.R. from 1916 until her death and was a charter member of the Long Leaf Pine Chapter, Ruston, La.

Ernest Allen Epps, Sr., her husband, was an active worker in the First Presbyterian church of Ruston and served as Deacon for more than 20 years, most of that time as secretary of the group. He taught the Men's Bible Class a number of years and was a member of the choir.

Following his death on April 6, 1949, the Board of Deacons of the First Presbyterian Church, Ruston, La., passed the following resolution:

A Resolution in Memory of E. A. Epps

Whereas Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to call our good friend and Brother Deacon E. A. Epps to his reward, and, whereas we as Deacons feel deeply the loss of our good member, friend, and associate, and, will come to realize as time goes on what he has meant to our Board, this Church, and our community: now therefore, let us by resolution express our appreciation for his life, his friendliness, his good works, his charity of viewpoint, his helpful spirit, and his life as a father, husband, and man.

E. A. Epps' name will survive in our memory as a good man.

May the Supreme God who loves and saves us all give Grace and Peace to the family of our departed Brother Deacon.

It is further resolved that a copy of this resolution be made a part of our permanent records and that the family be

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the smooth operation of any business and for the protection of its interests.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes the process of gathering information from different sources and how this data is then used to make informed decisions.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the role of technology in modern business operations. It highlights the benefits of using digital tools for communication, data storage, and analysis, and discusses the challenges associated with implementing these technologies.

4. The fourth part of the document addresses the issue of financial management. It provides a detailed overview of the various financial statements and how they are used to assess the financial health of a company.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of human resources in a business. It explores the different ways in which a company can attract, develop, and retain its talent, and how this can lead to increased productivity and profitability.

6. The sixth part of the document focuses on the role of marketing in a business. It describes the various marketing strategies and how they are used to promote a company's products and services, and how this can lead to increased sales and market share.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of legal and ethical considerations in business. It outlines the various laws and regulations that govern business operations, and discusses the importance of acting ethically and responsibly in all business dealings.

8. The eighth part of the document provides a summary of the key points discussed in the previous sections. It emphasizes the importance of a holistic approach to business management, one that takes into account all aspects of the organization and its environment.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the future of business. It explores the various trends and challenges that are likely to shape the business landscape in the years ahead, and discusses the steps that companies can take to prepare for these changes.

Becoming a tenderfoot after reaching 12 years of age, a boy must wait at least three months before he may become a first-class scout. Then a year must pass before he can become an Eagle Scout.

In Memoriam

Marie McEachin Epps was born in Colorado City, Texas, August 24, 1893. She was educated in the public schools of Corinth, Miss., and at Virginia Intermont College, Bristol, Virginia.

Mrs. Epps, with her husband and two children, moved to Ruston in 1920. She entered into the club life of the town and was a faithful member of the Ruston Presbyterian Church, of which her late husband, Mr. Ernest Allen Epps, was a devoted and faithful member and for a number of years a Deacon. During the years in which her children were in the grade schools, she was a loyal and valued member of the Ruston P.T.A. [She was the first president of the Eastland School P.T.A.]. Following the death of her husband, she was a supervisor in Harper Hall, women's dormitory, at Louisiana Tech, which position she filled during the last years of her life.

Mrs. Epps transferred her membership from the La Salles Chapter of D.A.R. of Corinth, Miss., to the Long Leaf Pine Chapter of Ruston. Her name was placed on the roll June 9, 1937. She has served as Chaplain of this chapter for years.

God has called Marie McEachin Epps home and her going is⁷ a loss to this chapter, but the memory of her life will be a light that will continue to shine and warm the hearts of those who came under her influence.

May we stand as we pay tribute to her memory in a prayer hymn.

From the Ruston Daily Leader, summer 192___:

[Ruston, La.]

A FINE BABY IS DISCOVERED IN LOCAL GARAGE

Month-old Babe Is Abandoned By Young Mother of Dubach

A wave of excitement rippled along South Vienna street last night, following the announcement that a boy baby of tender age had been discovered in the garage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Epps.

The baby, less than a month old, was abandoned by its mother, Mrs. Tom Hardy, a widow of Dubach. When the mother was located this morning by Sheriff A.J. Thigpen, she did not try to deny the abandonment. Instead, she said that the child had been born in Shreveport on June 5, that she had named it Carl Glen Hardy, that the attending physician had been Dr. Walker of Shreveport, and that she had left it at the Epps garage in the hope that it would be found and provided with a good home.

The child was discovered shortly after 9 o'clock by Mrs. Epps and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Skinner. Hearing the crying of the little waif, Mrs. Epps paid no attention at first, thinking it the voice of the baby of Mr. and Mrs. Skinner. In the course of time, however, the baby cried so lustily and plaintively that both Mrs. Epps and Mr. Skinner left their homes for an investigation. The unwelcomed tot was found wrapped in a blanket and lying on the floor of the garage.

This morning neighbor ladies of Mrs. Epps gave a linen shower for the infant. And because of his beauty--pretty head, bright eyes and regular features--today noon finds more than half of the wives in South Ruston ready to adopt Carl Glen.

Mrs. Epps told the Leader that she will keep the child until the authorities decide what shall be done in the matter. She said it was too fine a child to be turned over to any charitable institution, and that more than likely some local woman will be allowed to adopt it.

[Note: Ernest Allen, Jr., had shot his sling-shot earlier in the evening to frighten off some Tom cats and had aimed the stones against the side of the garage. This probably awakened the infant and started the crying. "Little Buddy" slept in Loraine's large doll buggy for several days and nights. When the baby was finally adopted, the entire family cried. It was thought better that he be reared away from the scene of his abandonment, as there had been so much publicity. The morning after he was found, more than 500 people came to see him and officers finally had to guard the home in order to permit the baby his rest.]

From the Oklahoma City newspaper, August, 1946:

John Q. Anderson
Weds Marie Epps

Marriage vows for Miss Marie Loraine Epps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Allen Epps, Sr., Ruston, La., and John Quincy Anderson, Oklahoma City, were solemnized August 24. Mr. Anderson is the son of Albert Slayton Anderson, Albuquerque, N.M., and a nephew of Ralph Grant, Oklahoma City, and Miss Joy G. Grant, Choctaw. The marriage was solemnized at 10 a.m. at the First Presbyterian church in Ruston.

The bride is a graduate of Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, Ruston. She has edited two Louisiana weekly newspapers, published in Minden, La., and prior to her journalistic work, she was a member of the teaching staff in the Richland Parish school system. She is a member of the Long Leaf Pine Chapter of the DAR.

Miss Prejean and Ernest Epps, Jr.
Rites Celebrated

The wedding of Miss Bernice Prejean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Prejean of Luling, La., to Ernest Allen Epps of Ruston, was beautifully solemnized Saturday, Jan. 13, at the First Presbyterian church in Baton Rouge, at 6:30 o'clock in the evening, with the Rev. Dr. J.A. Christian performing the double ring ceremony.

The church was simply decorated with emphasis on the altar arrangement. Potted palms were used in profusion, interspersed with floor baskets of white gladioli. On either side of the altar white tapers, which were lighted by John Willard, burned in tall candelabras.

Preceding the ceremony, a program of bridal music was played by Mrs. J.O. Perry, organist. Mrs. Gunvard Hansen, accompanied by Mrs. Perry, sang "Because." To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, the bride entered on the arm of her father. She was lovely in an aqua blue gabardine suit, with pale rose blouse blending with her corsage of Talisman roses. Her accessories were brown.

Miss Loraine Epps of Minden, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and was attired in a brown and gold wool dress suit with matching accessories and corsage of golden Souvenir roses. Earl Claiborne of Baton Rouge served as Best Man.

After the ceremony, to the accompaniment of appropriate music played by Mrs. Perry, the bridal party marched into the minister's study where marriage papers were signed. During the interval, Mrs. Hansen sang "L'Amour, Toujours L'Amour." At the first note of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the vestry doors were opened and the bride entered on the arm of the groom and, followed by Miss Epps and Mr. Claiborne, left the church by the center aisle, and departed immediately for a short honeymoon in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Epps will be at home at 1536 Laurel street in Baton Rouge.

The bride was educated in schools of South Louisiana and completed a business course in New Orleans. For the past two years she has been employed by a Baton Rouge firm.

Mr. Epps was graduated from Louisiana Tech, Ruston, received his Master's degree from L.S.U. and worked toward his doctorate at Washington State College, Pullman, Wash. At present he is a chemist with a Baton Rouge concern.

Copy of a letter from Mrs. E.A. Epps, Jr., to Mrs. E.A. Epps, Sr., Sept. 18, 1953:

Dear Marie:-

Susan starts Kindergarten Oct. 5. I went to a meeting last night. I will drive every Monday and help three Mondays a month. The other days in the week she will be picked up by other mothers in the Car Pool. I am anxious to see if she will like it.

We went to Aunt Maude's but I forgot to ask Uncle Pete about my ancestors. However, I did remember to ask Daddy's sister about that side of the family. But, she could not give me much. I'll give you what I have in case you still want to try to trace the family. My great great grandmother was Pamela Trahant (don't know her maiden name or her husband's first name). She had a daughter named Stephanie Trahant who married Jean Lafitte (He came over directly from France and was the only one of his family who came over so nothing more is known of the family). He became quite wealthy-- owned a plantation, a store, plenty of land (with oil wells all over it today). When he died Stephanie remarried Pierre

Letter from Mrs. W.F. Jobe, Rienzi, Miss., February 11, 1934 to Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Epps of Ruston, La.:

Dear Marie & Ernest-

I was agreeably surprised to get your letter, glad indeed to have a letter from you & that you are well. We are very well. Are having very disagreeable weather, rain, sleet & snow & turns warm & melts away and then turns cold again. 'Tis raining now. Think 'twill freeze again by morning.

I think your children are very smart and I am proud for you that they are. Some of Jim's [Epps] children are having measles. They have certainly been raging here this winter.

We attended Mr. C.T. Ijams funeral at Corinth last Sunday. Saw Pansy for a little while.

Marie, I am afraid I shall not be able to give your much information about The Epps family. I have seen Polly and Jim. Peter Irby Epps married Mary Allen & had 3 children, Aunt Mary who married a Mr. Nichols & last account I had of them they lived at Dallas, Texas (that was during Ernest's father's lifetime) My father, John Allen Epps & Ernest's father.

After our grandmother died G.father married again--a Mrs. Lyons, a widow with one child, a boy John & he always went by the name John Epps & he lived at Brookland, Ark., and died there a few years ago and he has two daughters still living Mrs. Robert S. Wood Hot Springs, Ark. & Mrs. Annie Worley who lived at Pine Bluff the last I heard of her. You might possibly get some information from them, don't know a more definite address to give you--only Mr. Wood was with the Scott Meyer Commission Co. there and Mr. Worley (I believe his name was Charles H. Worley) was a R.R. man & used to work on the Cotton Belt Road.

To G.father's second marriage there were several children, Tom, Marian & Amanda Lonarka are all whom I know the names of I don't know what became of any of them. Ernest ought to know more about them as they lived out about Bethel Springs when they lived there. I do not know who g.father's father was. I never knew any of the family except Ernest's father and John (Lyons) Epps. I'm sorry I don't know any more to tell you and I don't know anyone to tell you who might give you the information. Should I ever find out anything that would help you make up your connection, I'll write you.

No, I do not have any Bible of the family. I will be glad to have the line when you finish it. Will be glad to do anything to help you.

Love & best wishes

I am yours,

[Alyce Epps]

Alyce Jobe

Extract from letter from Mrs. W.F. Jobe to Mrs. John Q. Anderson, College Station, Texas; letter dated March 7, 1954:

I hardly knew what it was to have a mother as mine died at the age of 30 years & I was just 3 years old, but I was very fortunate to have wonderful Grandparents who took me and reared me and were so good to me, but of course they too have passed on many years ago. These were my mother's people.

My father's name was John Allen Epps and his father was Peter Epps. I do not remember ever seeing him but one time & that was when I was about 13 years old; I was at Bethel Springs at your G.father's and mother's (Jim and Florence Epps) & Grandfather Epps came there one day. I never did see Grandmother Epps but I think her maiden name was Mary Allen & my Grandmother said she was a beautiful woman and that is as far back in The Epps family as I know.

[Relatives mentioned are Pansy Epps Taylor, widow of Dr.F.N. Taylor of Jackson, Miss., half-sister; Alyce Epps Bonner, niece and daughter of her brother Jim; niece, Annie Maude Epps & husband Herbert Ijams; Sallie Epps, widow of brother Jim]

Extracts from letter written Jackson, Tenn., Nov. 11, 1957, by Mrs. G.E. Gowan (Nellie Grace Epps, daughter of John Allen Epps and Mary Elizabeth Hunt) to Mrs. John Q. Anderson, College Station, Texas:

I do not know whether my grandfather Peter Irby Epps had any brothers or sisters. I can't remember ever hearing about them. Your grandfather [James Polk Epps] had 2 brothers, my father John Allen Epps & John [Lyons] Epps who lived in Brookland, Ark.--he was a merchant--his wife was a Swain from Selmer, Tenn. & his children were Amanda, Rueben, Nora, Annie & Florence.

My father John Allen Epps & my mother Mary Elizabeth Hunt were the parents of Aubrey Lee, Frank Lowden, Nellie Grace & Pansy May; and my father's first wife was Mary Elizabeth Burnett--their children were Willie Frank (Jake), James McDougal, Mary Elizabeth (Polly) and Alyce Thurle. This is all I really know since my father passed away Sept. 22, 1902 & my mother June 21, 1905.

Extract from letter from Mrs. W.B. Hafford (Loraine Epps, dau. of James Polk Epps and Florence Josephine Kernodle): I am sorry, but I can't give you much history of either the Epps or Kernodle. Peterson Irby Epps, wife, Abigail Allen, father of James P. Epps and Allen Epps, b. Dinwiddie(Co.)Court House, Va., moved to Tennessee I think Middle Tennessee. I know he lived in or near Bethel-- don't know when or where he died. . . .

Hamilton Kernodle, Mamma's nephew, Tibbee, Miss., was endeavoring to trace the Kernodle line. . . .I know there was a Thomas Hardin Kernodle buried in the Bethel cemetery. I thought he was my grandfather. Jane Hamilton had a brother William Bradford. Kernodle grandparents came from North Carolina to Tennessee. I think it was during the Civil War or around that time. Ray was named for some of the relatives. Ray was a family name--full name of brother Ray Bradford Epps. Grandmother Kernodle died in our home where she and Lollie had lived for some time--it was after Papa's death--perhaps a year and a half. I don't know when my grandfather Epps died. . . . Letter from Scottsdale, Arizona, dated March 2, 1960.

CHAPEL RITES

UNITE COUPLE

Miss Loraine Hafford and David L. Walkington were married Saturday evening in a double ring ceremony in the Mercer Garden Chapel, Phoenix.

Mrs. Walkington is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley Hafford, 3125 E. Mulberry Dr. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Walkington, 4126 E. Oak St., Phoenix.

The bride wore a powder blue crystalette ballerina length gown, with applique lace on a fitted bodice. She wore matching mitts. Her head piece was white and powder blue velvet leaves sprinkled with rhinestones. Her bouquet was a white orchid with stephanotis and white streamers.

Maid of honor, Miss Susan Reed, wore a ballerina-length gown in dusty rose crystalette with matching accessories. Her bouquet was pink carnation nosegay.

Albert Edens was best man. Ushers included Jack Pribek and Kenneth Eichenauer. Grant Laney was organist.

Parents of the bride honored them with a garden reception at the Walkington home.

Following a trip to the Grand Canyon and Northern Arizona, the couple will be at home after July 10 at Jackrabbit road, Paradise Valley.

Mrs. Walkington is a graduate of Prescott high school. She attended Arizona State College at Tempe, where her major was Extract from letter of Col. Robert E. Kernodle, 6423 Washington St., Kansas City 13, Missouri. Written 5 Oct. 1960.

"I was born in Texas in 1895. My father is buried in the cemetery of Rockwall, Texas. . . I have a daughter in El Paso, who has a daughter and two sons, all in high school. In Nashville I have a daughter with three sons. I never had a son, so am the last Kernodle of the Simpson Kernodle line.

Your great-grandfather was no doubt a brother of Simpson Kernodle. I do not have any records showing the names of the George Kernodle family. My father died when I was two years old, and all I know about his family is that which is contained in a letter written to my mother by my uncle Dr. Asa Bell of Purdy, Tenn., after the death of my father in 1897.

// 'When George was nine years old he was taken to North Carolina, Guilford County. He was married young and by his first marriage had eleven children, his first wife died, he remarried, and by his second marriage had eleven children, making twenty-two in all. In 1832 he with his last wife and eleven children came to this county and died in 1840. All his first wife's children were left in North Carolina, all married at the time. Simpson Kernodle the father of RYK [Col. Kernodle's father] was born on the tenth of April 1808, was married on the 18th of March 1841 to Mrs. Lucinda Ross Wilson, a widow.' //

The records of McNairy county were all lost by fire in 1858. However, in the Court House square there is a monument to the First settlers who entered the county 1820 and in the list of names you will find Kernodle. We do know that George Kernodle was there in 1833 because records at the State Capital in Nashville show land deeded to George Kernodle April 8th and May 28th.

communicated by Dr. Christopher Johnston. WMQ, V. 24, pp. 143-144:

Samuel Demoville & Elizabeth, ux, heiress at law of Temple Eppes vs. Eppes. Temple Eppes died intestate in 1766 possessed of a considerable estate and leaving two orphan children, viz: Lewellin and Elizabeth Eppes. Peter Eppes (since dec'd) was administrator of said Temple and acted as guardian of his children, and dying in 1774 (sic!) left a will appointing William Royal his executor. Lewellin Eppes was possessed of land in Charles City Co.
and by his will dated Sept. 11, 1755, devised it to his wife Angleica, who is now dead, with remainder to his son Peter. Jan. 7, 1761, Temple Eppes, elder brother of Peter gave bond to him not to disturb him the said Peter in the quiet possession of the River Plantation, devised to said Peter by his father, Lewellin Eppes, deceased. Said Peter Eppes, by will 29 March 1773, devised said plantation to his son Peter.

Lewellin Eppes of Westover Parish, Charles City Co., made his will September 11, 1755, which was proved March 5, 1758: He gave to his son Temple Eppes 12 slaves; to granddaughter Angelica Wilkinson; grandson Joseph Royall, son of Littlebury Royall; wife Angelica, the river plantation for life and then to son Peter Eppes, now a minor; to my four daughters, Eliza., Mary, Ann, Angleica. Wife Angelica executrix; witnesses Wm. Watkins, Jr., Richard Royall, Wm. Royall.

Will of Peter Eppes of Charles City Co., dated March 29, 1773 and proved July 7, 1773: to son Peter, plantation whereon I dwell called River Plantation--to son John Temple Eppes, to daughters Eliza and Angelica Eppes. Lapsed legacy left by my father Lewellin Eppes for which there is a suit pending in the General Court with my proportional part of the estate of my deceased father-in-law John Hardyman, one third to my son Peter and the remainder to my three children, John Temple, Elizabeth and Angelica Eppes--friends Wm. Royall, Sr., Wm. Royall, Jr., Stith Hardyman, executors. Witnesses James Hardyman, Wm. Hardyman, Jr. WMQ, V. 24, pp. 143-144.

Lewellin Epes, Clerk of Charles City, married an Angelica, heretofore unidentified. They had Temple, Peter, Angelica, Eliza, Mary and Ann. Peter Epes, the son had by his wife Ann Hardyman: Peter, John Temple, Eliza and Angelica Epes. The likelihood seems strong that Angelica Epes, Lewellin's wife, was a daughter of Anne Bray and Capt. Peter Temple, or possibly a granddaughter. VMHB, V. 64, p. 471.

Littlebury Eppes, Lt. Col., son of Col. Francis Eppes (1628-1678) and his second wife Elizabeth, widow of Wm. Worsham, was Lt. Col. Charles City Co.; a Justice 1699 et seq. VMHB, V. 49, p. 355.

Littlebury Eppes, coroner--also Clerk of Co. Court, 1726. VMHB, V. 48, p. 143.

William Dandridge Epes--pamphlet "Trial of William Dandridge Epes for the Murder of Francis Adolphus Muir" (Petersburg, J. M. H. Brunet, Reporter, 1849.)

William Epps, born near Ashford [Eng.], was Sir Nicholas Tufton's London Co. agent in Virginia and was appointed by him to be Capt. of Smith's Hundred. . . "A mad ranting fellow." Tufton bought out interest of Anthony Irby in the Co.

Note: The Epps or Epes family was well known in East Kent and was particularly associated with the town of Lyd where some members held the office of Jurat. William himself was the son of John Epps a Jurat of Lydd and later of Ashford whose will (K.A.O. P. R.C. 17/67/340) was proved in 1627. In this document a clause relating to the sale of his tenement after his widow's death left the remainder to his sons: John, William, Francis, Peter, and Edward "or to soe many of them as shall be then livinge within the realm of England."

Epps was perhaps typical of the younger and wilder element interested in Colonial development. Almost on arrival he killed a certain Capt. Stalling in a drunken brawl, but he survived the charge of murder and Governor Yeardley wrote, "I am sorry for Capt. Epps in regard he is a proper young man, and recommended to me by Sir Nicholas Tufton for whose sake I desired to do him all the furtherance I could."

Two of William Epps's brothers, Francis and Peter, were also in the colony of Virginia, but the latter was sent home in 1624 for Popery. William, on the other hand, remained in the colony until at least 1633, but although holding office as Capt. of Smith's Hundred and later as the commander of the Plantation of Accomack, he seems to have been frequently involved in legal matters not always reflecting credit on himself. By 1633 he was associated

Col. William Epps, for many years in the Real Estate business in Knoxville, was the son of Richard and Armenia Epps. He was born in Knox Co., near Mascot, in 1852 and d. Oct. 8, 1924. Never married. He had a brother Abner and the following sisters, Mrs. Inez Walker, Mrs. Allie Skaggs, Mrs. Carrie Roberts, Mrs. Georgia Roberts, Mrs. Elizabeth McMillan, Miss Bell Epps, Miss Love Epps, and Mrs. J.L. Hodges.

[The little booklet has some early Eppes notes, but the material is contained more fully in Francis Epes, His Ancestors and Descendants and the lines of lineage in the latter are more reliable.]

The Eppes were among the most distinguished families of Virginia, and were prominent during the 17th and the whole of the 18th Centuries in Henrico, Charles City, Prince George, and Chesterfield. There were three Col. Francis Eppes in succession in Henrico from 1650 to 1734, the first of the name having been a member of the Governor's Council in 1652. In Charles City Co. Littlebury Eppes was frequently Burgess, and members of the family were the Clerks and Sheriffs of the County repeatedly from 1707 to 1770. In Prince George they held the same offices repeatedly during the same period, as well as that of Burgesses. Francis Eppes of Prince George was Col. of the 2nd Va. Regt. in the Revolution. They were also prominent in Chesterfield and Nottoway. VMHB, V. 4, p. 330.

The town of Charles City was what is now called City Point at the mouth of the Appomattox, five miles below Henricus City in the remarkable loop of the river at Varina or Dutch Gap. In this neighborhood lived the Cockes, Randolphs, Ishams, Bollings, Ligans, Banisters, Fields, Jeffersons, Royalls, Eppes, Pleasants, Hennons, Poythresses, Dvises, Hardimans, and Jones.

Henrico and Charles City Counties originally lay on both sides of the river--including what is now Prince George and Chesterfield. Prince George was created in 1702. VMHB, V.3, p. 410.

 Letter from Mrs. C.A. McClanahan, 1607 Binz Ave., Houston 4, Texas, Sept. 27, 1960--re. Francis Eppes, Will 1772-1789, who married Mary Williams:

"On my record where it says 'Ancestor's Services' is the following: 'In Journal of the Virginia House of Delegates may be found the following record of Francis Eppes: Page 51 Monday Nov. 11, 1776-- 'Mr. Francis Eppes, Sgt. at Arms being too much indisposed to attend to his duty in this House, it is ordered that his son, Mr. Freeman Eppes be permitted to officiate in his stead during his indisposition.' Page 103 Wednesday, Dec. 18, 1776: 'Resolved--that the following allowances be made to the officers of the General Assembly, Mr. Francis Eppes, Sergeant at Arms,- 75'

Where it says to give volume and page of military service, my record says 'See Journal Va. House of Delegates, Page 51, Monday, Nov. 11, 1776. Also page 103.

I have a copy of Wilmer Turner's book. . .he got the wrong date on the marriage of my grandmother and grandfather Connalley.

I have a copy of the Colonial Dame papers of my mother's cousin, Mrs. Margaret Epes Dillard, which she paid Mr. Stanard of Va. Historical Society to look up for her, and which states that Sarah Hamlin [wife of Francis Eppes of Causons and mother of Francis Eppes who married Mary Williams] was the daughter of Robert Hamlin. It also says " a deed in Prince George Co. recites that Sarah, wife of Francis Epes of that county was a daughter of Robert Hamlin. The mother is Ann. "

LINEAGE CHART

- [In Frances Epes, His Ancestors and Descendants, Mrs. Clark traces the line of Francis Epes of Causons through John Epes, eldest son of the above Francis. However, all traditions of the families from this line indicate that the descent came through Francis Epes, the second son. The next several generation listings are assumed to be more nearly the correct order than that of Mrs. Clark (see pp. 24-27 this manuscript for her tracing) The first Francis Epes of Causons, son of John Epes, was born 1646, and Mrs. Clark assumes, by a line of land inheritance, that William Eppes who m. Lucy Hamlin was his son. She assumes that Francis Epes of Causons who m. Sarah Hamlin was his son, as names of his children have not been found.

1. The first part of the report is devoted to a general description of the project and its objectives. It is important to note that the project was initiated in response to the growing need for a comprehensive study of the subject matter.

2. The second part of the report details the methodology employed in the study. This section is crucial as it outlines the specific techniques and procedures used to collect and analyze the data. The methodology was carefully chosen to ensure the highest level of accuracy and reliability in the findings.

3. The third part of the report presents the results of the study. This section contains a detailed analysis of the data collected, highlighting the key findings and trends. The results indicate that there is a significant correlation between the variables studied, which supports the initial hypothesis of the project.

4. The fourth part of the report discusses the implications of the findings. It explores how the results of the study can be applied in practical settings and what they mean for the field of study.

5. Finally, the report concludes with a summary of the key points and a list of references. The conclusion reiterates the importance of the study and the need for further research in this area. The references provide a list of the sources used in the study, ensuring that the work is properly cited and that credit is given to the original authors.

Irby Epps removed from Virginia between 1818, birthdate of his oldest child, and 1823 when the first of his children born in Tennessee was born. He was probably residing in Bedford Co., Tenn., prior to 1840, and is likely the Erby Epps, listed on the 1840 Census Roll, Bedford Co., Tenn.: Males 10/15 1, 15/20 1, 30/40 1; Females under 5 1, 10/15 1, 15/20 1, 30/40 1, 40/50 1. It is presumed that he removed to Tishomingo Co., Miss., about 1847. No record of his death or burial place has been found, though he appeared on the Census Roll for Tishomingo Co., Miss., in 1860, aged 66, on listing with Thomas W. Mills household. He was a farmer.

Jobe (Alyce Epps) recalls that she saw this grandfather one time when she was visiting her Uncle James Polk Epps in Bethel Springs, Tenn. She says that she was about 13 at the time (which would make the date about 1888). This indicates that Peterson Irby Epps and his family removed to McNairy Co., Tenn., sometime between 1861/2 and the Reconstruction Period. John Lyons Epps had purchased land there prior to 1874, at which time James Polk Epps purchased it of him. In a letter, written in 1934, Mrs. Jobe says that Peterson Irby Epps and family lived "about" Bethel Springs. It is not known whether he died in that county or removed to Arkansas with John Lyons Epps's family.

SKETCH OF JOHN R. MOORE

Among the prominent enterprises of a town and county that of Merchandising takes a leading part. Mr. John R. Moore, who is a merchant of Boonesville, has been a resident of Prentiss county since 1847 and is thoroughly identified with the business interests of the same. He was originally from Bedford county, Tenn., was born June 23, 1834 and his parents, Thomas and Nancy (Allen) Moore were natives of Wake county, N.C., and Warren county, Tenn., respectively. the father was born on March 17, 1804, and was the son of Randolph Moore, a native of Virginia and a Soldier in the Revolutionary War. The latter came to Bedford county, Tenn., bringing his family in a wagon, and there his death occurred three years later. He was the father of the following children: Elizabeth, Stansill, Nathan, John, James, Thomas, Zilpha, Rebecca, Celia, and Piety, all of whom lived to be grown except Elizabeth and all to a ripe old age, except the father of our subject, the latter dying at the age of fifty-five years. Celia lived to be over eighty years of age and died in Lincoln Co. Tenn.

The paternal grandmother of our sketch, Elizabeth (Stansill) Moore died in Bedford county, Tenn., in 1843 or 1844. Thomas Moore father of our subject was reared in Bedford Co., Tenn. in 1847 he came to Mississippi. His death occurred in 1850. In 1833 while a resident of Bedford County, Tenn., he married Miss Allen and after coming to Mississippi he was engaged in agricultural pursuits until his death. He opened up a small farm three miles west of Rienzi. He and his wife who was born in 1812 were members of the Methodist church. Her father John Allen was a native of Mecklenburg County, N.C., and an early settler in Tenn. Mr. Allen's wife, Nancy Carr Allen, was born in the same county in North Carolina. Her father, Joseph Carr, was a native of Ireland and a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He and his wife were residing at Mecklenburg Courthouse at the time of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Mrs. Moore, mother of the subject of this sketch, was one of the following children: William, Joseph, Mary, Margaret, Nancy, John, James, Newton, and Abigail. Of these James and Newton are still living, Newton of Shelbyville, Tenn., James in this county.

To Thomas and Nancy (Allen) Moore were born seven children, three of whom are yet living, John R., Newton and George all residents of Prentiss County. Those deceased were: Violet, Margaret, Milton M. and Thomas. Milton was killed at Peach Tree Creek on July 22, 1863. Thomas died in Texas in 1873. Violet was the wife of George Anderson and died in this county leaving seven children, and Margaret who was the wife of M.B. Armor, died at Rienzi, Miss. in 1881. John R. Moore the oldest child living was reared within six miles of his present place of residence and since 1867 he has been engaged in business in the county and followed farming and teaching until the breaking out of the war. He enlisted in Co. A, Thirty-Second Miss. Infantry as a private and served as an orderly Sergeant, then, First Lieutenant, and held this position until the surrender. He was mustered out as a Captain. He was in the battle of Chicamauga, Spring Hill and Franklin. He surrendered at Greensboro, N.C., after which he returned to Prentiss County. Miss Sarah Anderson who became his wife in 1856 was born in Bedford County, Tenn., in 1839 and died in 1868 leaving four children Virginia Ann (Mrs. Robison's mother) now the wife of Thomas L. Betterworth who is editor of the Prentiss Plaindealer, S. Thomas, William Preston, and John R., Sr. (S. Thomas at an early age received an appointment to West Point Military Academy). He is now in a bank at Union City, Tenn. William is engaged in photography and John R. is in a railroad office in Artesia (He afterwards became agent for the M & O at Tupelo then commercial agent with headquarters in Jackson, Tenn. Mr. Moore was married a second time in 1872 to Miss Sallie Marshall a native of Virginia (Gov. John M. Stone was best man) and a daughter of Dr. R.T. Marshall, also of the Old Dominion. She was the oldest of six children. Two beside herself are now living, Robert and Hamilton (the latter operates a large plantation on Moon Lake in Coahoma County. This plantation was left to Elizabeth M., now the wife of Dr. W.W. Vaught) To this union were born two children, Elizabeth M. and Mary Hamilton. Mr. Moore was elected a member of the Board of Police of Old Tishomingo (Board of Supervisors now) in 1865 and was also appointed a member of the Board of Supervisors, becoming president holding that position until relieved by Gov. Ames (a carpetbagger). He was appointed to the latter position by Governor Alcorn on the organization of Prentiss County in 1870. In politics he is strictly Democratic. He is a member of A.F. & A. M. 305, was the first to join the lodge (Virginia his daughter was selected Mascot of Acacia Lodge). He was secretary for several years. He is a member of the mercantile firm of John R. Moore.

Letter: Veterans Administration, Washington. D.C., December 3, 1930
To Mrs. J.A. Vincent, Booneville, Mississippi, from E.W. Morgan, Acting Commissioner:

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary war pension claim W-52, that Randolph Moore (the name also appears as Moor) was born Jan. 10, 1758, in Edgecomb County, N.C.

While residing in Johnson County, N.C. he volunteered late in the winter (year not given) served 25 days in Captain Needham Bryant's Co., Col. Richard Coswell's North Carolina Regiment and was in the battle of Moore's Creek.

He enlisted in 1870, and served five months and nine days in Captain Phillips Company, Col. Brown's N.C. Regiment. Sometime after this (date not given) he served three months for his younger brother, whose name is not shown, in Capt. Joseph Cussions Co., Col. Thomas, N.C. Regiment.

He enlisted in 1781 and served three months in Capt. Jonathan Smiths Co., Cols. Linton and Richard Dobbs Pate's N.C. Regiment.

All of the above service was rendered as a Private. After the revolution he continued to live in Johnson County, N.C., until the year 1812, then moved to Wake Co., N.C. and then to Bedford Co., Tennessee.

He died July 7, 1833 in Bedford County.

Pension was allowed on his application executed August 14, 1832, at which time he was a resident of Bedford County, Tennessee.

The soldier married June 12, 1783 in Johnson County, N.C., Elizabeth Stancill. She was born July 9, 1776 in Dobbs County, N.C., her parents whose names are not given later moving to Johnson County, N.C.

She was allowed pension on her application executed Nov. 2, 1840 while living in Bedford Co., Tennessee. No reference is made to any children.

The above is the history of the only soldier named Randolph Moore found on the revolutionary War Records of this Bureau.

HERBERT IJAMS

AND MISS EPPS

MARRIED TODAY

A marriage that was somewhat of a surprise but none the less interesting to the popular contracting parties was that of Miss Annie Maude Epps and Herbert Ijams, which took place at the Methodist parsonage this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

There were only a few relatives and personal friends of the young people present when Rev. E.R. Smoot, pastor of the First Methodist Church pronounced the ceremony. Immediately following the marriage they left on the west bound train for Memphis, from which place they will go to New Orleans and other points for a short stay.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Epps of the Biggersville community, and a niece of Frank Epps and Miss Pansy Epps of this city. She is a young lady of charming personality and rare intellectual qualities. For some time she has been a most successful teacher in the schools of the county, and was a member of the faculty of the Wheeler school for the term which has just closed.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C.T. Ijams of this city, is one of the young business men of the city, being interested with his father in the grocery business, and is held in high esteem by all who know him for his business qualifications and strong moral character.

In this marriage is the uniting of two of the prominent families of the county, each of which has had much to do with the progress and cultural advancement for a term of years.

On their return they will be at home to their many friends at the home of the groom's parents where they have reserved rooms.

FRANK EPPS DIED MONDAY AT ASHEVILLE

While the news carries with none the less a sadness it has been known for several days by those familiar with his condition that Frank Epps could not recover, and the information of his death will be received with much regret. He passed away at Zephyr Hill Sanitarium at Asheville, North Carolina, Monday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock. His wife Mrs. Ouida Epps and his sister Miss Pansy Epps were with him at the time of his death.

Frank Epps was a great big-hearted fine man, genial, jolly and lovable and in his death separate from the loss that his family and relatives may have sustained Corinth sustains a great loss. Rich in the qualities that make a true man, he had a host of friends.

Early in the year he and J.F. Underwood purchased the Royal Grocery No. 2 and entered a grocery partnership business under the firm name of Epps & Underwood. Just two weeks from the time this business transaction took place he was forced to his home on account of illness. He never returned to the store. A few weeks following his first attack he was taken to Asheville with the hope that it would be beneficial to his condition which was growing worse. At first it was thought this hope was being realized, but for several weeks the reports had not been at all encouraging.

He was 42 years of age and was married to Miss Ouida Boone in 1910, by whom he is survived, together with their three children Elizabeth, aged 13, Frankie Louise, aged 13, and Allen Burnett, aged 3.

He is also survived by five sisters, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Mrs. Mattie Webb, Mrs. Alice Jobe, Mrs. Nell Gowan, and Miss Pansy Epps, and three brothers, Jim and Aubrey Epps and Ebb Burnett.

The remains will arrive Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock on the Memphis Special from the east, and will be taken at once to the Epps home on Cruise Street. The funeral will be held there about 3 o'clock in the afternoon conducted by his pastor Rev. E.R. Smoot, pastor of the Corinth circuit. Immediately following burial will follow in the Nery cemetery.

[May 1, 1910] An exceedingly pretty wedding took place Sunday afternoon at half-past six o'clock at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Boone, when their daughter, Miss Ouida Long, was united in marriage to Frank L. Epps, of Jackson, Tennessee. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P.A. Miller.

Only a few intimate friends and relatives were present, among them being Miss Clarice Webb and Aubrey Epps of Memphis, niece and brother of the groom. After the ceremony a dainty menu was served.

The bride is a pretty and very popular lady of this city, while the groom is a prominent young man of Jackson, and a former resident of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Epps will be "at home" to their friends in Jackson, Tennessee, after May 4th.

DESCENDANTS OF JAMES POLK EPPS, SON OF PETERSON IRBY EPPS

I. JAMES POLK EPPS b. Nov. 14, 1846, Bedford Co., Tenn. d. Dec. 31, 1910, Corinth, Miss. Buried Henry Cemetery, Corinth, Miss.; grave marked "James Polk Epps/ died Dec. 31, 1910/ aged 64." Son of Peterson Irby Epps and Abigail Allen b. probably in Warren Co., Tenn., the daughter of John Allen and Nancy Carr. James Polk Epps enlisted in Co. A, 4th Bn., Mississippi Cavalry (Roddy's), CSA, in Lowndes Co., Miss., Dec. 17, 1861, and was discharged May 4, 1865. He served as private. According to family tradition, he ran away at the age of 15 to join the service, after a Yankee soldier stold his horse. Tradition also says that his father was opposed to secession. He came with his family to Tishomingo Co., Miss., about 1847; after his discharge from service, in about 1874, he settled in McNairy Co., Tenn. and married, May 27, 1880 [Marriage Record Book H, page 224, McNairy County, Tenn.] Florence Josephine Kernodle b. Further research and checking is necessary on the speculative portion of the preceding lineage chart, particularly on the two major speculations:

1. That Francis Epes of Causons (alive in 1738) m. Sarah Hamlin was possibly a grandson of Francis Eppes and Anne Isham, through their son William, dead in 1725, and his wife, a dau. of John Worsham.

2. That Francis Eppes (dead in 1802), father of Irby, Joshua, Francis and Woodlief, was a son of Francis Eppes, Will 1789, and Mary Williams, and a grandson of Francis Epes of Causons.

The following identifications would seem essential to proving the line:

1. Parents, wife's name, marriage date--for Francis Eppes and his wife Mary _____ who had children, Woodlief, Irby, Joshua and Francis. John Royall, administrator, bought land for the widow and heirs in Nottoway Co., 1802, from an Anderson. An order for division of the estate was ordered in 1805.

2. Wife's name, marriage date, parents, dates and places of death for Irby Epps and his wife Martha.

3. Identity and descendants of Francis Eppes of Prince George Co. who was Maj. 1st Va. Regt., Col. 2nd Va., 1776, died Dec. 20, 1776, leaving a dau. Elizabeth Hill Epps who married Thomas Woodlief. Were there other children?

4. Descendants of Martha Eppes, dau. of Francis Eppes d. 1734, and her first husband Llewellen Eppes, Jr., died 1743/4, who was son of Llewellen Eppes, Will 1755-1758, son of Littlebury Eppes, Will 1743, who was half-brother of Francis Eppes d. 1718 of Bermuda Hundred.

5. Descendants, identity of Maj. Isham Eppes of Prince George Co., alive 1779.

6. Descendants of John Eppes, Will 1718, and Mary Peterson, Will 1723, through son John.

7. Descendants of Francis Eppes, son of Francis Eppes and Eliz. Lee.

8. Descendants of Richard Henry Eppes, son of Richard Eppes and his second wife Tabitha _____.

1. The first step in the process of the formation of the new state is the declaration of independence. This is a formal statement by the people of the new state that they are no longer part of the old state and that they are now a separate and sovereign nation. This step is often followed by the adoption of a constitution, which sets out the basic principles and structure of the new state's government.

From Lewis of Warner Hall, Sorley:

Arms: Per fesse gules and or, a pale counter-charged, three eagles displayed of the last.

Crest: on a chaplet vert flowered or, a falcon rising of the last.

The Epps family of Virginia begins its history with the first Lieut. Col. Francis Epps, who was one of the very early emigrants to the Colony. He was born in England and was already resident at the time of the Va. census of 1624-25 when he was known as Ensign Francis Epps. That he was an active officer in the Va. Militia is indicated by his being subsequently referred to as Capt. and Lt. Col. ...Elected to Va. Con. 1625...in expedition against Indians 1627...1621 Burgess for Shirley Hundred...1639 elected to House of Burgesses. His antecedents not known. Nothing known of his wife. She may have died in England and never have been to America [Later information in Mrs. Clarke's Francis Eppes and the will of Capt. Pawlett show her name to have been mentioned after coming to America; also antecedents for the line have been traced to John Eppes of Ashford, Co. Kent, Eng. in the time of Queen Elizabeth]

The 2nd Col. Francis Epps b. England 1628 b. England 1628 To America 1635. Twice married--1st wife unknown.

Col. Francis Epps III b. 1659--2nd wife Elizabeth (Littlebury) Worsham, widow of William Worsham,--four children: William Eppes, Littlebury Eppes (Col. of Charles City), Mary Eppes, Ann Eppes.

The 2nd Francis Epps was wounded by Indians and d. 1678 leaving a large estate. His wife, twice a widow, did not long outlive him d. 1678 (same yr.) She left wills dated July 1678 and Sept. 1678. Pro. Henrico Co. In 1st will she names as executor

Richard Kennon, husband of her dau. Elizabeth Worsham. In 2nd will she names Richard Kennon and her 19 year old stepson Francis Eppes II as Exrs. There is no data on her two oldest sons, John and Charles Worsham, but responsibility for younger children left to Richard Kennon and wife. The close relationship culminated in marriage of William Kennon and Anne Epps, the children of Richard Kennon and 3rd Francis Epps.

The 3rd Col. Francis Epps b. 1659--active in Va. Militia m. Anne Isham, younger of two daus. of Capt. Henry and Katherine (Banks) Isham of Henrico. 1683 Justice of Henrico--later Sheriff, etc., Burgess. His half-bro. Littlebury also Burgess. (notes sent by Mrs. L.C. Acruman, Texarkana, Arka.)

From letter written by Mrs. Leslie McCullar, 734 Marietta St., Booneville, Mississippi: Sept. 14, 1960
I shall be glad to tell you who my grandmother Sarah Eppes was.
Edward Eppes of Knox County, Tennessee, and his wife Sarah had the following children born in Knox County, Tennessee:

Martha (Patsy) Eppes March 2, 1807-Nov. 29, 1882
Mary (Polly) Eppes 1809-1835
John (Jack) Davis Eppes 1811-
Sarah (Sally) Eppes 1813-1855 [Mrs. McCullar's grandmother]
Thomas Anderson Eppes About 1815
William (Billy) Davis Eppes Sept. 28, 1817-Jan. 7, 1903
Elizabeth (Betsy) Davis Eppes July 15, 1821-May 10, 1899
[Edward Eppes m. 27 Aug. 1804, Knox Co., Tenn., Sarah Cross. This line seems to connect with the Sussex Eppes]

Thomas Anderson Epps must have been named for a great uncle. All we know of him is that on November 5, 1804 he got a marriage bond to Marry Mary Elizabeth Moore Randolph, probably born about 1778.

Of Mary Anderson Eppes we know nothing except that she must have been named for her maternal grandmother. There is a Knoxville Court House record of the marriage of "Edward" or Edmond Hodge to Polly Eppes September 28, 1809. This could have been Mary Anderson [Eppes] of course. It is the same with Sarah Eppes. We have been able to find nothing about her.

There is an apprenticeship court record of James Eppes in Knox County, dated January 15, 1803. It states that James is 18 years two months and 20 days. This would make his birthdate October 27, 1784. We have found no further records of James Eppes.

My relatives who live in and around Knoxville were the ones who compiled our "Family of Edward Eppes of Knox County, Tennessee."

Dysartville, N.C. -- McDowell County. My Grandfather was George Thomas (died) he was married to Betsey Landers; he was killed during the Civil War. My great Grandfather was James Appa who was born in Norfolk, Va., Texas, November 9, 1861.
 From 1861 to 1865, Appa was a member of the 42nd United Colored Regiment, 18th

2 boys and 1 girl. The youngest, a boy, was named Ernest II. In my family; all are living except two. I have three children-- N.C. . . . I left [N.C.] there in 1907. There were ten children who passed away in 1925. My daddy has a brother somewhere in and lives in Sweet Home, Ark. He married Dossie Nelson of N.C. My Father is John William Appa--was born in N.C. and in New 84 years

[illegible]

...T^o

I was Martha Price. Edward [Eppes] was my great grandfather who married Sarah Cross? My kin think that she was a Davis as not one of their children or grandchildren had Cross as part of their names. She could have been a very young widow. They did not find any records that fit Sarah's age span.

From letter written by E.C. Epps, 427 Red Ripple Road, Houston 18, Texas, November 9, 1961:

My great Grandfather was James Epps, who was born in Norfolk, Va. He was married to Betsy Landis; he was killed during the Civil War in Petersburg, Va. My Grandfather was George Thomas Epps of Dysortville, N.C.--McDowell County.

My Father is John William Epps--was born in N.C. He is now 84 and lives in Sweet Home, Ark. He married Dosia Melton of N.C. who passed away in 1925. My Daddy has a brother somewhere in N.C. We left [N.C.] in 1907. There were ten children in my family. All are living except two. I have three children--2 boys and one girl. The youngest, a boy, was named Ernest II.

From letter, Mrs. C.A. McClanahan, 1607 Binz Ave., Houston 4, Texas:

In looking through the book by Walter A. Watson, Notes on South-Side Virginia, page 89: COCKE, WALTER, 1801. Deed from Walter Cocke and wife (Ann Carter Cocke), of Surry County, to Francis Epes, of Lunenburg, to 915 acres (Rittenhouse place), bounded by lands of Nathaniel Robertson, James Henderson, Nottoway Glebe land and Irby's Courthouse Road; witnesses Francis Epes of Prince George and others. Nottoway D.B. 2, p. 266. (Tom Epes told me that Richard, Frank and Peter Epes were brothers and came from High Rock in Prince George County. Peter stayed in Lunenburg. Richard was grandfather to Dick Epes, clerk, according to Old Tom Epes.

Butler Co., Mo. --Solomon Kittrel came from Ky., Nov. 1810 and located on Cane Creek. There were then some 200 or 300 Indians camped on the creek, and they remained there for about three years. Among the other pioneers were Daniel Epps, Sr. who lived on what was known as the "Military Road", on Ten Mile Creek, where he had a mill. Other settlers were Samuel Polk. . . .

Letter from David A. Shepherd, Sewanee, Tennessee, to Mrs. E.A. Epps, Ruston, La., Oct. 25, 1937:

Mrs. Shepherd is a descendant of John Epps who died in Bedford Co., Tenn., early in the 19th Century, through the following line--

Priscilla Epps b. 1802 (dau. of John) married 1816 Richard Parker, who was b. 1795

Martha Parker b. 1820 m. 1837 James Hitt

Priscilla Alice Hitt b. 1838 m. 1856 David Llewellyn Malone

Martha Florence Malone b. 1857 m. 1875 John Fontaine Waller

Mary Alice Waller b. 1877 m. 1903 David A. Shepherd.

John Eppes also had a dau. Frances.

Letter from William Allen Epps, P.O. Box 386, Columbia, Tenn., October 11, 1960; and letter November 26, 1960:

Ruth and I made two trips to Bedford County last week. We looked at deed books from 1810-1850, visited some old cemeteries in the general vicinity of the land sold by Joseph K. Allen and described in Deed Book 00. We talked with Dr. Burdett and Miss Mildred Allen, both of whom you have corresponded with. . . . At Bell Buckle, near Shelbyville, we talked with Miss Katie Epps, age about fifty. She was the granddaughter of W.E.B. Epps who came from Virginia or North Carolina. We found references to him in deed books dated 1870, 1874, and 1876.

We found eight references in the Deed Books to Daniel Epps between the years of 1824 to 1841. In the land transaction of 1841 the deed referred to him as being from Franklin County at that time. Winchester is the county seat of Franklin County. Our check of the census rolls for Bedford County did not reveal his name.

[See page 18, Epps notes, 1959] The land transfer recorded in Deed Book 00, pages 288-289, referred to Joseph K. Allen as being from "County of _____, State of Illinois." It is interesting that the daughters and daughters-in-law in the family did not sign the deed in 1842 with their husbands and parents, but "appeared individually" in 1846 and signed it. We have not as yet checked the original grant No. 15682. In addition to Peterson Irby Epps's name appearing on the 1842 deed, it also appeared on two deeds of trust, one in 1841 and the other in 1845.

At Fayetteville in Lincoln County, we found an Edwin Roscoe Epps, son of John Norris Epps, born 1841, and the grandson of Creighton Epps. He did not know his great-grandfather's name, but his great grandfather's brother was named Hugh. He also has an uncle in Rutherford County, Effie Epps, who has a grandson named Irby Epps. Roscoe Epps stated that he understood that his great-grandfather along with two brothers came from North Carolina (or maybe, Virginia). One settled in Bedford, one in Lincoln, and one in North Alabama. It was interesting to read a letter that he had received from an Epps in Rochester, Minnesota, who was trying to learn something of his family history. There are other Eppses in the vicinity of Petersburg, Tennessee.

We spent Tuesday of this week in Nashville at the State Library and Archives Building. We asked about marriage records for both Bedford and Warren Counties. There are no records for Bedford before 1860, or Warren before 1850. We did find a record of old cemeteries in Bedford County, compiled by W.P.A. workers, but we found no references to Allens or Eppses. The record stated that there were many unmarked graves in each cemetery, that many markers had been destroyed and that many inscriptions were illegible.

We examined the census rolls of Bedford and Warren Counties for the years 1820, 1830, 1840, and 1850. We did not find any Carrs listed, but we did find Allens in both counties and Eppses in Bedford.

We noticed in checking the census of Bedford County that the 1830 population was about 30,000, while that of 1840 was only a third of that amount. This was brought about in 1835 by the formation or enlargement of adjacent counties. This took a large portion from the original Bedford County and adds considerably to the difficulty of checking old records. The two counties formed at that time were Coffee and Marshall.

Names of families that appear in the 1679 list for Henrico Co but not in the one of 1624.

Francis Epes was the grandson of Francis Epes who was certainly in the colony in 1625 for in that year he was a member of the House of Burgesses. A patent issued to him 26 August 1635 states that the land thereby granted him was for the "personal adventure" of himself and the transportation of his sons, John, Francis and Thomas Epes and 30 servants. WMQ, Vol. 24, p. 138.

"Some Notes on the Eppes Family" communicated by Dr. Christopher Johnston, WMQ, Vol. 24, pp. 143-144:

a considerable estate and leaving two orphan children, viz: Lewellin and Elizabeth Eppes. Peter Eppes (since dec'd) was administrator of said Temple and acted as guardian of his children, and dying in 1774 (sic!) left a will appointing William Royall his executor. Lewellin Eppes was possessed of land in Charles City Co., and by his will dated Sept. 11, 1755, devised it to his wife Angelica, who is now dead, with remainder to his son Peter. Jan. 7, 1761, Temple Eppes, elder brother of Peter gave bond to him not to disturb the said Peter in the quiet possession of the River plantation, devised to said Peter by his father, Lewellin Eppes deceased. Said Peter Eppes by will 29 March 1773, devised said plantation to his son Peter.

Lewellin Eppes of Westover Parish, Charles City Co., made his will September 11, 1755, which was proved March 5, 1758: He gave to son Temple Eppes 12 slaves; to granddaughter Angelica Wilkin-son; grandson Joseph Royall, son of Littlebury Royall; wife Angelica, the river plantation for life and then to my son Peter Eppes, now a minor; to my four daughters, Eliza, Mary, Ann, Angelica. Wife Angelica, executrix; witnesses Wm. Watkins, Jr., Richard Royall, William Royall.

Will of Peter Eppes of Charles City Co., dated March 29, 1773, and proved July 7, 1773: to son Peter, plantation whereon I dwell called River Plantation--to son John Temple Eppes--to daughters Eliza and Angelica Eppes. Lapsed legacy left by my father Lewellin Eppes for which there is a suit pending in the General Court with my proportional part of the estate of my deceased father-in-law John Hardyman, one third to my son Peter and the remainder to my three children, John Temple, Elizabeth and Angelica Eppes--friends Wm. Royall, Sr., Stith Hardyman executors. Witnesses James Hardyman, Wm. Hardyman, Jr. WMQ, Vol. 24, pp. 143-144.

Dr. Philip Alexander Bruce in his Social Life in Virginia in the 17th Century: In legal doc. Mr. signified that a person so designated to a higher degree of social consideration than was enjoyed by a mere yeoman. In the Henrico Co. list 1679 Mr. was placed before Francis Eppes, Richard Kennon, Richard Cocke, Thomas Batte, Essex Bevill, Thomas Branch, Sr., Thomas Osborne, Edward Osborne. WMQ, Vol. 24 (Torrence Art.) p. 262.

The most powerful of the Henrico families (during the period under discussion) were the Randolphs, Cockes, Eppses, and Byrds.

J... Epps

Corinth, Mississippi

January 1st: J.P. Epps a prominent citizen of this place, died of pneumonia after an illness of only a few days. Deceased came to Corinth about a year ago from Bethel, Tennessee, where he was a successful merchant for a number of years. He was a splendid citizen, an old Confederate Soldier and identified with the Presbyterian Church. He leaves a wife and five children. Burial Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the Henry Cemetery.

CONFEDERATE VETERAN, Vol. 19, p. 137--

James Polk Epps

J.P. Epps was born in Bedford Co., Tenn., a son of Peter Irby Epps and Abigail (Allen) Epps. His mother died when he was five years of age. From early youth he lived near Rienzi, Miss. He enlisted in Forrest's Cavalry at sixteen years of age, and served the last two years of the war. Later he worked on the farm and clerked in stores at Booneville, Miss., and Bethel Springs, Tenn. He engaged in merchandising at the latter place, and did a prosperous business for more than thirty years. In the spring of 1910.

Letter from Professor James H. Bailey, 112 Grove Ave., Apt. 3, Richmond, Va., dated May 13, 1960:

My connection with the Eppes family is a good distance in the past. My maternal grandmother, née Coleman, was the daughter of Edna Elizabeth Williams (Mrs. James E. Coleman of Petersburg, Va.), whose father was Joshua Eppes Williams. His mother, Rebecca Eppes, was the daughter of Joshua Eppes (who would therefore be my great great great great grandfather. . . . The late eighteenth century and early nineteenth century would surely have been his period.

Letter from Mrs. W.F. Jobe (Cousin Alyce Epps Jobe) August 30, 1960:

I thought that you would like the picture of Uncle John [John Lyons, stepson of Peterson Irby Epps] so I am sending it too; it is just like him when I knew him, and he was such a fine, sweet person. The other pictures are good as I remember them at that age [pictures of James Polk Epps children]. I had two of Uncle Jim [James Polk Epps] so am keeping one. The large one of your father [Ernest A. Epps, Sr.] is just like him at that age--he was a handsome young man. The one of your grandfather and G-mother are just like them--some dress she has on; she wore nice clothes.

Letter from Mrs. W.F. Jobe (Cousin Alyce Epps Jobe), Rienzi, Miss., Mar. 28, 1960:

At one time when I was about 13 years old I visited your grandfather James Epps at Bethel Springs, Tenn. and Peter Irby Epps, James' father, came there one day --and he lived out in the country from Bethel Springs and some of his children by his last wife lived out from Bethel Springs, but I do not remember seeing any of them. At one time when I was a small child I remember Marion Epps coming down here to visit my Father and that is all I seem to recall, except the John Lyons, stepson who went by the name of Epps--he has been dead for years, who some time went to Brookland, Arkansas and I think he married a Swain in Tenn. They had several children--one boy Rubin died with smallpox--6 girls, but this does not get you back there where you need to be...

Letter from Mrs. Harold K. Page, 126 Rockhill Dr., San Antonio 9, Texas, May 20, 1960:

My grandfather was Obadiah Epps, born in Butler Co., Missouri, Nov. 1839, died in Ft. Worth, Texas, Jan. 31, 1899. He had a twin brother named William Carroll Epps. Obadiah Epps was the son of William Epps [Note. Joshua Epps is shown as father on 1850 Mo. Census--could he have been named William Joshua?] This I know because it is on his gravestone. He was buried near a town in Oklahoma called Marietta. I believe it was Indian Territory in 1899. He married Minerva Vandover, also of Butler Co., Mo. She was born Oct. 29, 1841.* They came to Texas with their family in 1875 and settled on a farm near Gainesville, Texas. I think this is in Cooke County--am not sure. They did not remain there very long, as I remember having been told, but moved on to Indian Territory. Here is a list of the children. I am almost positive they were all born in Missouri. *died Dec. 21, 1887.

William Carroll Epps; Mary Louise Epps m. Jefferson D. Thompson; Della Epps m. Samuel Harris; Nellie Epps m. Jesse Pate; Jefferson Edward Lee Epps; Wallace Joshua Epps (My father); Caleb Epps; Reedy Epps.

Letter from Miss Katie Epps, Bell Buckle, Tenn., Dec. 6, 1959: We are also at a loss as to the identification of our great grandfather. Our great grandmother died when our grandfather (William) W.E.B. Epps was about thirty minutes old, so it seems that we do not have the information any farther back than that. . . . My brother was the only Epps boy, but he died in 1950 without any children.

Letter from Miss Mabel E. Peterson, 618 Lawrence St., Petersburg, Va., August 26, 1960:

The Epes chart is quite interesting. Our line comes in on (25) under IX (William Epes m. Mary Batte, etc.). There was another daughter in addition to my grandmother, Mary Epes, Aelia Louise Epes. I have recently copied a letter from Grandma written to Aunt Aelia in 1852, which was two years before she married Grandpa Peterson.

From letter from Mrs. E.M. Standefer, 727 Goodlett, Memphis 11, Tennessee, March 29, 1962:

My connection is John Eppes m. Thomasine Bankes; Francis Eppes bapt. 1597 m. unknown; Francis Eppes b. 1628 d. 1678 m. Mrs. Elizabeth Littlebury Worsham; Maria Eppes died 1714-18 Henrico Co., Va., m. Letter from B.F. Worsham, Corinth, Miss., March 12, 1962:

I have your letter of the 7th inquiring about your father and grandfather. I, incidentally, knew Mr. J.P. Epps, but did not have the privilege of being thrown with him but very little and therefore, am not in a position to give you any information about him, nor any experiences or incidents in which he was involved.

I, of course, knew your father, Ernest Epps, over a period of a good many years, and remember him most distinctly and favorably. As a matter of fact, he traveled for the firm of Green Brothers and Northcross for several years, and Northcross and I married sisters.

Then, too, I knew your mother, Miss Marie, and her mother and brother. Her mother was referred to as Miss Henry, and I only knew her as a widow, and she was very popular and had many devoted friends.

Ernest was always most graceful and courteous and, as you already know, he was always very neat in his appearance and bearing, and I thought quite a good deal of him.

You might be interested in knowing that they lived at the corner of Jackson and Fourth Streets; that they bought this home place from Mr. H.L. Creary in February of 1910, deed being made to your grandfather, Mr. J.P. Epps, and the property is described as the Southwest Quarter of Block 548 of Walker's Addition in the City of Corinth.

Then, under date of October 4, 1915, the property was sold to T.F. Hinton. At that time your Uncle Russell Epps was a minor, and his mother Mrs. Florence J. Epps was his guardian, and, of course, she and your two uncles, V.A. Epps and Ray B. Epps, also signed the deed. Your aunt, Miss Loraine, and, of course, Ernest signed the deed too. I don't recall too much about this trade, but I did actually handle this sale for your people.

My associations with Ernest were very pleasant but were largely business associations, as he was a younger man than I, but I enjoyed knowing him and appreciated his friendship very much.

Rowen was in the Mecklenburg district.

He and his wife were residing at Mecklenburg Courthouse when the famous Declaration was signed. --Memoirs of Mississippi, Good-Publishing Co., pp. 463-464.

Copy of a letter from Myrna Kerr, 1509, Anderson Ave., Chattanooga, Tennessee, written about 25 years ago to Mrs. Bessie Steele Daugherty, Mabtown, Washington [This copy supplied by Miss Tommie Clack, Route 5, Box 559, Abilene, Texas, in letter to Mrs. John Q. Anderson on June 28, 1961.]:

Our Kerrs came from Southern Scotland during the migrations to the Colonies and settled in Pennsylvania. Just before the Rev. War one of them moved to N.C. (don't know his name). He had two sons, Robert and Joe; both entered the Rev. forces, and Joe was crippled, acted as a "spy". After the war he left N.C. and came to White Co., Tenn., and settled.

He and his wife only had a lantern, spinning wheel, and a few little things. We never knew what became of Robert, but supposed the other set of Kerrs in Chattanooga are his descendants. Now Joe came to White County, and he had several children, two of them named Alexander and Robert--don't know the names of the others. Alexander was my great grandfather. He had in turn a son named Levi, and he had 11 sons and one daughter.

My father Dr. Benjamin Franklin Kerr was the seventh son. So that is us.

I don't know if we are related or not, but it looks very promising, as all those Kerrs which were kin to Great Grandfather moved to Missouri and he never heard from them again. My Grandfather Alexander married a woman by the name of Savage. We are trying to trace the history now and am working on it. Also the government wants to locate the grave of Grandfather Joe to place a monument there. So we are trying to locate that and any records, and if I develop anything I will let you know.

Letter from Miss Nanon L. Carr, 6102 The Paseo, Kansas City 10, MO.
To Mrs. George Rust, Box 343, Wharton, Texas, Oct. 30, 1959:

You really came to the right place for Carr data, for Joseph Carr, father of Margaret (Carr) Rust, was a brother of my gr. gr. grandfather William Carr (1771-1855) of Loudon Co., Va. I have collected this branch of the Carr family since 1942 and have spent part of two summer vacations in Loudoun Co. working in the wonderfully kept records there and in Fauquier county, where Joseph Carr lived.

Joseph Carr married (1) Ann Elgin (pronounced Elgun in Va.) (2) Delia Strother, the bond being dated 10 Oct. 1796 and recorded in Fauquier Co. Mar. Book 2. Joseph Carr died intestate, but from the papers involving the settlement of his estate, I have the names of his children, altho I cannot be sure which children were of which marriage: Peter Carr d. 1828; John Carr m. Emily Kerfoot; Caldwell Carr d. 1855 leaving will; Joseph G. Carr; Maria W. Carr m. Daniel S. Kerfoot (bro. of Emily); Jane S. Carr m. Robert Singleton; Margaret Carr m. Dr. Busrod Rust; Elizabeth Lovell Carr (1802-1874) m. George Calvert (1795-1871) son of Ralls and Mary Wade (Strother) Calvert; Amanda m. Carr m. James McCrae; Rebecca Elgin Carr m. Hensley Bogges.

. . . Joseph Carr (b. Nov. 1765 d. 1827) was a son of Peter Carr and his first wife Rachel Caldwell, so you will be joining me in hunting Rachel's parents. Delia Strother was the daughter of Enoch Strother (1728-1772) and his wife Mary Kay, who were married 12 Feb. 1763. See Tyler's Quarterly Vol. XI, p. 195.

Joseph Carr is supposed to have had one son and one daughter by his first wife Ann Elgin and three sons and five daughters by Delia Strother. This information is from part of an old ms. compiled by my grandfather's cousin, Prof. William Brown Carr of Loudon, Co., but destroyed by his family at his death. Peter Carr was born 20 Oct. 1740 in County Down, Ireland, and died Feb. 1812, near Leesburg. The slab that covered his grave in a cemetery near Waterford, Va., was removed by one of his descendants to the Union Cemetery in Leesburg. In 1942 I found part of Rachel Caldwell Carr's slab in the old cemetery, but the part with dates was missing.

Peter Carr married (2) 12 Mar. 1798, Loudon Co. Mrs. Mary (Polly) Wilson, widow of John Wilson. Her will is dated 15 Aug. 1816 and probated 13 May 1816. She had these grown children John Jefferson Wilson, Henry Lawrence Wilson, Maria Susanna Wilson, Kezia Wilson.

You perhaps know that you can get from the Virginia State Library photoprints of photostats of wills (and other papers) much cheaper than they can be obtained from the county clerks... Peter Carr's will is in Loudon Co., Va. Will Book K, page 96. He had (probably all born Loudon Co.): 1. Mary Carr 5 Aug. 1764 m. Benjamin McMakin 2. Joseph Carr m. (1) Ann Elgin (2) Delia Strother 3. John Carr b. 6 Dec. 1774 d. 8 June 1833 m. 1822 Jane Means 4. Peter Carr, Jr. m. 23 July 1796 Mary Skinner--- probably went to Kentucky 5. Jane Carr b. 30 July 1796 d. in 91st year Clark Co., KY. m. Cornelius Skinner d. 1848 6. William Carr b. 20 Jan. 1771 m. 1793 Margaret Wren b. 23 Feb. 1773 d. 16 Nov. 1809. [redacted] 3 sons and 3 daughters.

Peter Carr was a son of John Carr (1684-1744) of Scotch descent who came from Co. Down, Ireland, in 1741, settling first "in the vicinity of Philadelphia" and about 1750 to near Waterford, Va., in what is now Loudon Co.; on Oct. 7, 1899, a gr. gr. grandson, Col. Julian Shakespeare Carr of Durham, N.C., erected in the Union Cemetery at Leesburg a monument to John Carr bearing inscriptions on all four sides: V.S.

John Carr, 1684-1794, Emigrant from County Down, Ireland to N. Leesburg, Va., about 1750.

Father of Thomas Carr 1733-1796; John Carr 1738-1807 ensign 1st Va. Reg. 1781; Peter Carr 1740-1812; and of five daughters. His descendants are now A. D. 1899 respected citizens of more than 30 of our 45 states.

This perennial memorial was here erected Oct. 7, 1899 by a gr. gr. grandson, Col. Julian S. Carr of Durham, N.C.

"Awake and sing ye that dwell in dust." Is. xxvi, 19.

You probably know that Col. Carr was N.C.'s first millionaire (Bull Durham tobacco king) and patron of Duke University. He educated the father of the famous Soong family and visited him after he had returned to China. One of the daughters of John Carr--I have been able to find records on four: Margaret m. Robert Wade, Rev. Soldier; Sally--had a son Daniel Carr; Ann m. John Barnard; Mary m. Joseph Wilson.

John Carr was married twice, ca. 1732 to Susan and ca. 1743 to Sarah. I suppose there is little hope of finding out the family name of Susan, mother of Peter Carr. . . . John Carr's will in Loudon Co., Will Book E, p. 96, mentioned "my grandson Joseph Carr, son of my son Peter Carr." His inventory is recorded in Will Book E., p. 129. Having already willed his land, there was little but clothing to be inventoried.

Carr family: Westmorland Co., Va. John Carr married Sarah Bruce Jan. 20, 1794.

Wills of Loudon Co., Va. Carr, John 30 Oct. 1788-10 Feb. 1795 sons: Thomas, John. Grandsons: Joseph Carr (son of Peter), John Carr, Thomas Carr 7 Sept. 1796. Dau. Jane Camell, wife of Andrew. Sons: John, Thomas, James, Joseph, Samuel Carr. Dau. Margaret Carr, Mary Hall, Eliz. Carr.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the transparency and accountability of the organization. This section also outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data, ensuring that the information is reliable and up-to-date.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the implementation of these practices. It details the steps involved in setting up a robust system for data collection and analysis. This includes identifying the key areas of focus, selecting appropriate tools and technologies, and training staff to ensure they are proficient in the new system. The goal is to create a seamless workflow that allows for efficient data management.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges that may arise during the implementation process. It provides strategies for overcoming common obstacles, such as resistance to change or technical difficulties. By anticipating these challenges and having a plan in place, the organization can ensure a smooth transition to the new system.

4. The final part of the document concludes with a summary of the key findings and recommendations. It reiterates the importance of ongoing monitoring and evaluation to ensure that the system remains effective and efficient. The document also includes a list of references and a glossary of terms used throughout the text.

White County) S.S.

On this 4th dya of September 1832 personally appeared before me Nathaniel M. Williams Judge of the Circuit Court of Law and Equity for said State, now sitting in the said County of White, Joseph Kerr a resident of White County and state of Tennessee, aged about seventy-two years who first being duly
 to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the united states and served as herein stated-- In the year of 1778 or 1779, he cannot remember which, he lived in Mecklenburg County North Carolina- The british and the tories were very troublesome in that part of the Country, and at that time- This Declarant has been a cripple from his infancy; properly termed an invalid- and not subject to military duty- At the pressing solicitation of his suffering neighbors who were exposed to the ravages of the enemy, this Declarant went to Genl McDowell in Rowan County (as he now thinks) and offered his services to him as a "Spy"- The offer was thankfully received- and this Declarant entered the service in that character- He was sent by Genl McDowell from Rowan North Carolina to Tiger River in South Carolina, near Blackstocks ford, to watch the operations of the British and tories. He found some British and tories to the number of about fifteen hundred, as well as he now recollects, quartered on Tiger River, on the south side, about half a mile below the above-mentioned ford- He then returned to Rowan County N.C. and apprised Genl McDowell and Col. Steen of the discoveries he had made- From Tiger River to Genl McDowell's station in Rowan County he believes was about ninety miles- he was well mounted and travelled night and day until he reached Genl McDowell- on receiving this information Genl McDowell, Col Steen and the troops with them, marched to Smith's ford of Broad River, south Carolina- Here Genl McDowell remained with a part of the troops, and detached Col Steen, with about six hundred men, as well as Declarant now recollects- to go against the British and tories at Blackstocks ford on Tiger River, where their situation had been particularly spied out by this Declarant- Col Steen with his troops came upon them rather by surprise, routed and defeated them- Col Steen in this engagement lost four men killed- and had seven wounded- He took no prisoners, but killed, as Declarant thinks, from fifty to a hundred of the British and tories- Declarant then returned to North Carolina and joined Col Williams as a spy- he thinks it was Rowan County- By this time, the above named Col Steen, who commanded the south Carolina "Refugees", had joined Col Williams- from there, they marched near to the Cowpens, in order to join what were called the "Overmountain troops", under the command of Col's Sevier, Cleveland and shelby-- Col Steen informed the other officers that this Declarant was known to him as a faithful and efficient spy, as a true friend to his country, and one in whom the utmost confidence could safely be reposed- Cols Sevier, Cleveland, shelby and Steen then held a counsel in presence of this Declarant: They knew that Ferguson with his British and tories, was then stationed about twenty miles from them, at Peter Quin's old place, about six or Seven miles from Kingsmountain, and between said mountain, and where our troops then were- The result of this counsel held by the officers was that this Declarant should go, and reconnoiter Ferguson's position, which he did- He found the British and tories encamped about one hundred yards apart, and their arms stacked up, and no centinels- This Declarant gained easy access to them by passing himself for a tory- as tories were then numerous in that part of the Country- He believes, but in this he may be mistaken, that Ferguson's strength including British and tories, was not exceeding fifteen hundred- He ascertained from the tories that they intended, on the evening of that day to go from Quin's old place to the top of Kingsmountain, and to remain there a few days, in order to give protection to all the "rebels" who would join Ferguson's After obtaining this information and making these discoveries, this Declarant returned the next day to Cols Sevier, Shelby, Cleveland and Steen, having staid all night at the house of a tory who lived about ten miles from Quin's old field- He reached our encampment about sunset- The officers immediately collected round this Declarant in order to ascertain what his discoveries had been- He gave a brief, but circumstantial account of them to the said Sevier, Shelby, Cleveland, Steen and Williams, whose name has been unintentionally omitted, in his last references to the officers- Williams was present at each counsel that was held- The conclusion was, that they would march that very night- in the direction of Kingsmountain- a distance, he believes, of about twenty-seven miles, or probably only twenty-six- Sevier, Cleveland, Shelby, Steen & Williams, with their troops, reached Kingsmountain the next day, (having marched all night) about 10 o'clock- and completely surprised Ferguson and his troops by surrounding them- Sevier occupying one position, Cleveland another, Williams another, shelby another, and Steen another- The engagement he thinks lasted about an hour, but in this he may be mistaken- the defeat of Ferguson was complete- about two hundred and fifty were killed on the ground, about seven hundred and fifty taken prisoners- the balance escaped- they were principally tories- We lost about twenty five men killed on the ground- many wounded- of which number was Col Williams who was wounded several places- A mortal wound in the groin as this Declarant believes, terminated his life on the next day after the battle before 12 o'clock- This Declarant well remembers conversing with him after the battle- He knew he must die, and did so, cheerfully resigned to his fate. From the time this Declarant first entered the service as a spy, until the battle of Kingsmountain, was something like one year and some few months, but how many he does not know-

This Declarant then left the service by permission and returned to Mecklenburg County- where he remained some little time- how long he does not remember. He had before the war lived in south Carolina in the County or District of York- had been well known there, and his fame as a spy had reached the settlement where he had lived- His acquaintances to the number of Eight or ten, in York County south Carolina wrote a letter to him, describing their distress and exposed condition, and imploring aid- He showed the letter to the officer commanding the Refugees in North Carolina near the Yadkin River Col Steen was now dead, having been killed by the tories- and who commanded these refugees, he cannot now tell- for the reason that he does not remember- Thirty one of the Refugees came with this Declarant back to Mecklenburg, where he made his home, at the house of his uncle Joseph Kerr- It was about fifty miles from here to York S.C., as he now thinks, from whence this cry of distress above spoken of, proceeded. At the instance of Capt Barnett who commanded the few refugees who returned with him to Mecklenburg, this Declarant proceeded to York for the purpose of making discoveries- Barnett's object was to get accurate information, and then procure force sufficient from other sources, to make a successful attack upon them- This Declarant went, and in the character of a tory gained access to the camp of Genl Floyd, and Capt Hook british & tory officers- Hook commanded the dragoons. But here, this Declarant was recognized by some of the tories- they were there in great numbers under Genl Floyd- and on this occasion he came very near losing his life- He was personally known to some of the tories who told Captain Hook that he was "a damned Rebel spy"- Hook drew his sword over the head of this Declarant, and repeatedly menaced and threatened his life- after continuing to menace and threaten for sometime, Hook told him, as there was no positive proof against him, he would spare his life, on condition that he would remain there until the next thursday (and take the oath of allegiance, and come under his protection- he having as he said appointed the next thursday as a day on which he would administer the oath to rebels in general- stating at the same time, in these words, "Young Man I am damned suspicious of you, you can do us more damage than two hundred fighting men in the fields"- stating that if ever this Declarant returned to North Carolina and was brought before him again, he should not live two minutes- this Declarant was not retained in custody, but pledged himself to remain until the following thursday and take the Oath and come under protection of Capt Hook- He however effected his escape, as there were no centinels, and as Capt Hook believed and so expressed himself, that there was not "a rebel army" in five hundred miles- This Declarant made his way to his horse, where he was tied in the bushes some distance from the camp- He travelled all night- leaving the british and the tories in the afternoon he reached Capt

he described the condition of the enemy to Capt Barnett- which was this-the British and tories were encamped in an old field near a house- without centinels as above stated- adjoining them was another old field, measurably grown up with pines- and was tolerably thick set with pine saplings. Capt Barnett with his thirty one men, determined to set out for the British and tory encampment- They did so, and travelled in day light, till they came in about fifteen miles of the encampment- The balance of the way they travelled in the night- and reached the above mentioned old field, viz the one which was over grown up with pines, between midnight and day- This was on the second night after Declarant left the British and tory encampment- Barnett and his men, having tied their horses behind the field, cautiously and silently advanced upon the British and tories, and found them asleep- Capt Barnett's orders were that as the night was very dark, his little band should advance to where the men were asleep, and ascertain from their breath, or breathing, which way their heads lay- at a concerted signal, every man was to fire, and fire all at once- which signal was this- Old Mr. Gipson, at the head of the line, was first to fire, and the balance to fire immediately. They did as they were ordered, and literally obeyed the directions given- the fire was fatal-Capt Barnett's men commenced reloading, and hollowing, and giving the word of Command, and calling upon Generals and Colonels to surround the enemy;
This was done for the purpose of impressing the enemy with the belief that they were attacked by a large force- The artifice succeeded- There was killed of the enemy about Ninety seven, principally British; amongst whom was Capt Hook- The enemy retreated in the utmost confusion, leaving their arms, ammunition, horses and saddles, and some of them leaving their hats- In short the defeat and rout of the enemy was decisive--this was the last of this Declarant's services to his country- He has no documentary evidence by which he can establish the foregoing facts- nor any living witness within his reach-

1 This Declarant was born in Chester County Pennsylvania 3 November 1760

2 He has a record of his age which can now be seen and inspected in the town of Sparta White County Tennessee

*Note--items 3 through 5 and end of page have line drawn alongside with word omit . Below item two was check mark and signature here--but the signature is at the end of the final statement. Perhaps the omit was not followed.

3 When he entered the service, he lived in Mecklenburg County North Carolina
After the close of the war he went to south Carolina York District- From there he removed to Wilson County, West Tennessee From thence he came to White County where he now lives, and has lived about Nineteen or 20 years

4 He has already stated the manner in which he was called into service, and the General circumstances of his service, with such officers as he was acquainted with--

5 He never received any discharge, never in fact having been subject to military duty and only being engaged as a spy, he rode his own horse and being in easy circumstances measurably bore his own expenses--

6 He states the names of the following persons, in his present neighborhood who can testify as to his character for veracity and their belief of his services as a soldier of the Revolution To wit- Isaac Taylor, Jesse (?) Lincoln, Anthony Dibrill and the Rev. Mennean Wade.

---He hereby relinquishes every claim to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any state

Mr Robert E. Kernodle

My sister received your letter you wrote to her husband Ernest Carothers. He past away four years ago. We don't know anything about the early Kernodles only what our Father told us. He talked lot about Uncle Simpson, his father Bedford Kernodle & Uncle Simpson was brothers I think.

George Kernodle buried at Bethel Springs was my father grandfather and he built part of this house many years ago.

We don't know anything about Sallie or Sarah Kernodle or George Kernodle never heard my father speak of them so I cannot tell you very much.

yours truly

Mary Kernodle

Dear Mrs. Anderson

I received your letter and I guess you think I am not goin to answer. My Oldest Brother has been in bad health for some time & he passed away New Year day so you see why I do not know anything about the early Kernodle My Father name is John Kernodle his father Bedford & his Grand Father George & he is buried at Bethel. My Father Mother and Father are buried at Buena Vista about 2 and half mile west of Bethel

I sure can not answer any of your questions Wish I could. I can rember your grand Father Mr. Epps & also your father. I can rember my Father goin to your Grand Fa ther to see your Grandmother I rember her married John R. Martin New Salem is about 2 1/2 miles from Bethel about quarter mile off highway 45 to left if my Brother had been at his self he could have told you a lot so by Boyer and their daughter Nellie Katherine m. J. Frasier Alesworth, 1959 Highbee St., Memphis, Tenn. If Katherine is still living she might be able to give you some information much further back. Nellie Katherine was employed with state or county when I heard from her more than five years ago.

I think grandmother's brother was Dick Bradford. He was in the Revolutionary War. (Note: most of the family tradition says that Jane Hamilton Bradford Kernodle's father William was in the Rev. War. Much work is needed on the Bradford line)

Letter from Mrs. William B. Hafford, Oct. 11, 1961:

I finally remembered what Paul Stovall's wife's maiden name is Curtis Rand. Her brother married Clara Kernodle. I don't know if this will help you with the genealogy of the Kernodles.

I can't remember if I wrote you that cousin Dick Bradford of Taylor was not Grandmother's brother. He was much too old for that.

(Note: My father, Ernest A. Epps, called the Dick Bradford in Taylor Uncle Dick Bradford. I feel that there is some confusion. See the above note.)

Letter from Colonel Robert E. Kernodle, 6423 Washington Street, Kansas City 13, Missouri, 10 February, 1961:

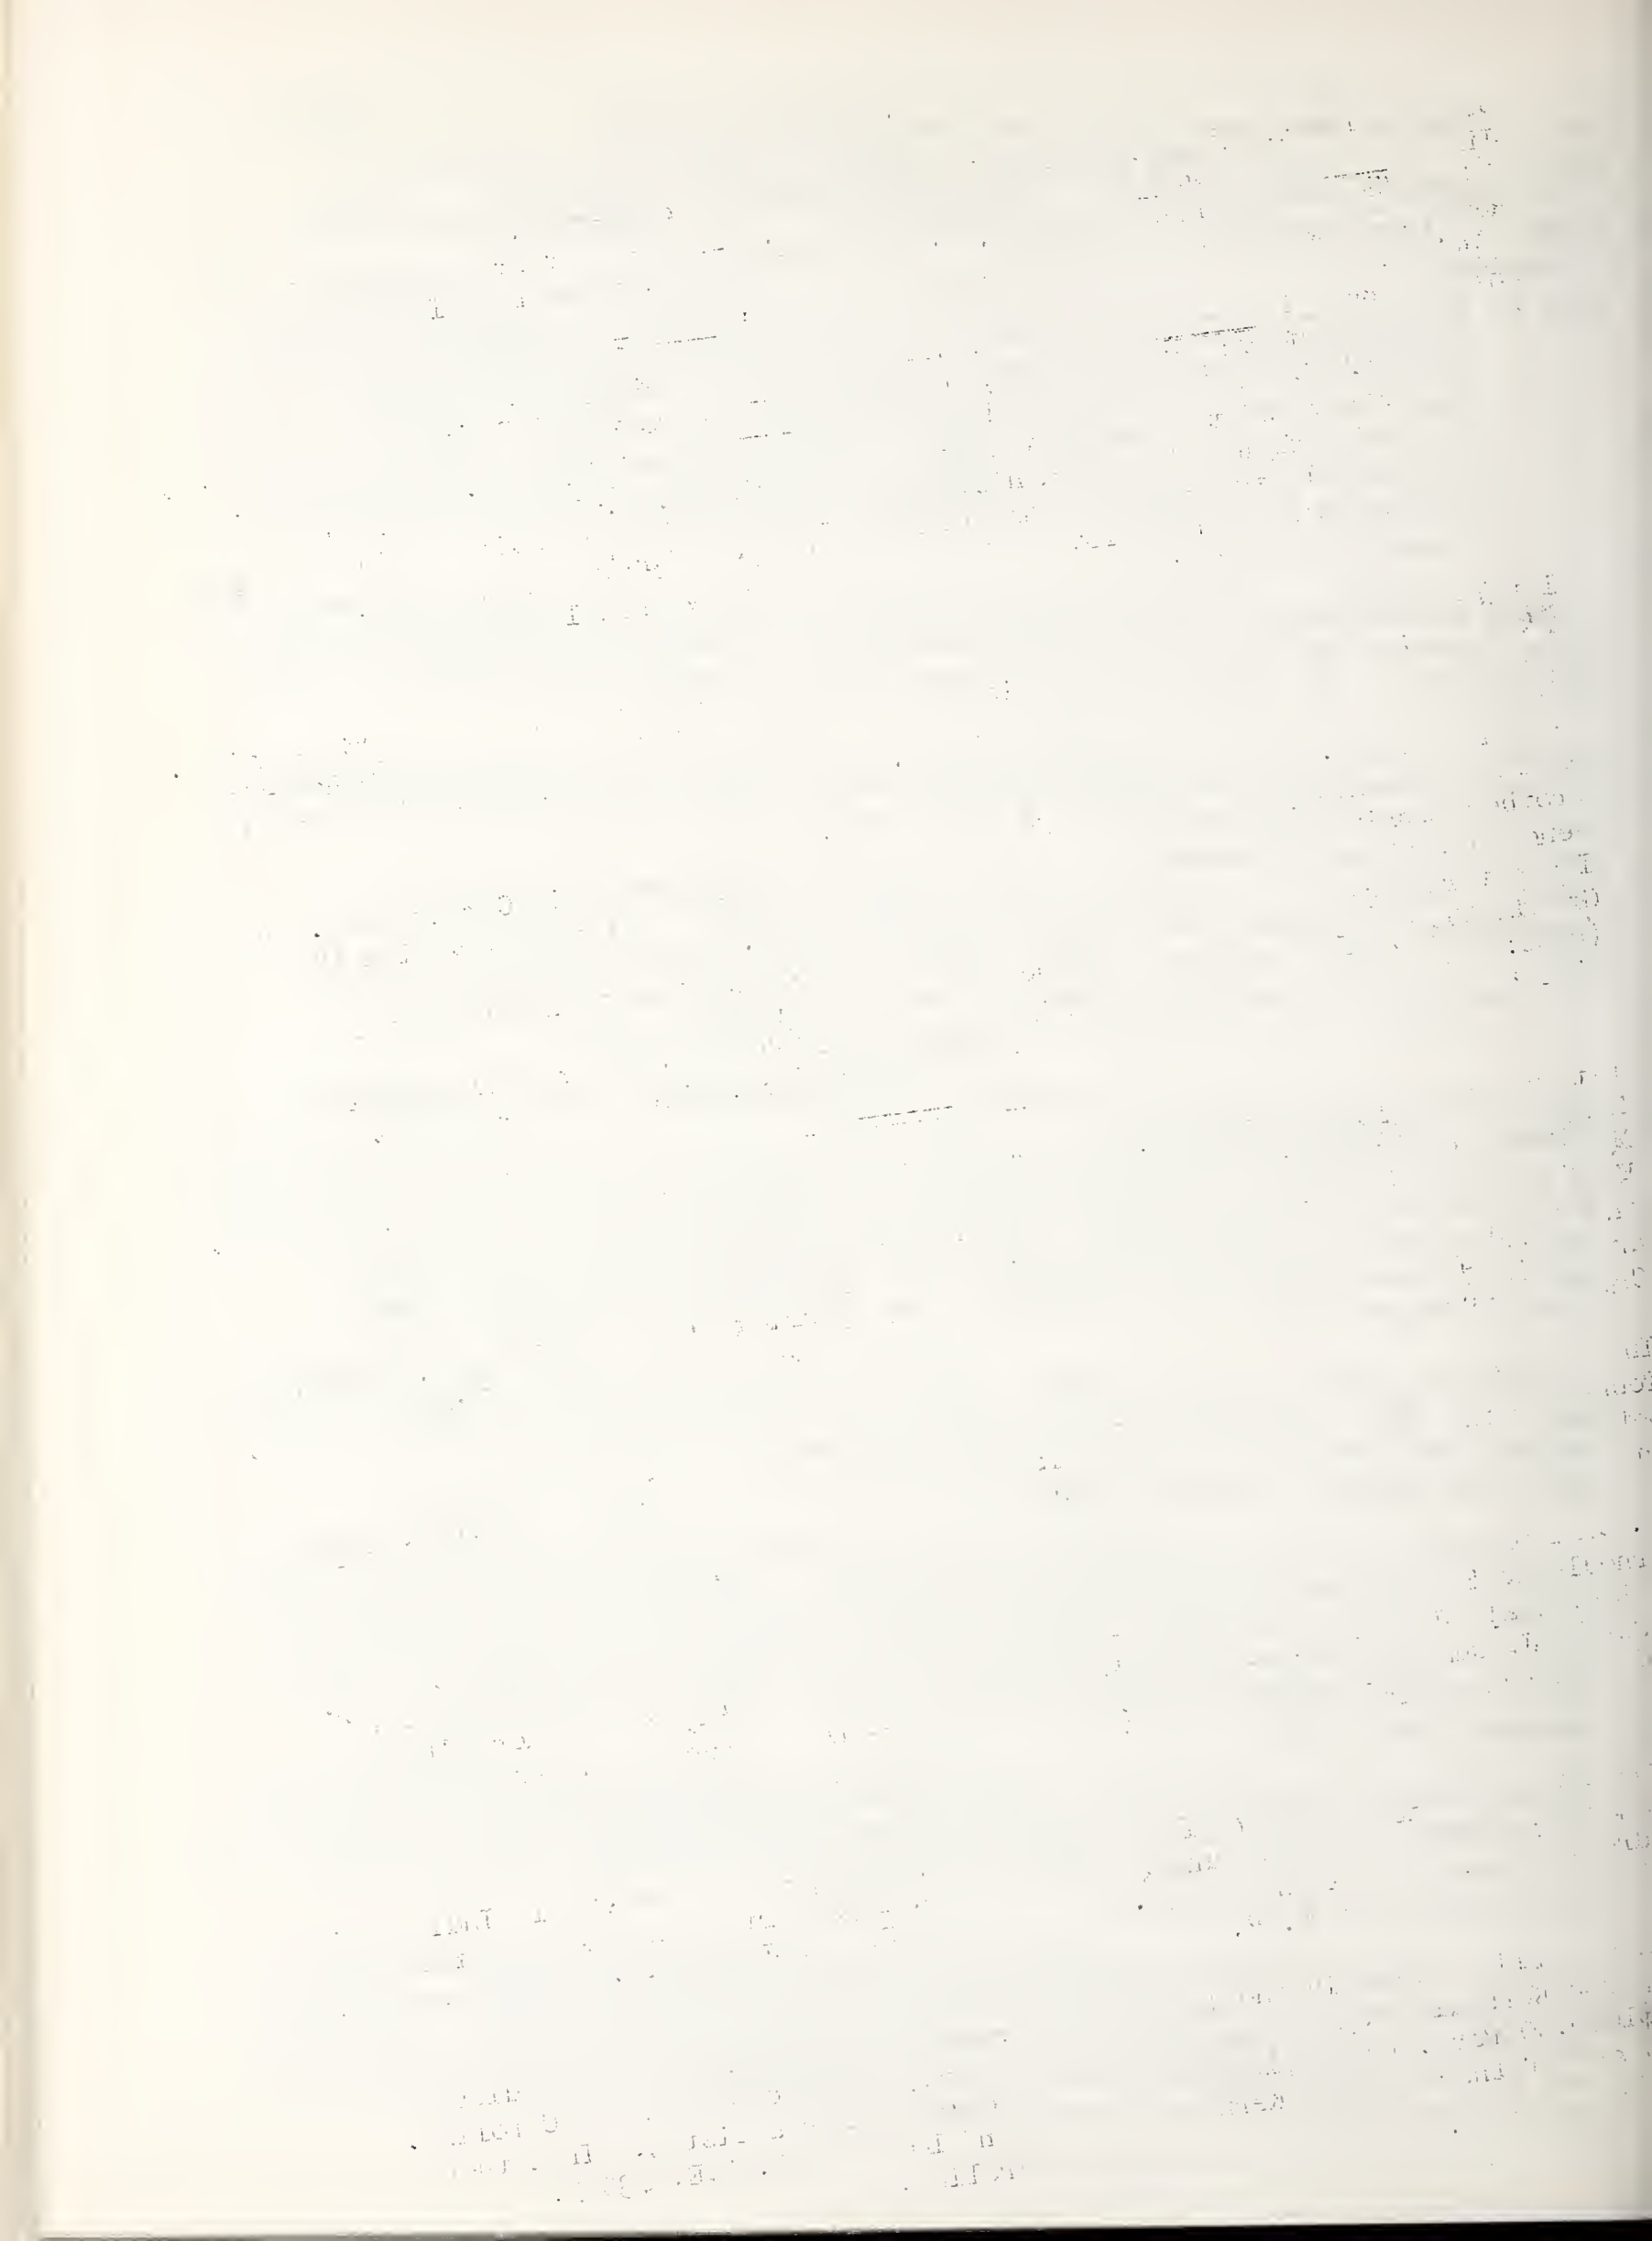

My great grand-father ((George Kernodle)) was supposed to live in Rockingham County, N.C., before he moved to Guilford County. I did not find a Kernodle in the 1800 and 1810 census of Rockingham. I did find in Marriage Bonds a George L. Kernodle and Sarah Jane Whitsett 10 September 1866, a Sanford Kernodle and Francis E. Cryer 7 December 1844 and a Sanford M. and Elizabeth Foster 9 March 1865.

In Guilford County, I found George Kernodle in the 1820 census. In McNairy County, Tenn., in the 1840 census we find listed as the head of families, George Kernodle between the ages of 70 to 80 and Bedford Kernodle between the ages of 20 to 30 and Alvis Kernodle between the ages of 20 and 30.

. . .marriage bonds...in Orange or Guilford County. I will list a few: George Kernodle to Elizabeth Ann Apple 21 August 1845, John Kernodle to Lucressa Lambert 19 Feb. 1821, John Kernodle to Mary W. Thomas 28 Jan. 1841, Josiah Kernodle to Isabella J. Cummings 1 March 1847, Rufus W. Kernodle to Rachel Underwood 3 Aug. 1844, Benjamin Kernodle to Uzzy Starks 17 Nov. 1817, George Kernodle to Mary Waynack 5 Dec. 1848.

In the McNairy census of 1870 I found a Nancy Kernodle age 49, born in Indiana, with $1500.00 in real estate and $500.00 personal property. She had several children, all born in Tenn., Thomas J. 21, John F., 18, James F.T. 16, Augustus P. 14, Sarah B. 9, William B. 8.

Another peculiar thing in the 1870 census--there were two Simpson Kernodles. L. Simpson Kernodle, age 47 and wife Jane age 49, both born in North Carolina. R.E. $1000.00 Pers. Prop. $1000. They had seven children listed. Then there was my grandfather Simpson Kernodle age 62 and Lucinda 60. R.E. $3000.00 and Pers. Prop. $2000.00, both born in North Carolina.

In the same census there was a George Kernodle, age 33 and wife Nancy N. 25 and two small children. There was Alvis Kernodle 55 and wife Clinca C. age 55, both born in North Carolina RE $900.00 and Pers. Prop. $800. Their children were Levia P. 25, Sarah C. 23, William S. 21, and Robert R. 20, all born in Tenn.

Letter from Colonel Robert E. Kernodle, 5 October 1960:

The records of McNairy county were all lost by fire in 1858. However in the Court House square there is a monument to the First settlers who entered the county in 1820 and in the list of names you will find Kernodle. We do know that George Kernodle was there in 1833 because records at the State Capital in Nashville show land deeded to George Kernodle April 8th and May 28th.

Letter from Miss Maxine Ammons, 1302 Jackson St., Corinth, Miss., Nov. 23, 1960:

Dear Loraine,

Miss Annie M. Ijams mentioned your being in Corinth last summer and that you wanted the Kernodle family history. Of course, I have several of the lines. Some of my information came from Sarah Frances Kernodle Ammons, who was more than 99 yrs. of age when she died. She was my grandmother and a cousin to Cousin Florence Epps Martin. Cousin Florence, who was a frequent visitor in our home, also gave me some.

Mr. Jim Epps was a prosperous merchant at Bethel Springs, Tenn. so fifty-five or sixty years ago. She was twenty years younger than he ((note, that is, in round figures--actually 15 years younger)) She has said that she was an "Old man's darling."

They moved to Corinth just a few years before I was born.

Cousin Florence contributed articles to various magazines and papers. She wrote some poetry.

So many of the Kernodles were born near New Salem, McNairy Co., Tenn.

I am sending you the part which deals with your family. For some time I was interested in the history, but my other kin (the younger ones) do not know much about it. If you learn anything more, I certainly would like to know about it. This Hiram Kernodle is the ancestor which Cousin Florence gave me.

Sincerely yours, Maxine Ammons

Enclosure:

KERNODLE

This family is Dutch in origin. When I (Maxine Ammons) was small, I heard my grandmother, Sarah Frances (Fanny) Kernodle Ammons, say that one of her uncles spoke Dutch and never learned to speak English.

Sarah Frances (Fanny) Kernodle was born in McNairy County, Tenn. March 6, 1844. She married James (Jim) H. Ammons Aug. 20, 1868. She died in Selmer, Tenn., where she lived some forty-eight years, Aug. 20 at 3:20 A.M., 1943. She was buried in Selmer, Tenn. She drew a Civil War Pension until the time of her death (Confederate).

Most of the older Kernodles were buried at Buna Vista out from Bethel Springs, Tenn.

Florence Kernodle married first Jim Epps, then Dr. Jim Martin ((Note. Dr. John R. Martin is the correct name)). She was buried at the Henry Cemetery in Corinth, Miss. Alice Kernodle, I think, was buried in the Henry Cemetery.

John Drew Chersher, Selmer, Tenn. can tell about Kernodles.

HORNBUCKLE

Fanny Hornbuckle was your great-great grandmother. When the census was taken in the 13 original states in 1790, the name Hornbuckle appeared. Fanny Hornbuckle married Hiram Kernodle ((Note. Hiram was probably the name of Fanny's father, and George is the name of her husband)). Their son was Thompson Kernodle, Cousin Florence's father.

Letter from Colonel Robert E. Kernodle, 7 December 1960:

Names get confused sometimes. Records that I have about my Grandmother show her name as Lucinda Ross Wilson. Yet, across an old letter my mother has written, "Grandmother, Lucinda Wray, Great-Grandparents, Capt Wm. and Nancy Wray from North Carolina. Lucinda Wray married Wilson first and then Simpson Kernodle." Also on the same sheet is written, "A Cousin, Dick Bradford is supposed to live in Taylor (Tyler) Texas."

In other notes I have information that some of the people of McNairy County moved to Terrell and Tyler, Texas. I suppose the Bradfords were in Taylor, because I have a printed Funeral Notice inviting friends to attend the funeral of R.S. Bradford. Burial in the City Cemetery, Taylor, Texas, October 14, 1908. This date was a year after the visit of your father.

Records at the State Capital of Tennessee state thatfirst settlers---McNairy County included the names--Bradshaw, Dillon, Hornbuckle, Kernodle. Then there is a legal document showing that Hiram Hornbuckle gave a deed of trust to Simpson Kernodle to secure an indebtedness of $125.00 on Feb. 5, 1839. This was attested by Levi Kernodle. There is also a record of a Deed of Trust that Simpson Kernodle gave George Kernodle to secure a debt of $549.00. This was signed by S. Kernodle and Alvis Kernodle and Recorded Dec. 28, 1838.

BRADFORD

Bradford notes furnished by Mrs. Fletcher King, 3801 Jackson Blvd., Birmingham 13, Alabama.

...there is listed in White County, Tennessee, in the 1830 census, one William Bradford, with him is listed: Males 1 5-10, 2 10-15, 1 15-20, 1 30-40. Females 2 under five, 1 5-10, 2 10-15, 1 40-50. The man 40-50 is probably William himself. The 1840 Census of the same county lists:

The Bradford Family of Fauquier County, Virginia--Excerpts from the article by Mrs. Philip Wallace Hiden, found in Vol. 27, Tyler's Magazine, p. 114 (oct., 1945). John Bradford (1) was born between 1690 and 1695, married about 1717 to Mary(Marr) Kingcart, widow of Thomas Kingcart, Jr.

Children:

John (2), Daniel (2), Hannah (2), Dinah (2), Sarah (2), Alexander (2), William (2), Joseph (2) and Benjamin (2). These last two twins

Joseph (2), twin of Benjamin, was born Nov. 14, 1738, died Nov. 14, 1828. Joseph Bennet Bradford must have had one or two children before his son William was born Aug. 1, 1760. Joseph (2) lived in Fauquier Co., Va., up to 1764, as he was defendant in a suit (Fauquier O.B. 1763-1764). He is said to have married a Miss George by whom he had Elizabeth (3) and Mary (3), twins, William (3) born Aug. 1, 1760, died July 20, 1831, and Catherine (3). Joseph Bennett Bradford and his wife separated and he moved to North Carolina where, about 1760, he married Margaret Wilson of Burke Co., N.C. By Margaret Wilson he had 9 children: John (3), Benjamin (3), Henry (3), James (3), Hamilton (3), Hannah (3), Mary (3) Sarah (3) and Nellie (3). The second marriage also ended in legal separation and Joseph Bennett Bradford (2) drifted into Tennessee, where he married Mrs. Susan (Bush) Jones, and they had twin children Hosea (3) and Susan (3). During his residence in Fauquier Joseph went by that name only, but after leaving Virginia he used the name "Bennett"--probably the middle name.

The 15 children of Joseph Bennett Bradford (2)

3. Katherine (3) m. _____ Shanks and moved to Kentucky (no additional data on these two girls have been found. It is possible that Katherine was younger than her brother William (3))

4. William (3) Aug. 1, 1760-July 20, 1831, married three times, became the father of 21 children. His pension declaration was made in 1828 (National Pension papers S, 39240) and he stated that he was a tailor by trade; his cousin Priestly Bradford testified that William (3) was reputed a Revolutionary soldier, serving 4 years. After the close of the Revolution, he lived for a time in Philadelphia, but returned to Fauquier and lived with his mother. He married 1st, Mary Steele, daughter of Samuel Steele, in Dec. 1786, of Fauquier Co., by whom he had four children; he married 2nd, Dec. 2, 1792, Kathy (1752-1809), daughter of Simon Morgan. By this marriage he had eight children; he married 3rd 1810 or 1811, Nancy (Feb. 4, 1785-July 16, 1848 in Mo.) daughter of Robert Boyles of Sumner Co., Tenn. William Bradford's children by first wife, Mary Steele:

1. Katherine (4) b. Sept. 21, 1787, married her 18th year to John Waddell by whom she had one child and died. Her husband moved to Mississippi.

2. Fielding (4) b. Feb. 8, 1879-Sept. 8, 1850, married Jan. 24, 1819, Mary McMillan, daughter of Martha McMillan of Augusta, Ga.

Robert Allen Sr. (c. 1675-1756) d. Henrico Co., Va., m. Sarah Walker: Joseph, Benjamin, Drury, Richard, Robert, William

Letter from Miss Katherine Reynolds, 4211 Caroline, Houston 4, Texas, March 14, 1961:

The Thomas Allin who was a son of William Allin of Granville Co., N.C., by his 2nd wife, Frances Grant, and thus a brother to Grant and William Allen was born May 14, 1757 in Hanover Co., Va. and died June 26, 1833 Harrodsburg, Mercer Co., Ky; married Feb. 16, 1786 Mercer Co., Ky., Mary Jouett, born June 11, 1765, Louisa Co., Va., died June 28, 1833 Mercer Co., Ky. Thomas was in the Revolution. His children were: Nancy Harriet Allen b. 1789; Wm. H. b. 1791; John Jouett b. 1793 m. 1st Sally Ann Hopkins and 2nd Cynthia McAfee. Thomas Allen, Jr. b. 1794; Charles W.; Polly Jouett; Grant Allen 2nd; Philip T.; Samuel Woodson; Benjamin Casey b. 1803.

As to the ancestor of my William Allin who married 1st Mary (Anne) Owen and 2nd Frances Grant and who died 1786 Granville Co., N.C., was born probably ca. 1714 - or 1724 in Hanover Co., Va. William ws the son of Robert Allen, Sr. (c. 1675-1756) d. Henrico Co. Va., Wife Sarah Walker. Their sons Joseph, Benjamin and Drury--both are recorded in St. Peter's Parish Register. But deeds in Hanover and Henrico Cos. show that he had Richard, Robert and Joseph. Another deed shows that my William was brother to Drury and thus a son of Robert who died intestate Oct. 4, 1756.

Robert was son of Richard Allen, Sr., who died Sept. 1725 of St. Peter's Parish, New Kent, Va., wife Elizabeth _____ Children of Richard Allen and Elizabeth _____ were Robert (1675-1756), Samuel Allen (c.1680____) of Goochland Co., Va., m. Elizabeth Walker and had Charles and Robert ; Richard Allen, Jr., who went to N.C.; William (c. 1690-1751) m. 1st Hannah _____ and 2nd Mrs. Mary Hunt Minge and had Judith, Ann, Joyce, Hannah, Mary, Samuel, Wm. Hunt, Valentine, George Hunt, John, Philip b. 1740.

But, back to Thomas (son of William). He applied for a pension Oct. 11, 1832. Said he was 75 years old and was born in Hanover Co., Va. from which place he went at an early age with his father to Granville Co., N.C. where he lived when the Revolution began and he was called into service--volunteered Feb. 27, 1776, Capt. Jesse Saunders Co.---went to Kentucky in 1781 to what was then Lincoln Co.

From N.C. Grants in Tenn.

Alexander Allen, Benjamin Allen, George Allen, Jessie Allen, John Allen, Mary Allen, Peggy Allen, Samuel Allen, Thomas Allen, Waller Allen, and William Allen received grants. John, Benjamin and Thomas Allens grants were for military service; most of these were preemptions or transfers from others.

North Carolina Military Grants to Allens:

John, Lt. 5th N.C. served from June 1, 1778 to _____

John, Capt. 1600 acres for 35 mo. service

John, Admr. Thomas Allen (Sargent) 2560 acres Warrant #1826 John Allen said to have died 1780.

From N.C. Soldiers in American Revolution by N.C. D.A.R., 1932.

John Allen's will in Mecklenburg Co. in 1776 mentions wife Agnes George Allen in 1770 mentions wife Sara N.

1. The first part of the paper deals with the general theory of the problem. It is shown that the problem is well-posed and that the solution is unique.
 The second part of the paper deals with the numerical solution of the problem. It is shown that the numerical solution is stable and that the error is of order $O(h^2)$.

The third part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The fourth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The fifth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The sixth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The seventh part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The eighth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The ninth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The tenth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The eleventh part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The twelfth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The thirteenth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The fourteenth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

The fifteenth part of the paper
 deals with the application of the
 theory to the problem of the
 motion of a particle in a magnetic field. It is shown that the motion is periodic and
 that the period is of order
 $O(h^{-1})$.

JAMES MacQUEEN

b. on the Isle of Skye, Scotland, about 1760. Came to this country probably in the year 1772, landing at the Port of Brunswick, Wilmington. N.C., and settling first in Anson, Co., where he was engaged in teaching school. His parents were Archibald MacQueen and Flora MacDonald, who was half-sister to the famous Scottish Heroine, Flora MacDonald. James MacQueen was a member of the North Carolina Legislature in 1794, 1802, and 1803, from Robeson Co. He was Deputy Clerk of Superior Court at one time and was a Colonel of a Militia Regiment and an Acting Justice of Peace at the time of his death in the 64th year of his age. He died at his home, Queensdale, N.C., June 21, 1824, and is buried in the Stewartville cemetery, about four miles southwest from Maxton, North Carolina.

The MacQueens of Corryborough, from which James MacQueen descended, were a sept of the Clan MacDonald and were head of the several branches of MacQueen. The MacQueens, sometimes called the Clan Revan, are typically a Celtic race. They were originally located in the Hebrides, and the founder of the clan is supposed to have been Roderick Dhu Revan MacSweyn, or MacQueen (the names being synonymous). In the 13th Century, Castle Sween, in the Kentrrie, was occupied by MacSweyns or MacQueens. A number of this family were among the Lamont Clansmen who were executed at Dunoon in 1646. The MacQueens of Corryborough were an offshoot of this Clan and settled in Strathdearn.

It is known that, prior to the American Revolution, two of his mother's brothers, Hugh and Alexander MacDonald, came over to this country from Scotland. Col. James MacQueen was a member of the Legislature of North Carolina from Robeson Co. in 1794, 1802, and 1803. His sisters who came with him to this country were Polly, Nepsey, Isabella, and Margaret MacQueen. James MacQueen located in the County of Anson and taught school. He was Deputy Clerk of the Superior Court of Robeson Co., Col. of a Militia Regiment, and was Acting Justice of the Peace at the time of his death at his home, Queensdale, in the 64th year of his age, June 21, 1824. He is buried in Stewartville Cemetery (then in Richmond Co.), about four miles southwest from Maxton. He married, about 1790, ANN (Anna, Anne) MacRAE b. about 1770 in Kentrye, Scotland d. Queensdale, N.C., 1855, aged 90. She was the daughter of John and Mary MacRae, who are buried in an ancient cemetery in Scotland Co., about four miles southeast of the Stewartville Cemetery. Anne MacRae came with her grandparents to America subsequent to MacQueen's arrival and entered at the Port of Charleston, S.C. Her parents came later and settled in Anson Co., N.C., where Anne MacRae became the pupil of James MacQueen and, later, his wife. She is buried beside her husband. ISSUE:

1. The first part of the report is a general introduction to the subject of the study. It discusses the importance of the problem and the objectives of the research.

2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methods used in the study. It includes a discussion of the experimental design, the data collection procedures, and the statistical analysis techniques.

3. The third part of the report is a presentation of the results of the study. It includes a discussion of the findings, a comparison of the results with previous research, and a conclusion about the significance of the study.

4. The fourth part of the report is a discussion of the implications of the study. It includes a discussion of the limitations of the study, the strengths of the findings, and the potential for future research.

5. The fifth part of the report is a summary of the study. It includes a brief overview of the main findings and a final conclusion about the overall results of the research.

6. The sixth part of the report is a list of references. It includes a list of all the sources used in the study, including books, articles, and other documents.

7. The seventh part of the report is an appendix. It includes any additional information that is relevant to the study, such as raw data, supplementary figures, or detailed descriptions of the experimental procedures.

8. The eighth part of the report is a glossary. It includes definitions of all the key terms and concepts used in the study, as well as any abbreviations or acronyms.

9. The ninth part of the report is a list of figures. It includes a list of all the figures used in the study, including tables, graphs, and other visual representations of data.

10. The tenth part of the report is a list of tables. It includes a list of all the tables used in the study, including data tables, summary tables, and other tables of information.

from some of the graves in the old cemetery about 300 yards north of Centre Presbyterian church, founded about 1797, Robeson Co., N.C. This cemetery is also known as the Fairly-MacEachin cemetery, and was on land owned by John Fairly. A Fairly descendant now owns it (1959):

Here lies Margaret Fairly Departed this life 20 August 1781 Aged LXII years She was the wife of John Fairly who was also buried there about 1798, but his stone has disappeared. They were natives of Scotland who bought land on Lumber River (of record in 1772).

In Memory of Patrick MacEachin A Native of Arsyleshire Scotland Who departed this life on the 25th of September 1828 in the 78th year of his age This was Para Ban. Ban is the Gaelic word for fair or blond. Para is the Gaelic form of Patrick. Peter and Patrick were used interchangeably.

Sacred to the Memory of Mrs. Mary MacEachin Consort of Patrick MacEachin Who departed this life 1st day of May 1833 in the 83rd year of her life Mrs. Lee says, "I believe she was a daughter of John and Margaret Fairly. The sketch which I am sending you some excerpts from was based on an interview with a Mr. Jud Conley who was a very old man when my mother wrote the paper about 1910. He stated that Para Ban's wife was a sister of Mr. Robert Fairly. Robert Fairly was John Fairly's son, but John Fairly did not mention Mary MacEachin in his will. It is possible that he provided for her otherwise."

From "The Scotch Settlers," a paper written by Marie Currie Mackinnon (Mrs. Lauchlin W. MacKinnon) about 1910 and given as a program for the Edinburg Book Club, Maxton, N.C.:

* In the Revolutionary War the Scotch of North Carolina did valiant service for Independence at the Battle of King's Mountain, and also at Guilford Courthouse, but, if some were loyal patriots, others remembering the oaths of allegiance they had taken before leaving the old country, saw it their duty to fight with the English, and in this, our own immediate Cape Fear section where Scotchmen were dominant, we find neighbor arrayed against neighbor, Whig against Tory. * About the time of the Revolutionary war, a short while before, perhaps, there came to this country a man whose name was Peter MacEachin, but who became better known among his neighbors by two Scotch words Para Ban, meaning "White Peter." His race has not perished, but still lives in the person of many descendants in Robeson and Scotland counties. * Para Ban settled in Robeson County on the banks of the Lumber River at the place now (1910) known as Sycamore Hill where Mr. Tom Russell lives. He married a sister of Mr. Robert Fairly. It seems that he was not satisfied to live in a rude log house as his neighbors did in that day, and so he built for himself a frame house and painted it red. Being a man of enterprise, he made many improvements on his place, building the first cotton gin in the country and making a causeway across Lumber River which was kept for long years afterwards as a toll bridge, and was burned, we believe, by Sherman's Army. By trade Para Ban was a blacksmith--a wonderfully strong one; in politics, he was a Tory. All over the country he had blacksmith shops where he would go at stated times to do work for the neighbors. One of these shops was located about seven miles up Lumber River from Maxton. On one occasion while Para Ban was there doing some work, he was captured by a number of Whigs under command of Col. Wade of Anson Co., who had camped at the Goose Pond Plantation for the night and was on his way to meet a band of Tories, about 100 in number, who were then in camp under David Fanning at McPhaul's Mill. *On the arrival of Para Ban at Wade's camp, he was given a trial by Court Martial and was sentenced to be shot. He was bound and tied down in a new log stable until the Whigs should have finished supper, when he was to be executed. While his captors were engaged at their meal, a young girl, Jean Watson (daughter of Alexander Watson who owned the plantation) took a case knife and, slipping out to the stable, released the bound man. One might think that Para Ban's ardor for the Tory cause would be damaged by this narrow escape from death, but not so. He at once set out for his home three miles distant. Nor were his troubles yet ended. On his way he was chased by wolves to what is now known as Fairly's Ford, where he jumped into the river and swam across to his home. Here he secured a horse, rode that night to McPhaul's Mill and notified Fanning of the presence of the Whigs at the Goose Pond. Fanning and his Tories lost no time in setting out, and next morning they met and surprised Wade and his men at Beattie's Bridge where a hot battle took place.

Newspaper clipping from the girlhood scrapbook of Marie Irene McEachin (later, Mrs. Ernest A. Epps) is apparently from one of the newspapers the sons of Dr. Hector Graham McEachin edited in Texas--probably the Colorado Clipper, Colorado City, Texas, 1891:

OUR GRANDMOTHER West Point, Miss., April 8.--Mrs. Maria McEachin, wife of Peter McEachin, died this morning at the advanced age of 82 years, and will be buried tomorrow. Mrs. McEachin was one of the oldest settlers of this county and city and occupied a prominent position in society for many years. She leaves six children, among whom are the wife of the Mayor of West Point, Hon. N. W. Ware, Dr. J. E. McEachin of this city, Hon. A.B. McEachin of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Dr. H. G. McEachin of Anson, Texas, Mrs. Capt. Fred Beall, of this city, and Capt. P. H. McEachin of Meridian, all people of prominence and standing in this and adjoining states. She was related to some of the best and most prominent families in Mississippi and Alabama. The funeral will be largely attended.--Memphis Appeal-Avalanche

Mrs. Maria McEachin was born in Robeson county, North Carolina, Jan. 10, 1810. She was the daughter of Col. James McQueen, who emigrated at an early date from the Isle of Skye, North of Scotland, to North Carolina. Her mother was Miss Anna McRae, also from the Isle of Skye. She had five sisters and six brothers, and was the last survivor of all of these. She was happily married to Peter McEachin, in Robeson County, N.C., in the year 1827, and was the mother of 13 children. Her husband in his 87th year, four sons and two daughters survive her. She was a devoted member of the Old School Presbyterian Church for sixty-five years, a model hostess and a pure and noble wife and mother. A great grand niece of Flora McDonald, who saved the life of Charles, the Pretender, and a lineal descendant of Robert Bruce, the last King of Scotland, she had royal blood in her veins and was loyal to the last to the traditions of auld Scotia.

The McQueens and McRaes have made many noble marks upon the pages of Southern history. Gen. John McQueen, the eldest brother of Mrs. McEachin, was a member of the United States Congress for 18 years. Was sent as commissioner to Texas by the Confederate Congress, and was a member of the Confederate Congress from South Carolina. Rev. Archibald McQueen, another brother, was an eloquent and noted Presbyterian minister in North Carolina, and yet another brother, Dr. Edmond McQueen, was a physician of great repute in North Carolina. The McRaes were also men of note. Many of them were celebrated So.* lawyers and one of them served as Governor of Mississippi many years ago. Mother McEachin, as she was called in West Point, was one of the grandest women that ever lived. . . .

Undated clipping from Colorado Clipper, Colorado City, Texas:

The Clipper has received the sad intelligence of the death of [Dr. J.E. McEachin] the above gentleman, at his home in West Point, Miss., on Wednesday evening, May 25th. Dr. McEachin was born in Robeson county, North Carolina, Dec. 18, 1828, where he resided until he attained manhood. He graduated from Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, in 1851. During the same year he moved to Lowndes county, Ala., where he practiced his profession successfully, and was happily married in 1854 to Miss Mary Ann Smith, of Prattsville, Ala., where he resided until after the war, when he moved to West Point, Miss. [Note: paragraph of eulogy skipped] . . . [He] was the eldest brother of Dr. H. G. McEachin of Sweetwater, and uncle to the editors of the Clipper.

[Note: Hector Aren McEachin and Edmund Kelly McEachin, sons of Dr. H.G. McEachin, were editors of the Clipper.]

An article on the history of Charles Edward, Stuart Prince of Wales and the Highland Clansmen who followed him into defeat at Culloden, written by H. G. McEachin, with signature date, Cuero, Texas, November 26, 1894, in scrapbook clippings of Marie Irene McEachin (later, Mrs. E. A. Epps) concludes:

From the bloody battlefield of Culloden fled many of the brave and true Clansmen, who were in religion Scotch Presbyterians of the John Knox school. They landed in Wilmington, N.C., U.S.A., and settled in Robeson, Moore, Cumberland, Richmond, Anson, and Mecklinburg counties, and those same brave Scotchmen were the advance workers in the Mecklinburg declaration of independence that made this country "The land of the free and the home of the brave."

Undated clipping from scrapbook of Marie Irene McEachin:

Dr. McEachin --The Bulletin editor was introduced a few days since to Dr. McEachin, who has just taken control of the hotel newly built by Alex Hamilton. Finding him a courteous and kindly gentleman we took the liberty of commenting upon his name and asked if he were not of the same Scottish clan as the Duke of Argyle. His reply was that our supposition was correct and that his family traced back to the McDonalds, of whom Flora McDonald is famous in song and story and a portion of whose history is related in the celebrated work of Sir Walter Scott--"Rob Roy." The doctor informed us that he had written to Edinburg with the design of accurately tracing the relationship and showed us the following letter from the Lord Provost of that city which, presuming interesting, we publish verbatim et literatim:

City Chambers

Edinburgh, February 2, 1892

SIR: I beg to acknowledge your letter of the 12th of November 1891. I regret that pressure of work has prevented me from attending to the matter sooner.

I made an attempt to get for you a copy of McHenzie's history of McDonald's and Lords of the Isles, published at Inverness in 1881, but found that the book was out of print, and no longer to be purchased unless a second hand copy can be obtained by chance. This book contains the history of Flora McDonald, and herewith you will receive a copy of the Appendix to the book giving a list of Flora McDonald's descendants, which seem to me to bear on your questions. These extracts have been taken from a copy of the book which was loaned to me for the purpose. Should I be able to obtain a second hand copy of the book I will forward it to you.

In the Gaelic language the word "Mac," or "Mhic," or sometimes written "Mc" and sometimes written "Vic," is always put as a prefix and means "the son of." "McDonald" is the Gaelic form of "Donaldson," and your name "McEachin" means "son of Hector."

The letters of the alphabet in writing the Gaelic language are not used with the same value as in English, and consequently an English person cannot properly pronounce a Gaelic word which he sees in print, and many English people who can speak Gaelic, having learned it by ear, do not recognize the words when they see them in print.

From the extracts enclosed you will see that Flora McDonald had a younger brother Angus, who succeeded to the family place, and also a step-father Hugh McDonald, who married her Mother. I have not been able to trace the history of either the Brother or Step Father; but your Grandmother's connection with Flora must obviously be from one or the other of those. Flora McDonald returned from America to Scotland and died on 5th March 1790. She was buried at Kilmuir, Skye. Her funeral was attended by thousands of persons.

Yours faithfully,

J.A. Russell

Lord Provost of Edinburg

Hector Aren was associated with his brother Edmund Kelly in newspaper publication in various places in Texas; they were proprietor and editors of the Colorado Clipper in 1892. Hector Aren was onetime editor of the Stockman-Journal and an editor of the El Paso Morning Times. He was connected with the Texas Railroad Commission during the term of Governor Hogg, and while in Austin, along with his brother, Edmund Kelly, he was associated with O. Henry in the publication of "Rolling Stones." Boyce House in his "I Give You Texas" newspaper column, August 6, 1959 wrote: When I went to Eastland in the summer of 1921, a predecessor as editor of the Daily Oil Belt News had been Hec. A. McEachin (pronounced, approximately "Mc Cann") and some of the publicity articles and publications still come to him addressed as editor.

It was not until years later that I learned that he had been connected with O. Henry's magazine, the "Rolling Stone". The publication announced that H. A. McEachin was "associated in the business and management of this paper." The association was brief for, only four issues later, the career of the paper came to an end.

I met McEachin only one time and that when he paid a short visit to the Oil Belt News Office along about 1923. I recall him as heavy-set and as smoking a pipe. Had I known then that he had been O. Henry's companion, he would have been plied with questions. McEachin, being a newspaperman, doubtless could have told much more than did the untrained observer. So far as I know, McEachin never wrote down his impressions and experiences and so the information is lost.

GEORGE McNUTT b. Ulster, Ireland (1751?); came with brother William from North Ireland and settled in that part of Augusta Co., Va., that became Rockbridge Co. Both served in the Revolutionary Army and were mustered out in the Valley of Virginia. William went to the Northwest Territory, probably Illinois. After GEORGE'S marriage to Isabella Collison (previous to 1780) they settled first at the Irish Bottom, Greene Co., Tenn. (now Cocke Co.)--from the present Rankin down along the French Broad River, and, later, in about 1787, settled in Hawkins Co., Tenn. (now Knox Co.) on the Holston River, about three and one-half miles above Knoxville. His land grant was from North Carolina. Tradition is that GEORGE McNUTT was at the Battle of King's Mountain, Oct. 7, 1780, but the family has no document. He was a Charter Trustee of Blount College, chartered 1794, and now the University of Tennessee. He was on the first Board of Elders of the Lebanon and the First Presbyterian Church of Knox Co. D. Jan. 5, 1823, in the 72nd year of his life and is buried on a hill overlooking his residence, near Knoxville, Tenn.

George McNutt with his brother William came to America from North Ireland near the beginning of the American Revolution and settled in that part of Augusta Co., Va., which in 1777 became Rockbridge Co. That they were the forerunners to discover a suitably located body of land in Va. upon which a colony of their kin from Ireland could be planted that both brothers served in the Revolutionary army, and were mustered out in the Valley of Va. After that William went to the Northwest Territory, probably Illinois, and George having previous to 1780 married Isabella Collison (daughter of James Collison and his wife Isabella) in Augusta Co. immigrated to the Southward settling first at the Irish Bottom in now Cocke Co., Tenn. (then Greene Co.) from about the present Rankins down along the French Broad river, to Leadville, and subsequently in about 1787 removed and settled in the present Knox Co. (then Hawkins Co.) on north or west side of Holston river about 3½ miles above Knoxville, on the Dandridge road. A descendant of George McNutt, Mrs. Johnson is now (1915) living on a part of his original grant from North Carolina.

A tradition in the family is that George McNutt was at the Battle of Kings Mountain, Oct. 7, 1780, but the family have no documentary evidence of this.

George McNutt was on the first board of Elders of Lebanon and the First Presbyterian churches of this county and was a charter Trustee of Blount College, now the University of Tennessee, chartered in 1794.

Geo. and Isabella Collison McNutt had the following children:

- Isabella b. May 5, 1780, m. Moses White
- William b. Mar. 31, 1783, d. May 17, 1842. He married first Elizabeth Brockeston DeWitt, 2nd m. Margaret V. Gillispie
- Jennie m. John McFarland
- Rebecca m. John Webb
- Nannie m. John Jack

Arsneth m. Robert Lindsey (Linsdy?)

Obituary of George McNutt. Copied from a paper published in Knoxville, Tenn., dated Jan. 8, 1823:

"Died on Sunday last, the 5th of Jan. 1823 after a lingering and painful illness, Geo. McNutt Esq. in the 72 year of his age a Christian and an honest man. The deceased has left a widow and family of children; with a numerous train of connection to mourn his loss which is deeply lamented by all who knew him. He had been for about 40 yrs. a member of the Presbyterian church, and during the greater part of that time a presiding Elder. At an early period of his life he came to America and assisted in establishing the independence of his adopted country. He performed the duties of husband, parent and friend with indulging charity, tenderness, affection and brotherly love, and unwavering truth and stern integrity marked his conduct in all his relations with the world."

This copy sent by Mr. McClung; he says he is satisfied it was taken from Knoxville Register, conducted by Col Fred S. Heiskiel and his brother-in-law, Hugh Brown. These editors were painstaking and very careful to publish only facts. He (Mr. McClung) got these records from Mrs. Johnson who lives in part of the old home place once owned by her ancestor Geo. McNutt.

Recollections of George McNutt by his grandson George McNutt White::

George McNutt was one of the first bench of Elders of the First Presbyterian Church of Knoxville, Tenn. Was born in the Province of Ulster Ireland. When he landed in A. he settled in Rockbridge Va. where he married with Isabella Collison from which place he moved to Knox County Tenn. and settled some place on the North side of the French Broad River. From this place they moved to a farm a short distance below the junction of the French Broad and the Holston Rivers and settled in the bottom land and finding the situation too low built on higher ground which overlooked the bottom more or less.

Mrs. McNutt having died leaving six or 7 children, and finding it difficult to regulate his home without some more experienced person, they all being quite young and inexperienced in the matter of housekeeping, he intermarried with a Miss Kain a sister of Col John Kain who lived seven or eight miles above Knoxville, and by her he had one daughter--(Mary)--and died. Then he married "Ginny" Anderson who survived him.

He died in the year 1823 and was buried on a high hill overlooking the river near his residence, age about 72 years.

Isabella his oldest child, married Moses White (son of Col James White the founder of Knoxville). Isabella was born May 5, 1780. Jennie his second child m. John McFarland. Rebecca m. John Webb. Nannie m. John Jack and they moved to Morgan Co. Arsneth m. Robert Linsley.

William, the oldest son, married a Miss Dewitt of Cocke Co. and by said marriage had one child--his mother dying when he was an infant he was raised by Col Smith's son, Capt Alexander Smith, whose wife was Mary Dewitt (the sister of Elizabeth B. Dewitt the first wife of Wm McNutt). William after remaining a widower for a time, married a daughter of Thomas Gillespie and they moved to a Western district of Middle Tenn.

James (2nd son of Geo) married Mary Fleming, a step-daughter of Col. Francis A. Ramsey and they settled in the upper part of his father's farm where they lived and died.

Mary (Polly) his daughter by second marriage, married William McFarland of Jefferson Co.

George Anderson, his (Geo.'s) youngest son and only child by 3rd wife, married Malinda a daughter of Robert Houston Esq. and after three children were born to him he was killed by falling from his horse near his residence when returning from home.

This copy furnished by Mrs. Johnson of Knoxville (Mrs. Richard P. Johnson) was prepared by Esq. Geo. M. White the gr. grandfather of Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson living in Knoxville, Tenn. to date, July, 1915.

 Henri, b. Feb. 28, 1862, d. Oct., 1939
 Samuel, d. 1898
 Warren J. d. 1907 in Florida
 Annie, d. 1876

Alexander McNutt is supposed to have been in confidential relations with Gov. Denwiddie to whom he delivered his account of the Sandy Creek Expedition of 1756. After his affray with Andrew Lewis in Staunton he went to England and, upon recommendation of the Gov. of Va., was admitted to an audience with the King. He received extensive tracts of land in Nova Scotia, the French having been driven out, and he brought over many people from the north of Ireland including some people of his own name and his sister Mrs. Weir. The Ship Hopewell of Londonderry arrived in Nova Scotia with upwards of 200 persons in Oct. 1761 [a letter from Halifax, dated Oct. 26, 1761, printed in Boston Gazette] for settlement of the Province with Col. Alexander McNutt. In Nov. 1762 McNutt arrived with 170 settlers. . . . While living in Nova Scotia 1761 McNutt executed a power of attorney, authorizing his brother John McNutt to sell and convey his real estate. . . John McNutt on August 16, 1785, conveyed to Thomas Smith for £ 110, Lot No. 10 in Staunton [Va.], which Alexander had purchased in 1750 for £ 3.

In Nova Scotia, in the deed of 1785, Alexander is described as "late of Augusta Co., now of Halifax, Nova Scotia." He became a religious enthusiast and attempted to found a settlement called the "New Jerusalem." In 1796 he attempted to convey by deed 100,000 acres in Nova Scotia to the Synod of Va., in trust for benefit of Libert Hall Academy. . . McNutt never married.

John McNutt, a brother of Alexander, settled on North River, Rockbridge. His wife was Catherine Anderson, a great aunt of Judge Francis T. Anderson. One of John McNutt's sons, Alexander was father of Gov. Alexander McNutt of Miss. and grandfather of Gen. Frank Paxton and Gen. Albert G. Jenkins. A daughter of John McNutt married 1st Ensign McCorkle who was killed at Cowpens. Her second husband was Arthur Glasgow. Waddell, Annals of Augusta Co., pp. 230-231.

[From handwritten notes in my Grandmother McEachin's handwriting in her notebook]

Isaac Anderson emigrated from Ireland about 1727 when his youngest son was an infant, and with his 4 sons and two daughters settled in what is now Rockbridge Co., Va. Then it was that part of Orange Co. which later became Augusta Co. His children were:

John--who was killed by the Indians
James--who married Jane Ellison
Jacob--who married Esther Baxter
Isaac--who married Margaret Evans
Molly--who married James Bayless
Betsy--who married William Gilmore

The children of James and Jane Ellison were: John, Isaac, James, Robert, Jacob, Martha Jane & Margaret.

Jacob, son of James, married Rebecca Anderson, his cousin. She was the daughter of Isaac Anderson and Margaret Evans. The children of Jacob and Rebecca were: James, Margaret, Jane, Martha, Adaline, Rebecca, and Elizabeth.

Isaac Anderson m. Margaret Evans. Their children were Martha, married James McCampbell, Dec. 22, 1774
 William, married Nancy McCampbell April 6, 1779
 (Nancy born April 17, 1757)
 Mary, married Andrew McCampbell
 Jane or Jean [Virginia--Ginny], married, as third wife, George McNutt.

It is said that Margaret Evan's mother was in the seige of Londonderry.

Most of the Anderson family removed from Rockbridge Co., Va., to Tenn.

From a letter fragment, written by a niece of Gov. McNutt of Mississippi, apparently to my Grandmother McEachin or some member of her family (the first and last pages of this letter are missing):

"Uncle Benjamin [McNutt] was a young physician & located in Mississippi or Louisiana. In 1834, when on a voyage to South America, he was shipwrecked and drowned. All of the daughters lived in Virginia except Aunt Rebecca Hickman who removed to Missouri, & Aunt Sally married Ferdinand Sims at Vicksburg when visiting her brother Gov. McNutt.

"Alexander McNutt had an uncle of the same name, brother of John McNutt [mentioned on previous page]. . . his property [in Nova Scotia] was confiscated when he took part against the English in the Revolution. He joined the American army at Saratoga, & was afterwards an officer under DeKalb in the South.
He never married, & died in Rockbridge County, in 1811. This is the Alexander who wore the Court Dress [ever after his presentation to the King] when he visited President Jefferson in Virginia. My great grandfather Alexander McNutt [son of John] was also a Revolutionary soldier, & fought against the British at the Battle of Cowpens, & it was on his record that I joined the DAR. My authority for the above information is Mrs. Leander McCormick's Book of Genealogies.
